Kelly, ex-Morgan star, joins NFL 1,000 yarders

MENASHA, Wis. (UPI) — Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns, will be inducted into the National 1000 Yard Club, the organization for National Football League ground gainers who have rushed more than 1,000 yards in a season.

The former Morgan State College star qualified for the club by picking up 128 yards Dec. 4, against the New York Gaints for a total of 1,071 yards for the season. The ceremony will take place June 3, at Menasha at the club's fourth annual enshirnement dinner.

GALE SAYERS of the Chicago Bears, is almost certain also to become a member of the club at that dinner. He gained 38 yards against Baltimore the same day for a season total of 995 with two games remaining.

Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams, has become the fifth NFL player to gain 1,000 yards in more than one season. He gained 107 yards on Dec. 4, for a total of 1,041 for the season. He hit 1,000 yards in 1962.

Other members of the club are Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia, Joe Perry of San Francisco, Jim Brown of Cleveland and Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers.

Clippers eyeing AHL lead in weekend Center games

The Baltimore Clippers — winners of 11 out of their last 14 games — accelerate their drive for "first befor Christmas" this weeken when Terry Reardon's men entertain the Pittsburg Hornets and the Springfield Indians on Civic Center ice tonight (Friday) and Sunday.

The game with Pittsburgh starts at the customary 8 p.m. while Sunday's test with Springfield will get under way at 7:30.

• • •

WHILE THE Clippers have won 4 of their last 5 starts, and 11 of 14, the Pittsburgh Hornets are on a streak of their own — unbeaten in their last seven. Going into the game with Hershey on Wednesday night, the Hornets were tied with Rochester for first place in the west with 27 points.

Meanwhile, the Clippers are now only 2 points behind first place Quebec and 1 back of second place Hershey in the Eastern Division.

The local skaters have gained 25 points with 12 wins and a tie, while the Aces and Bears each have also won 12 games but lead the Clippers by reason of having played more games and tied them.

Physical culture expert in mat test

Two recent aspirants to local frame return to Civic Center wrestling tomorrow (Saturday) in what should be a preview of each man's future hopes and aspirations.

Mister Kleen, a physical culturist from Lansing, Mich. meets Dr. Bill Miller, ex-All American grid star and veterinarian from Columbus, Ohio.

Kleen, who goes into a conditioning lecture any time three or more people will listen, may know more of the scientific approach, but it appears Dr. Bill outweighs and outlugs his rival.

The huge Ohio State gridman claims his intimate knowledge of anatomy helps him develop inside knowledge of where to apply pressures to unwary opponents.

The event figures to provoke considerable for interest as one of seven on the night's card.

Plymouth is out to win you over this year.

The wild new Barracudas are here! Featuring America's lowest priced sports car. From $2449*.

Hardtop. Fastback. Even a Convertible. Swift-looking, slick-going automobiles all with designs on your heart, all priced to fit your budget. A lot of the great things are standard: rallye lights, pit-stop gas filler, trip odometer, torsion-bar suspension, chromed hood louvers, a "Sportseat" with flip-down center armrest. Options include a booming 383 cu. in. V-8 which will be ready in plenty of time for Sebring.

Stop in today and take a drive in one of the '67 'Cudas. Expect a lot. We promise you won't be disappointed.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price for standard six-cylinder Barracuda Hardtop. Destination charges, state and local taxes, if any, and optional equipment (including whitewall tires, wheel covers, and bumper guards) extra.
