BALTIMORE'S LARGEST SELECTION OF HOMES

218 W. FRANKLIN ST. MU. 5-3377

Mrs. Beasley left estate of $14,357

Mrs. Marion C. Beasley, who died in this city on June 16, 1965, divided the bulk of her estate between her husband, Herbert F. Beasley; and sisters, Mesdames Evelyn B. White and Edna B. Newton.

The estate amounted to $14,357.74, derived chiefly from the sale of properties at 2545 Madison Ave. and Magothy Park in Anne Arundel County.

The Madison Avenue property was sold to Mrs. Georgia E. Bryant for $8,000; and the Magothy Park property to Royce W. Brooks for $3,500.

MRS. LENA K. LEE, attorney, was executrix of the estate under a will made by Mrs. Beasley a month before her death.

In the will Mrs. Beasley designated that her husband be given the McCulloh St. property absolutely, plus cash to make a balance of one third of the estate. This resulted in Mr. Beasley's receiving in addition, $785.91. Smaller bequests in the will included: $100 to Mt. Olivet Christian Church, and $200 each to Felicia A. Barraud, grand niece; Blondine A. Kahn, Edna E. Brown, niece; Norma J. Wright, granddniece; and George Harris, grandnephew.

AN INVENTORY filed in the estate of M. Guy Bragg 2nd, by his widow, Mrs. Juliet J. Bragg, showed $3,500.00.

The amount was from a bank account and the value of an automobile.

ROBERT W. PAYNE of Towson, is administrator for the estate of Willie C. Williamson, who died on June 4.

Mr. Williamson left an estate of $1,240.39 out of which the administrator has been authorized by the court to pay the Charles R. Law Mortuary $685.00 and purchase a marker for $107.12.

Mr. Williamson is survived by his one brother, Jesse Williamson of High Point, N.C.

SOLOMON G. ROSE (right) of 3605 Edgewood Rd., is presented a certificate and pin honoring his completion of 20 years' federal service by Lt. Col. P. J. Graham, commanding officer, First U.S. Army Medical Laboratory at Fort Meade. Rose, a medical technician in the bacteriology department, is a graduate of Douglass High. His wife, Sarah, is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Walker, 2030 N. Fulton Ave., and his mother, Mrs. Edith Hardsley lives at 819 N. Carey St.

'We so promise with the help of God . . .'

"Having been led by the Spirit of God to call the Mrs. Boykin Jessie as your spiritual leader, I charge you to welcome him with open arms and receptive hearts . . . let him not dwell with you in fear, but impress upon him your willingness to support him and to follow his leadership. . ."

This is a portion of the charge to the church at the installation of the Rev. Mr. Jessie on Sunday evening.

Members of Mount Moriah Baptist Church answered in unison, "We so promise, with the help of God."

THE REV. W. L. Clayton, minister of Macedonia Baptist Church, presided and gave the charge to both the new minister and the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Jessie is the second pastor of Mount Moriah, which was founded in April, 1927, by the former pastor, the Rev. Mr. T. Coles. He died in the pulpit in May, 1965.

Mount Moriah started in a small dwelling with just eleven members.

The church moved to its present site, 2201 Garrison Blvd in Nov., 1962, now boasts 700 members.

Jenkins of NLRB to speak at Morgan

Howard Jenkins Jr., first of his race to serve on the National Labor Relations Board, will be the Bill of Rights Day speaker at Morgan State College next Friday.

The public is invited to the session at 9 a.m. in the Murphy Auditorium.

Following this presentation, Mr. Jenkins will chat informally with students in the Institute for Political Education in the Soper Library.

A former law professor at Howard University, Mr. Jenkins was appointed in 1963 by President John F. Kennedy to a five - year term on the independent federal agency which administers the nation's principal labor relations law.

He is a Republican and came to the NLRB from the Department of Labor, where he had been assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor - Management Reports.

A native of Denver, Mr. Jenkins received his AB and LLB degrees from the University of Denver. He was the first of his race to pass the Colorado bar examination.

22 at Morgan nominated for college 'Who's Who'

Some 22 Morgan State College students, including the president and vice president of Student Government, have been nominated for Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges for the school year 1966-67, according Dr. E. Worthington Waters, dean of students.

The nominations are based on the students' outstanding academic record as well as participation in extra-curricula activities.

On the list are:

Reuben Arizmendi, Elkton; Elbert Bishop, Baltimore; Delores Bobian, Baltimore; Robert Burr, Mt. Airy, David Burton, Columbia, S.C; Maria Campbell, Betty J. Dorsey, Brenda Evans, Baltimore; James Gilliam, Wilmington, Del.

