Mrs. Mae H. Pack, church, fraternal leader dies; funeral Saturday

"She will long be remembered in this community for her dedicated service to Behel AME Church."

The Rev. Frank Madison Reid, pastor of Bethel, was speaking of Mrs. Mae H. Pack, prominent churchwoman and fraternal leader.

Mrs. Pack, 1314 Division St., died Wednesday afternoon at Provident Hospital after a brief illness. She was a practical nurse, by profession.

Morton and Dyett Funeral home is handling arrangements for the funeral scheduled for Saturday 11 a.m. at Bethel.

MRS. MAE PACK

FRATERNAL SERVICES will be held tonight (Friday) at the church, the body will lie in state until time of the funeral.

Mrs. Pack was born in the Eastern Shore of Va.

She grew up in St. John's AME Church, where her mother, Mrs. Alice J. Brooks, was a steward.

Shortly after coming to Baltimore, she married Detective Eugene A. Pack, grand president of the Mt. Olive Beneficial Association at the time of his death in 1941.

She was a graduate of the Old Good Shepherd Hospital School of Nursing and was known as a congenial and understanding nurse.

FOR MANY years, Mrs. Pack led the Woman's Day activities at Bethel Church.

Asked what was the secret of her success, she told an AFRO reporter in 1949: "I get the greatest personal satisfaction out of working for my church . . . by setting a personal example for those with whom I work, I usually have a success."

During her 36 years in Bethel, Mrs. Pack was secretary of the Board of Stewards, member of the Gospel Choir, president of the Harrison J. Bryant Club, named for a former pastor; and

ALSO, PRESIDENT of the Missionary Society of which she was also secretary at one time; member of the usher board and usher chorale.

She was also a delegate to the denomination's general and quadrennial conferences.

Mrs. Pack's fraternal interests included the Myra Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Prince Hall Affiliation, where she remained active all her life.

She was a past matron of Calvary Chapter No. 32. She was also past matron of Zerrubabel Court No. 1, Heroines of Jericho, the Beusan Circle No. 1, an auxiliary to the Knights Templar, and a member of the Eastern Star choir.

RECENTLY, SHE was named chairman of the Past Matrons and Patrons Guild of Myra Grand Chapter.

Her other fraternal affiliations included the Order of Job and the Mt. Olive Beneficial Association.

She was a volunteer in the Head Start program conducted by the public schools.

She belonged to the YWCA, the NAACP and the Provident Hospital Auxiliary.

She is survived by a brother, Edward Tankard of Va., and several neices and nephews.—B.M.M.

MISSING — Mrs. Hattie J. Austin, 23, daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Woods, 2966 Forest Ave. (CL. 2-0083 or PL. 2-7030) has been missing from home since Nov. 25. When last seen she wore a green and white dress and a brown coat. She is 5'3" and weights 130 pounds.

Cornerstone, mortgage rites at Lebanon

Cornerstone laying and mortgage burning services will be held at the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church this week-end.

Highlight of the services Saturday 2 p.m. is the Cornerstone laying. The Rev. J. J. Burrell, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, Overlea, will deliver the sermon and the laying will be performed by the Prince Hall Masons of Maryland.

On Sunday, Dec. 11, services will continue with Rev. Robert H. Harrell, pastor of the Zion Baptist Church, Waterbury, Conn. as guest speaker for the 11 a.m. service.

Dedication of the Corner Stone will be held at 3 p.m. with the Rev. Walter E. Paige, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, as guest speaker. The Prince Hall Masons of Maryland will also participate in this service.

At the 8 p.m. mortgage burning ceremony Dr. J. Haywood Harrison, chairman, Division of Social Science, Morgan State College, will address the congregation.

The Rev. Olin P. Moyd has been pastor since June 1964, succeeding the late Rev. Hiram E. Smith, pastor for 40 years.

Says he of his five hundred member congregation, "The Lord has been good to us and we have grown spiritually and numerically."

Baptist choirs to sing Sunday

The voices of the Women's Convention will be presented in a Semi-Recital at the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Sunday, Dec. 11, at 5 p.m. The choir is made up of women from various Baptist Churches through out the city.

It is being sponsored by the executive committee of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention to the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland.

The Choir under the direction of Edward McCready and Mrs. Irene W. Paize is president of the Women's Convention. The public is invited.

Mrs. Bertha Green

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Bertha E. Green, 59, 24 N. Mount St. at Concord Baptist Church.

Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mrs. Green died Friday at Mercy Hospital.

She was born in Catonsville. Her parents were Willis and Frances Allen.

Mrs. Green is survived by her husband, Harry I. Green Sr.; and seven sons and four daughters.

The are: Elliott, Harry, John, Robert, Ronald, Thomas, Calvin and Mrs. Vivian Humphries, Mrs. Shirley Ashby, Mrs. Mildred Briscoe and Mrs. Charlotte Lightfoot, all of Baltimore.

Fifty - five grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren, also survive.

Mrs. Mary Jones

Requiem mass was said for Mrs. Mary Lillian Jones, 81, 1218 N. Bentalou St., Wednesday at St. Peter Claver's Catholic Church.

Burial was in New Cathedral Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones died Thursday at the Hopkins Hospital. In her active years, she was a seamstress.

She was born in La Plata.

Holy Trinity sets confirmation Sunday

Thirty adults and children will be confirmed at Holy Trinity Episcopal Chapel, Fayette and Wheeler Aves., on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 4 p.m.

The Rt. Rev. Harry Lee Doll, bishop of Maryland, will make his annual visitation to the church and officiate at the ceremony.

The vicar, the Rev. Robert M. Powell, will present the 30 candidates.

HOLY TRINITY, organized in October, 1962, has 545 communicants, 475 of whom were received through confirmation and 303 baptisms, making this our second largest Episcopal church in the city.

The church's advisory board and congregation will petition the Diocesan Convention in May, 1967 to make this an independent church in the diocese.

AMONG THE 30 candidates to be confirmed on Sunday are a mother and daughter, Mrs. Rosetta Dix on Evans and Brenda Louise Evans; two groups of sisters, Joy and Amelia Pinder and Cecelia and Nadine Baker.

Two of the new members are husband and wife, Dr. and Mrs. William Bruce Russell. Mrs. Russell, Alice Marie and another new member, James Garland Diggs, are former Roman Catholics.

Gospel Tabernacle mortgage burning

Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church, Walbrook and Rosedale, holds mortgage burning services on Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

The Rev. Edgar L. Reid is minister of the church which occupied its new site six years ago under the leadership of the late Rev. William Tapscott.

The Rev. Edgar L. Reid, present minister, told the AFRO, members were able to pay off the $135,000 mortgage in six short years "because they kept their pledges each year."

* * *

HE CREDITED the Mr. Tapscott with the success of the money-raising endeavor which was in full swing before his untimely death in August 1964.

The church was formerly located in the 1100 block Saratoga St. Today it has over 600 members.

Chairman of the trustee board is Ellis Carter. Chairman of the building fund committee is Joseph Smith.
