—Gregory to leave

rand Russell.

BUT IN Washington, State Department officials said that Gregory had not applied for passport validation to Hanoi. They said if he went without validation to North Viet Nam, to which U.S. travel is limited by the State Department, he could face loss of passport and criminal penalties of up to five years imprisonment and $5,000 fine.

GREGORY indicated he is not concerned because he does not have approval of the U.S. State Department to make the trip.

"I think I'll be trusted more by the North Vietnamese Government without State Department approval," Gregory said.

Gregory said he is making the trip "Not as an American but as a human being."

HE wants to entertain the American prisoners because, "When a man is captured, he becomes more important."

He said his wife Lillian and two eldest daughters, Michelle, 7, and Lynn, 5, would go with him to North Viet Nam along with his personal secretary, Arthur Stoyer.

The entertainer and his wife are currently on trial in Thurston County Superior Court. The couple is charged with illegal fishing, for their part in demonstrations supporting claims of a group of Indians earlier this year.

IF HE is convicted, Gregory said he would appeal, post bond and proceed to Viet Nam.

Describing himself as a social satirist, said he would have to rewrite his act if he gets approval to entertain the prisoners. He said he hopes to take along some musical entertainers.

IF THE entertainment is approved by the Communists, Gregory said he would drop out of show business for one or two years. "Even though I know my stock in the entertainment world would go up."

He said he doesn't want to make any financial gain from the trip even though it will cost him between $50,000 and $100,000.

He planned to raise money for the visit by appearances in Chicago nightclubs. Gregory calls Chicago his hometown and is announced candidate for mayor there.

cording to police, was injured around 1:30 p.m., but no notice reached them until more than two hours later. Although vice principal Pierre Davis summoned the ambulance which transported the youngster to Lutheran, no representative of the school accompanied him, Mr. Lesesane charged.

POLICE investigators confirmed this report and added that they were notified by hospital officials. Mr. Lesesane told the AFRO he also called police and was unable to contact school officials to get details of the fatal incident.

Dr. Sydney Chernak, assistant and school superintendent in charge of secondary education, exonerated Douglass officials Wednesday, reporting that his inquiry showed no evidence that they were negligent.

Young Lesesane's death climaxed a siege of tragedies plaguing the Douglass student population.

In addition to young Lesesane, other Douglass students truck by tragedy were:

Miss Catherine (Lump) Williams, popular senior, who died in an early morning auto smash-up on the Baltimore Beltway en route home from a dancing engagement at a Glen Burnie night club.

Samuel Duckett, a 10th grader, is convalescing from a bullet in the brain. He was shot Nov. 8 when another student fired a pistol in the school cafeteria.

In addition to his parents, the youth is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sara L. Davis, Linda, 12, and one brother, Leonard L., 7. Also a grandmother, Mrs. Ella Hampton of Tubeville, S. C.

and Mr. Jones agreed — loved school, football and was working hard in class and playing hard on the field to "win a scholarship so he could go to college."

With strain and emotion mirrored in his face, Mr. Jones said, barely above a whisper, "He has always told me the truth. I just can't believe . . ."

His voice trailed off into silence.

Retaining his voice, the troubled father conceded, "Yes, I've seen him and talked with him, but I'm not supposed to discuss that."

While their other children alternately watched television, wrestled with homework, and ate snacks, Mr. and Mrs. Jones sat silently, obviously wrestling with turmoil from within. Finally, he spoke up.

"You study, you wonder how a thing like this could happen. You can't explain it. Nobody can explain it."

Their other children are: Annie M., 15, a ninth grader at Clifton Junior High School; George, 13, a seventh grader at the same school; Sara B., 12 and Suzie, 9, both students at School No. 136.

THEY BAGGED ONE — Perry Spain, 1908 W. Fairmount Ave., points to hunting mate Jacob Reed, 2104 Penrose Ave., who brought down a 146-pound deer as they hunted Friday in Somerset County. William Macon, 440 N. Gay St., at left, rounded out the hunting party, their first trip of the season. Reed dropped the deer with a 30-30 rifle.

