NFL All-Pro team 50-50

NEW YORK — The 1966 National Football League's all-star team selected by the Associated Press, is racially split down the middle, as the saying goes.

Six athletes, headed by rushing champion Leroy Kelly, are joined by five of the 11 men on the first defensive team.

• • •

CLEVELAND'S KELLY, former Morgan State College luminary, and Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears, are the running backs picked on the first team.

Dallas' Bob Hayes and are the ends, Philadelphia's Baltimore's John Mackey are the ends, Philadelphia's Bob Brown is at tackle, and San Francisco's John Thomas is at offensive guard.

• • •

JOININ GDAVIS,the Green Bay Packer defensive captain, is Los Angeles' Dave Jones at end on defense. Herb Adderley and Willie Wood of Green Bay, are placed in the defensive backfield, as is Cornell Green, former A and T star, of Dallas.

Fullback Dick Bass of Los Angeles, and tackle Ernie McMillan of St. Louis, are selected for the second offensive eleven. And Jim Johnson of San Francisco, is named in the second team's defensive backfield. .LACY.

Kelly, rushing champ, old hand at filling for stars

By SAM LACY

One of the hottest players in the National Football League this fall and winter, was a young man who only four years ago was a student at Morgan State College, hardly known beyond the confines of his school and conference.

He's Leroy Kelly, who at 6 feet, 200 pounds and 24 years, was called upon to fill the shoes of Jimmy Brown, undoubtedly the greatest football player in modern professional history.

When Brown stunned the sports world by announcing his retirement from the game last June, then refused to budge from the decision, Cleveland coach Blanton Collier turned to Kelly and said, in effect: "You're it."

• • •

TODAY, Collier can look back on his choice of Leroy with justifiable pride. Kelly, with one game left to be played, appears to have clinched the NFL rushing title and has been named to a national press service's all-star team.

These are the same accomplishments for which his predecessor in the Browns' backfield gained national renown.

• • •

THE FORMER MORGAN luminary has gained 1,122 yards to lead Dick Bass of Los Angeles, and Gale Sayers of Chicago, into the final week of the campaign.

• • •

WINNING ground - gaining honors may mean a hefty increase in salary for Leroy, who currently earns an estimated $20,000 yearly. He was originally signed for $16,000 and was given pay raises each season in 1965 and 1966.

Commenting on the likelihood of a sizeable hike, Kelly says: "It'll be nice; it always is good to make more money. Besides, it'll come in handy if I decide to get married. I don't have any ideas about that yet, but who knows what'll happen between now and next June."

• • •

Kelly was preparing to leave the bachelor quarters he shares with teammate John Wooten, for the practice field when the AFRO interviewed him.

"I can't put my finger on any particular thing that accounts for my improved play," he said.

"Jimmy Brown taught me to anticipate the moves of my blockers and Ernie Green and Paul Warfield showed me the secret of making every motion work to my advantage and to the disadvantage of the defense. Otherwise, I suppose I just always enjoyed running with the ball."

Kelly and the Browns meet the St. Louis Cardinals on Saturday. Bass, with 1,041 yards, runs against the tough Green Bay Packer defense on Sunday, and Sayers, with 1,034, must contend with an equally rugged defense belonging to the Minnesota Vikings.

• • •

FOR LEROY, the call to fill in for an established star was not exactly new, though Brown's assignment meant a change of position with its slightly different running requirements.

Last year, when veteran halfback Ernie Green was hurt, Kelly took over the post and handled it to the satisfaction of all concerned.

• • •

WHEN HE was in Washington for the season opener against the Redskins in September, Collier predicted that the young ex-Morganite would do an acceptable job. "We can't expect him to be another Jimmy Brown," the Cleveland coach told the AFRO, "but Leroy isn't going to hurt us.

"He has great desire, and while he lacks the awesome power of Jimmy, Kelly has a quickness that compensates for that. He has Brown's balance, fears nothing and as I said, he has the desire of a born competitor."

• • •

THE BROWNS drafted Kelly 8th for the 1964 season. The previous year, he had completed four variety seasons as a 2-way star at Morgan. In December of his final year, he was honored as most valuable Morgan player of the Orange Blossom Classic in which the Bears bowed to Florida A and M.

