Junior High chorus to sing on Saturday

The All - City Junior High School Chorus of the Baltimore City Public Schools is in the final weeks of preparation for its first concert of the current school year.

The concert will be given on Saturday evening, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Woodbourne Junior High School, Woodburne Ave. and The Alameda.

The featured work to be sung by the chorus will be the "Christmas Cantata" by Phillip Friedrich Buchner. Other numbers to be sung include "Carol of the Bells" and "Christmas Roundelay."

Area colleges to sponsor conference on government

Modernization of local government in Maryland will be the subject of a conference sponsored by Gocher College, the Johns Hopkins University, Morgan State College and the University of Maryland, Dec. 9-10 at Goucher College.

The conference will bring together out-of-state experts, in Maryland and other Maryleaders of local government in Maryland and other Maryanders with practical experience in local government.

The panel of out-of-state experts will include:

Professor Victor Jones of the Department of Political Science, the University of California at Berkeley, who has written extensively on the organization of federal, state and local governments in metropolitan communities;

Dr. Luther Gulick of the Institute of Public Administration, who has served as consultant to many local governments attempting to solve metropolitan problems;

Professor Norton Long of the Department of Political Science at Brandeis University, whose major research work has been in the field of regionalization of power;

Dr. James A. Norton, director of the Greater Cleveland Association, and editor of METRO STUDIES;

Professor Carlton Chute, director of the Institute of Public Administration at New York University;

Beverly Briley, the first mayor of consolidated Nashville-Davidson County, Tennessee

William Colman, director of the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations;

John Bebout, consultant to the Constitutional Convention of Alaska, director of the Urban Studies Center at Rutgers University, and former staff director of the New York State Temporary Commission on the Revision and Simplification of the Constitution;

Jefferson Fordham, dean of the Law School, University of Pennsylvania and author of the Home Rule Theories of the National Municipal League;

John Keith, executive vice president, Regional Plan Association of New York;

Dr. Lorene Cumming, director of the Department of Municipal Affairs, Toronto, Canada.

The conference discussions are designed to explore the urgent issues and problems of structuring local government in Maryland to meet the complex demands of urbanization and the growth of metropolitan areas.

The conference will be in session Friday, Dec. 9 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 10 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Goucher College Center.

THANK YOU

May I take this opportunity to thank the many friends and persons who supported my candidacy and voted for me in the recent Gubernatorial election.

Although unsuccessful in my bid for a seat in the House of Delegates I regard my first effort for elective public office a most rewarding experience.

A mere beginner in politics. I had the occasion to meet many other beginners with a profound interest in promoting the election of Qualified Negro Candidates. I trust that their interest will not be lessened because of my unsuccessful effort. For much remains to be done.

Since the completion of the official canvas I have had the opportunity to survey the strong and weak points of my campaign and to survey the political strength and weakness of the Negro population. It is my hope that this information may be helpful in future elections.

31 musicians are honored

By ADAH K. JENKINS

Thirty-one members of the Musicians Association of Metropolitan Baltimore, Local No. 40-543, A.F. of M. were honored with the presentation of gold life membership cards by Victor W. Fuentealba, president, at the Dec. 5 meeting held in the assembly hall, 847 N. Eutaw St.

Honorees were: Morgan Baer, Isadore Berenson, Arnett J. Brown Sr., Bernard Byrd Sr., Louis Cornell, Arthur C. Davidson, Preston Duncan, John S. Dywon, Jose Evans, Joseph B. Fleet, Robert Franke, Harry Goodman, Noah S. Hill, Bruce Hocker, James E. (Buddy) Johnson, James O. Jones, John L. Kier, Robert V. Lansinger, Roy R. Lee, Samuel Lessing, William Mason, Charles R. Mueller Jr., Henry Norris, Joseph G. Ortiz, John H. Poston, Ronald N. Rayne, J. Donald Ruble, Bertie Valentine, Squire T. Williams and Lloyd D. Zimmerman.

The award, which includes exemption from all dues and assessments in the organization, is awarded to those who have been members for 20 consecutive years and are over 65 years of age.

The list includes a number of musicians who have given yeoman service in the City Park and Concert Bands, the City Colored Orchestra Baltimore Symphony and many other civic cultural programs.

PRESENT ON the platform were Harold E. Schneider, secretary-treasurer, and Charles E. Gwynn Sr., assistant.

Mrs. Henry Dixon was presented a travelling case in appreciation of 30 years as office assistant to the association.

A capacity audience of members as well as relatives of the honorees witnessed the ceremony and attended the buffet supper which was served in the dining hall.

The local, which now includes members of the former Musicians Protective Union, became an integrated body July 1, 1966.

A&P
A practical gift, that's practically perfect
To some, a practical gift is as welcome as a rainy weekend. To others, it's just the right answer.
Here's a practical gift, that's practically perfect: an A&P Gift Certificate.
A handsome certificate with a mailing envelope, available in all A&P stores all year long. Offered in $5 and $10 denominations, these gift certificates will be honored in any A&P store in the United States.
When you think about it, practically anyone who buys food would welcome it.
And here's the best part—no one can ever get too many of them.