Nancy Hairston, William Hobbs, James Highsmith, Warren Howze, all of Baltimore; Elona Jenkins, E. Elmhurst, N.Y.; Vivian Jones, Baltimore; Sybil McIver, Philadelphia; Bernelyn Mishoe, Dover, Del.; Charles Randall, Washington, D.C.; George Reed Jr., Baltimore; Claudia Stevens, Philadelphia; Joanne Veal and Keith Walker, both of Baltimore.

Mrs. Shoultz was pioneer of 800 block Harlem Ave.

Mrs. Angie Shoultz, 66, 803 Harlem Ave., died suddenly on Wednesday evening at home. She suffered a heart attack.

One of the oldest residents of Harlem Ave., she had lived at her present address for 46 years.

Mrs. Shoultz was vice president of the 800 block Harlem Ave. Neighborhood Club which she helped organize, and belonged to the Northwestern Protective Association.

Several years ago, with her help, the 800 block won top prize in the AFRO's annual Clean Block campaign.

MORTON AND DYETT are handling arrangements for the funeral which will be held Sunday evening at eight o'clock at New Metropolitan Baptist Church, where she had been a member for 46 years.

Born in Millersville, Md., Mrs. Shoultz was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Joyce (Mary Jane.)

She came to Baltimore after her marriage to Charles Shoultz, long a state employee before his retirement in 1963.

IN ADDITION to her husband, Mrs. Shoultz is survived by four sons, Charles Jr., Leonard and Frederick, all of Baltimore; and William, of Newark, N.J.

Also three daughters, Mrs. Marian Gorham, Mrs. Lucille Dorsey and Mrs. Dorothy Gwynn, all of Baltimore.

Two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Robinson and Mrs. Julia Carroll, both of Baltimore, and twelve grandchildren also survive.—B. M. MOSS

Ellis R. Deans funeral set for Monday 1 p.m.

Ellis R. Deans, retired Baltimore school teacher, 2532 McCulloh St., died early Thursday morning at Provident Hospital.

He had been ill for six years after he suffered a stroke at school. He had been confined to a wheel chair ever since.

On Tuesday, he suffered a second stroke, and was rushed to the hospital.

Nutter Funeral Home is handling arrangements for the funeral set for Monday at 1 p.m. at Macedonia Baptist Church of which he was a longtime member.

A NATIVE of Portsmouth, Va., Mr. Deans was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deans.

He was a graduate of Hampton Institute, Penn State and New York University.

He initiated the vocational program at the Laurel, Del., high school, and also taught at Delaware State College and Kentucky State College.

When he came to Baltimore he taught first at the Maryland Training School for Boys, then known as Cheltenham.

Later, he entered the Baltimore City school system. His specialty was mechanics.

He taught at Vocational School No. 452, now the Granville T. Woods School, and at Houston Junior High No. 181.

A onetime Boy Scout leader, Mr. Deans was active in the Hampton Alumni Association. He was a charter member of the Phalanx Club and belonged to the Nomad Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elmor Wright Deans, retired Baltimore City teacher; an aunt, Mrs. Mattie Connor, widow of Dr. Miles Connor, onetime president of Cappin Teachers' College; and a brother - in - law, William, of Greensboro, N.C.

Youth Forum meeting today

Joe Golden of Baltimore Area Council on Alcoholism, Inc., will discuss "Alcohol and Teen Agers" at the December meeting of the City-Wide Youth Forum.

The discussion is particularly well-timed because this is National Alcohol Week and because the holiday season means that many teens will be faced with deciding whether to drink or not to drink.

City - Wide Youth Forum meets today Friday, Dec. 2, at 4 p.m. at the Madison Avenue Branch, YWCA. An invitation is extended to all teenagers.

Forum will not meet in January because of holidays.

The hallucination drug LSD is the proposed topic for the February meeting.

Father Connolly to speak for AA rights league

Outspoken and controversial Father Joseph F. Connolly, curator of St. Gregory the Great Roman Catholic Church and panel member of the television program "Faith to Faith," will be the guest speaker of the Arundel County League for Human Rights at its annual meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 6, at 8 p.m. at the Harundale Presbyterian Church, Ritchie Highway at Harundale.

Subject of the address will be "Beyond Law, Beyond Government: The Citizen's Responsibility in the Civil Rights Movement."

The meeting is open to the public.
