$929 from estate goes to G. Tull

George Tull of 811 Harlem Ave. received $929.34 from the estate of his aunt, Mrs. Edith Barrett, who died here, July 11.

Mr. Tull was her only survivor. The estate was administered by William Gosnell, attorney.

RECORDS SHOW that Mrs. Barrett left $1,334.63 in cash, insurances, and social security.

Items taken from this amount, other than court costs, included a funeral bill of $476; service claims of $162 and $60 by Mrs. Lillian Smith and Mrs. Ruth Henson, respectively; the administrator's commission of $120 and a $30 rent charge.

Dec. 11

The Woman's Chorus of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland, is being presented in a recital, at 5 p.m. at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, 2201 Garrison Blvd.

Dr. Carey on 'Black Power'

"Is Black Power the Answer?" will be discussed Sunday by a prominent clergyman who is also a former diplomat, political leader, and high government official.

Dr. Archibald J. Carey of Chigaco, will examine the topic 3 p.m. Sunday at Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church as the highlight of a massive NAACP membership meeting.

Dr. Carey, pastor, Quinn Chapel AME Church, an Alderman, former delegate to the United Nations and former national chairman, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, will be introduced by AME Bishop George E. Baber.

Also scheduled to speak to the anticipated huge gathering at the church located at Dolphin and Etting Sts., are:

Governor - elect Spiro T. Agnew, Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin, and Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau.

THE MALE Chorus of Providence Baptist Church and choirs of Shiloh Christian Community, Bethel AME, and Mt. Pisgah CME Churches will furnish music.

Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president, Baltimore Chapter NAACP; Mrs. Margaret L. Dyer, secretary; and Dr. Charles E. Watts, will host the meeting.

Witnesses slate 3-day Assembly

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a three-day circuit assembly in Baltimore, Dec. 23-25 it was officially announced today by their governing body, the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

The Coliseum is to be used for the occasion, and upwards of 1800 delegates from Baltimore and its suburbs are expected to attend the sessions.

Robert G. Holmes, circuit supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses in Baltimore, said, "The assembly is held primarily to advance Christian Bible education."

The three-day program includes a varity of talks on Bible subjects. Groups of ministers will discuss ministerial problems and demonstrations will teach Christians how to conduct Bible studies Sessions will be conducted morning, afternoon and evening with a baptism of new ministers on Saturday afternoon.

The convention's theme is "Become Spiritual Men With Everlasting Life in View."

The featured speaker on the program appearing daily will be J. W. Filson, from Jehovah's Witnesses world headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is now representing the world headquarters staff as district overseer for congregations in the area of Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

Mr. Filson will deliver the principal address of the Assembly on Sunday, Dec. 25, on the subject, "Satisfying Mankind's Greatest Need."

See success for City program

The faculty and facilities of Baltimore City College promise early success for the new honors course to be launched at the Castle next year, Edward Warren, assistant director of the nationwide Advanced Placement Program, announced last week.

The City College Educational Planning Committee exchanged ideas with Mr. Warren when he toured City College last Wednesday. The committee, which was formed last June, plans to institute a series of honors courses leading up to optional participation in the Advanced Placement Program during the senior year.
