H. McKenna Distillery, Fairfield, Kentucky. Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey. 86 Proof. Six Years Old.
Mister, here's your bourbon.
It's made by hand. With meticulous care. The hopelessly antiquated, deliciously old-fashioned way. Made by men who know good corn and won't take less. Who stop making whiskey when their limestone pond drops below the "perfect bourbon water" level. If you've never tasted hand made Kentucky whiskey, try Henry McKenna. It's bourbon, Mister. Could be your bourbon.
HENRY McKENNA

SCHEDULED for February is the wedding of Miss Berry Thurstena Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Bond, to Kenneth C. Dorsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodell Dorsey, all of Baltimore. Mr. Dorsey is currently stationed at Treis Air Force Base, in Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight observe anniversary

When Mr. and Mrs. Norris Knight were wed they were so young that they were refused admittance to a night club on their honeymoon.

But they are an example of very young couples being mature enough to be really in love. Recently, they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, and friends came from several cities to celebrate with them.

* * *

FOR THE Reception, Mrs. Knight wore a dress of pea green silk linen with shoes to match. She is the former Hazel B. Blackwell of Florenceville, Va.

Mr. Knight is a native of Green Bay, Va., and is currently employed with the Bethlehem Steel Co. She devotes her time to homemaking.

They were married in this city by the late Rev. Simon Williamson.

THE RECEPTION held in their beautiful home on Bond St. was attended by:

Messrs and Mesdames James Blackwell, Herman Blackwell, William Walker, Leslie Holland, John Weem, Allen Belton;

Mesdames Viola Blackwell, Novella Hicks, Lucille Andrews, Esther Harcum, Gertrude Harris, Alice Brewer, Everette Blackwell,

Mesdames Edith Gibson, Dorothy Miller, Mabel Williams, Ernestine Reed, Beulan Jones, Lillian Armstrong;

Miss Chestena Cole, Robert Richardson, James Brookfield, Leary Kirkland, M. Pulley, Godrey Smith, Lawrence Yorke and James Knight.

'Man of Year'

Jerold C. Hoffberger, chairman of the Board of the Baltimore Orioles and president of the National named this week as Maryland's "Man of the Year" for 1966 by The Advertising Club.

Mr. Hoffberger will receive the traditional civic award Dec. 14 at a luncheon in his honor at the Emerson Hotel. Governor Tawes will present the plaque.

ZOE ROBINSON
Our midnight oil brings you better drug service. As pharmacists, our studies are never done. Five years in pharmacy college is just the beginning. We regularly burn the midnight oil, learning answers about new drugs you'll soon be using. Right now three-quarters of the new prescriptions we fill, call for drugs that didn't exist ten years ago.
These new drugs are just one more way we try to give more of you better service. Visit us regularly for the latest — not only in drugs and health aids — but in our new Orthopedic garments and supports department. Our trained fitter is always at your service.
