Heritage Church Advent meetings welcome all

Heritage United Church of Christ marked the beginning of the Advent season with a series of weekly study meetings examining the history, aims and purposes of the denomination, according to the Rev. Wendell H. Phillips, pastor.

Open to members and the general public, the Tuesday night meetings at 8 p.m. are held in the church, 3106 Liberty Heights Ave., corner Dennlyn Rd.

Heritage was formerly known as the Northwest Congregational Church.

It changed its name due to the merger between the Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The United Church of Christ is the new denomination formed as a result of this merger.

* * *

THE CHURCH was founded in May 1962 by a group including Anne and Vallen Emery, Miss Charlie Harvey, Marian Alston, Lettie and Wayland Wilson, Mildred Forehand, Edith Sparrow, and John Wood.

REV. WENDELL H. PHILLIPS

The first meeting was held in Fellowship House.

Later, services were held in the Mondawmin Meeting Room, St. Luke United Church of Christ, and the Messiah Church of Christ.

Clayton Wallace, Field Secretary for the Church Extension for the Baltimore-Washington area assisted the newly organized mission church.

Financial assistance and guidance came from the Mid Atlantic Conference of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Potomac Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

* * *

THE REV. MR. Phillips, called to the church in September, 1964, is a graduate of the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

Heritage, which now has a membership of 201, was founded as a place where all people may find a spiritual home and take a responsibility in church government and program development in accordance to individual talents and abilities, said the Rev. Mr. Phillips.

Last Sunday, the beginning of Advent, his subject was "Going to Take A Sentimental Journey?"

He urged the congregation to make a spiritual journey to inner-space, to re-examine their lives and re-dedicate themselves to Christianity in action.

ELEVATED — Rev. James V. Doswell, 2401 Walbrook, became a bishop of the Church of God in Christ during the 59th convocation at Memphis. Pastor of the Doswell Temple, 520 Whitmore Ave., he supervises the Central Jurisdiction of Maryland and the foreign department in Puerto Rico where he is founder of several churches.

Wednesday rites for Percy James Simpson

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Faith Baptist Church for Percy James Simpson Jr., 35, 604 B Cherryerest Rd., in Cherry Hill.

Mr. Simpson died suddenly on Nov. 26 at his home. He had been a State Employment Security worker since 1953.

The deceased was born in Baltimore, July 21, 1931, son of Mrs. Luvenia Simpson, who survives, and the late Percy James Simpson Sr.

He was a graduate of Dunbar High School. A World War II veteran, he was buried in Baltimore National Cemetery.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by wife, Mrs. Edna Beasley Simpson; two daughters, Denice and Renee and two sons, Derwin and William.

Also a sister, Mrs. Esther Bernice McIntosh; a brother, William B. Simpson; a great uncle, Reather Adams; a grandmother, Mrs. Claudia Black, Winston - Salem, N.C.

Also surviving is an uncle, William L. Adams, well-known businessman.

The Locks Funeral Home handled arrangements.

ACCORDING TO the Medical Examiners office, Mr. Simpson died of hypertension and heart disease.

Stricken at his home, relatives state he was watching TV with a friend when he suddenly arose, went into the bathroom and fell over backwards.

Mr. Simpson was pronounced dead on arrival at South Baltimore General Hospital at 3:26 p.m.

George Mayo

Funeral services were held for George Mayo, 70, 3013 Pressman St., Wednesday, at the Morton and Dyett Funeral Home.

Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mr. Mayo, a retired 20-year employee of Royster's Fertilizing Co., died Saturday at the Hopkins Hospital, after a short illness.

He was born in Roper, N.C.

His parents were Thomas and Jennie Mayo.

Mr. Mayo is survived by two brothers, Herbert and Walter Mayo, both of Baltimore; and two sisters, Miss Lillian Mayo, Baltimore; and Mrs. Hattie Anderson, Portsmith, Va.

Roman Holiday opens Tuesday at Holiday Inn

The opening of The Roman Holiday introduces new excitement into the night life of Baltimore on Tuesday evening, December 6.

Located on the penthouse of the Holiday Inn - Downtown, The Roman Holiday will be open to the general public, and will be under the personal management of Herbi Kaye, formerly with the local Playboy Club.

The Roman Holiday is an elegant, intimate room for dancing and cocktails that will feature live entertainment three times nightly — at 8, 10 and 12 midnight, Monday through Saturday.

OPENING ACT at the new dance club in the sky is a quintet of Mexican troubadors called Los Vegas — acclaimed by reviewers as the new sound of the Americas. They will appear at the Roman Holiday for two weeks, coming here from New York's Basin Street East.

The Los Vegas are a pianist, two guitarists, a drummer, and a timbale bongo player ,all excellent musicians and singers — as Louis Sobal said, "Triple A endorsement of the exciting and versatile Los Vegas." They have names — first ones at least! — Carlos, Henrique, Lico, Daniel and Roberto, but everyone says Los Vegas, and that seems to be enough.

The Roman Holiday opening, along with the complete restaffing of the revolving restaurant now called "Circle One" and a new room for private parties and meetings called "Caesar's Forum," plus the cocktail lounge, "Nero's Fiddle" are the first completed steps in a million-and-a-half dollar expansion program on the site of the Holiday Inn Downtown.

Planned for spring opening is a new addition of 150 luxury rooms and suites.

CONGRATULATING Major William M. Ransom Jr. on his recent promotion to Col. Paul A. Loop, commanding officer, 12th Support Brigade, Fort Bragg.

Major Ransom, family visit during holidays

SAILOR CITED — Seaman Apprentice Floyd W. Morse, son of Mrs. Mildred I. Morse, 3016 Dupont Ave., has been commended for heroic performance as a gunner on the U.S.S. Pickaway recently when Marines were put ashore in Viet Cong territory. Morse's "competence and devotion to duty in the face of enemy fire" won him his citation.

Maj. William M. Ransom and his family visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ransom Sr., 1822 Pressman St., over the Thanksgiving holidays.

The career officer is a graduate (1957) of Morgan State College. He entered service the same year. He was promoted to major in August 1966 and is a medical service corps officer assigned to the 5th Evacuation Hospital at Fort Bragg, N.C.

During his nine years of service in the Medical Service Corps his military assignments include Ulm, Germany, Fort Devans, Mass., Korea, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and Fort Bragg.

Major Ransom recently took the officers career course at Brooke Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston.

He is married to the former Vera Howard of Baltimore and they are the parents of three sons, Kevin 6; Keith, 4 and Kyle, 6 months.
