Mrs. Bohanon hurt in crash

"My head hurts so bad . . . I was on my way to work . . . at the corner of Mount and Mosher, another car came through the stop sign . . . I was thrown through the windshield. . . ."

Mrs. Sarah E. Bohanon, 1016 N. Appleton St., was speaking of a two-car accident this morning (Friday).

She suffered cuts and bruises of the face, chest and leg, and pulled muscles on the back when she was thrown through the windshield.

George Allen, driver of the car in which she was riding, was also injured.

Both were treated at Lutheran Hospital and released and instructed to consult their personal physicians for further treatment.

Mrs. Bohanon is employed as a housekeeper in Morgan Park.

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. F. A. Williams, director of Planning and Development at A and T College, will leave the country on Dec. 9, for a one month return visit to the Republic of the Sudan.

MRS. WILLIAM J. JOHNSON of Baltimore was, before her recent marriage, Miss Jean E. Wortham, formerly of Oxford, N.C.

Miss Wortham wed to S. Sgt. Johnson

Miss Jean Evelyn Wortham, daughter of Bradley Wortham of Oxford, N.C. and the late Mrs. Carrie Wortham, was married to Staff Sgt. William J. Johnson of Fort Lee, Virginia.

Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Offutt of Dayton.

THE DOUBLE - RING ceremony took place on Saturday evening at six in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Wortham of 4504 Carleview Road.

The candle-light ritual was performed under an arch of greenery with a white floral background. The Rev. Vernon N. Dobson of Union Baptist Church officiated.

THE BRIDE, given n marriage by her father, wore a short gown of silk peau de soie trimmed in lace. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a matching pill box. She carried a prayer book covered with white feathered carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. June Lee White of this city, matron of honor, wore a dress of hot pinkcrepe with matching headpiece and shoes. She carried a cascade of pink pom poms.

ROBERT M. HALL of Dayton, Ohio, was best man.

A reception for a hundred and fifty guests followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Johnson, a graduate of Barber - Scotia College, Concord, N.C., is currently admitting officer at City Hospitals.

Dec. 11

The Southrn High School Choir will present it's annual Christmas gift of music to the community at 3:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. The mixed choir of 100 voices under the direction of Mrs. Martha W. Pointer, will sing a variety of selections on the theme, "Peace and Good Will." Admission free.

Paper bags in the waste-basket make the emptying chore easier and also help to keep the basket in good condition.

Just a taste is all we ask
...it's all we've ever needed.

WHY?

Because this is the most expensively made* Bourbon in Kentucky... and probably in the world.

We offer the rare mellowness of our new 86.8 proof OLD FITZGERALD Prime Straight or the famous flavor of our original Bottled in Bond. All we ask is that one taste. (Wouldn't you if your Bourbon was the most expensively made!)

meet, next year, chaired the project.

Assisting her were Mesdames Rose Wallace, Rosetta Addison, Mary Nicholas, Rosetta Tilghman, Marion Wade, Janie Sanders, Jeanne White and Marie Steen.

Of the sorority group, prizes went to Mrs. Hattie Smith, whose coiffures took first and second place; and Mrs. Lillian Spears, third. Mrs. Clara Irving and Mrs. Catherine Briscoe were runners - up.

Judges were Mrs. Josephine Brown of Carver Vocational High School, Joseph Parrino of the Maryland State Hairdressers' Association; and Ken Thomas of Hairdressers, Inc.

The hat show presented originals by Mrs. Bessie Pretlow and Mrs. Florence White. jewelry was shown by Mrs. Lillian Jackson.

THE PHILOMATHIANS met with Mrs. Ralph V. Cook at the Holiday Inn, Saturday.

This being their Christmas meeting, Mrs. Cook provided the proper decor with red candles and napkins, and with member Carol Diggs at the piano for group carol singing.

Dr. Ruth Brett Quarles gave the invocation and Mrs. Flossie Dedmond introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Herbert O. Edwards, former executive director of the Maryland Interracial Commission.

His topic was "Women's Involvement in Our Political Life." The Rev. Mr. Edwards is now in Rhode Island, working on a doctoral thesis, and still pastors Trinity Baptist Church, here, each weekend. He was accompanied by his charming wife, Mrs. Edwards.

The Rev. Mr. Edwards threw out some challenges to the women present . . . among them they must become informed about their city government and they must start writing letters recommending young men and women to city boards and commissions. The common excuse, by the power structure he said, is that they know of no qualified colored persons to hold these positions. He says there are plenty of qualified people in Baltimore and club women should start writing letters and asking questions.

At the closed business meeting presided over by President Bettye Moss, the group voted to induct nine new members. The new members will be welcomed at the January 7th meeting at which time Mrs. Carr Murphy will be hostess. Speaker will be Miss Katherine Boone, executive director of the Baltimore Metropolitan YWCA.

New members are Mesdames Patricia Press, Frankie Henderson, Helen King, Sallie Fletcher, Beryl K. Williams, Thema Bando, Beautine DeCosta, Christine Moore and Helen Lee.

Mrs. Cook's guests were Mesdames Vivian Washington, Catherine Adams, Beatrice Reesby, Jacqueline Lewis, Miss Myrtle Burgess of St. Louis, Corrine Johnson, Ida Berry, Ruth Johnson, Dorothy Thompson, Hermione Wharton; Mesdames Emma Bright, Constantia Jackson, Pearlie Pennington, Sarah Diggs, Jane Wilson, Mabel Frisby, Mae Matthews, Cordelia Johnson and Melissa Purdue.

Philomathians present were:

Mesdames Althea Cornish, Flossie Dedmond, Dr. E. Irene Diggs, Carol B. Diggs, Rose Hampton, Elizabeth Jenkins, Ruth McAbee, Lillian Murphy, Mae Peck, Dr. Ruth Brett Quarles, Ida Smith and Miss Miriam Hughes.

Philomathian Sarah Sampson is ailing at Union Memorial Hospital, Room B-347. Folks are still talking about Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins' black peau de soir