STORING TROUT
Here's a novel way to keep trout. Place them on ice and soak in salt water for a half hour. Then put in pan of fresh water and freeze solid overnight. When you want them, thaw. Keeps trout good as they taste like they just jumped out of the brook. (Wolf, Almont)

FEATHER HOLDER
Some outdoor fishermen use a collapsible holders tool to hold their feathers while tying flies. Made of wire, it can be carried in a pocket.

In Memoriams

BELL — In loving memory of our husband and father, GEORGE H. BELL, who passed away December 1, 1957.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed his loving eyes,
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His work hours, his days of pain,
His sweepstakes nights are past.
His sweepstakes, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife—
DOROTHY E. BELL
and CHILDREN—DAWN and SAWN

BOOKER — In memory of our loved one, FRANCEL LEON JR., who passed away December 4, 1960.
We cannot forget you, and do not intend
We think of you often, and will do the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be
But dear to our memory you will always be.
CATHERINE
Sons, FRANCEL and

BIDDLE — In loving memory of our dear mother, EMMA, who departed this life December 2, 1947.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall
Love's remembrance outlasts all
And through the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance Dear mother of you.
DAUGHTERS—ETHEL, MYRTLE, JANESTA

BROWN — In loving memory of my dear mother, HARRIETT R. BROWN, who passed away twelve years ago, December 3, 1954.
My heart still aches with loneliness
My eyes shed many tears
God knows how much I still miss my dear
At the end of twelve long years
Devoted Daughter—
ZELMA B. HOLLEY.

CHEW — In loving memory of my dear husband REV. WILLIAM H. CHEW, who passed away November 3, 1961.
We walked together, you and I,
We serve and in joy
We shared our pains and happiness
We love without alloy
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky—
For all eternity!
Wife—PAULINE R. CHEW

COLLINS — In loving memory of our dear mother, CLARA COLLINS, who passed away December 3, 1962.
You've not forgotten, mother, dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
I still remember thee.
THE CHILDREN

ERBY — In loving memory of our dear sister, CORNELIA ERBY, who passed away December 7, 1963.
Her pleasant way and smiling face
Are a pleasure to recall.
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Our day we hope to meet her,
Some day, we know not when.
To clasp her hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
SISTER and BROTHER

GAITHER — In memory of our loved one, ETHEL FIELDS GAITHER, who passed away December 2, 1963—
Your memory will always be in our hearts,
As you sleep in God's beautiful garden.
Grandparents,
(Mr. and Mrs.) ROBERTA FIELDS AUSTIN, JR. and COUSINS

ERBY — In loving memory of my dear mother, CORNELIA ERBY, who passed away December 7, 1963.
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile
Death trust in God that all was well
He joy to make some other bright
Or sign or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she did do.
No thought of self, but of "the other."
I know He said: "Well done, dear mother."
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

WELDON — In loving memory of my dear mother and our grandmother, KATE WELDON, who suddenly passed away one year ago, December 4, 1965.
Sorrowfully, Sometime my eyes shall see the face I loved so well.
Someday I'll clasp your loving hands and never say farewell.
God gave me strength to bear it
And courage to fight the blow.
But what it meant to lose you
No one will know.
LOVING DAUGHTER, SON-IN-LAW and GRANDCHILDREN

Career Appointments for Engineers, Physical Scientists
APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
The Johns Hopkins University
The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, operates under contract with the Bureau of Naval Weapons. The development of the Navy's Terrier, Talos, and Tartar guided missiles, the development and fabrication of satellites for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.
At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting openings for electrical and mechanical engineers, physicists, and mathematicians interested in career opportunities. Specific openings include computer programming, thermal engineering, analog and digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system test and analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering (ramjet and rocket).
The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington, D. C.) and in Howard County, midway between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptional facilities include certain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries, and cafeterias.