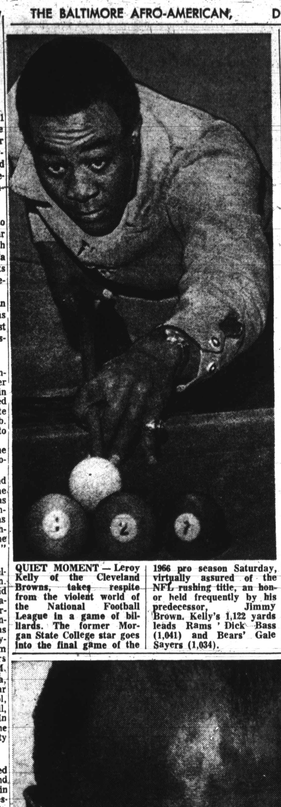
A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Kelly was a 3-sport star at Simon Gratz High School, winning letters in football, basketball and baseball. In his last scholastic season, he was selected as the all-city quarterback.

• • •

AT MORGAN, he majored in physical education and plans to return there in February for credits necessary for earning his degree.

Leroy is unmarried, collects old coins and phonograph records as a hobby, and plays billiards for relaxation.

A young brother, Harold, plays professional baseball in the Minnesota Twins' farm system.



QUIET MOMENT — Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns, takes respite from the violent world of the National Football League in a game of billiards. The former Morgan State College star goes into the final game of the 1966 pro season Saturday, virtually assured of the NFL rushing title, an honor held frequently by his predecessor, Jimmy Brown. Kelly's 1,122 yards leads Rams' Dick Bass (1,041) and Bears' Gale Sayers (1,034).

Morgan breaks fast at Civic

Morgan State College's basketball team wrapped up an all-triumphant night at Civic Center Thursday, by defeating Loyola College, 91-64, in the second half of a college doubleheader.

Before the final outcome, the Bear football team had been hondored for its Tangerine Bowl championship, Bill (Sugar) Cain, Dunbar High School coach, had been saluted by the General Alumni Association as an outstanding alumnus, and forward Bobby Gordon was selected as the evening's "most valuable player."

The victory enabled the Bears to snap a 4-game losing streak which had beset them from the opening of the season and threatened to take them into the holiday break with but one victory against six setbacks.

IT WAS an oddly played game in that coach Brutus Wilson's changes raced to a 14-point early lead only to blow it, then rallied with a big second half to be eased up at the end. It was Loyola's first loss in four appearances in the collegiate series at the Center.

Jeff O'Neal, coming 12 points in the first seven minutes, shot the Bears into an early advantage. Then, joined by Gordon, he led the way to a 30-11 lead with six minutes left in the half.

THE GREYHOUNDS then changed to a man-to-man defense and Morgan was stalled. At halftime, Loyola had closed the margin to 5 points, 36-31.

The second period was all Morgan, as O'Neal, Gordon, Earl Holmes and Charley Demby collaborated to control both boards and repeatedly outbreak their rivals. . . . LACY.

Brice of HEW evaluates N.C. desegregation

GOLDSBORO, N.C. (UPI) — An official with the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare said Sunday North Carolina can be proud of its accomplishments in implementing federal desegregation guidelines.

• • •

DR. E. W. BRICE, assistant secretary to HEW Secretary John Gardner made the statement in a speech before the annual Fall Conference of Principals and Supervisors of the N. C. Teachers Association.

"In my judgment North Carolina has made constructive progress in implementing the guidelines. . ." he said.

Folley eager for title shot

HOUSTON (UPI) — Zora Folley, the second-ranked heavyweight, set his sights on a championship fight with either Cassius Clay or Ernie Terrell after disposing of unranked Jeff Davis Tuesday.

Folley scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Davis to run his record to 73-7-1. Folley weighed 207 to 200 for Davis.

After the fight, Folley's manager, Bill Swift, said he would file an injunction against Terrell to Keep the World Boxing Association champion from fighting Clay in the Astrodome Feb. 6.

• • •

SWIFT HAD threatened to file the injunction on grounds Terrell had promised his next fight to Folley.

Instead, Swift said he wanted assurance Terrell would fight Folley if he beat Clay. Promoter Earl Gilliam said he would ask Charles H. King Jr., chairman of the Texas Boxing Commission, to get this assurance from the WBA champion.

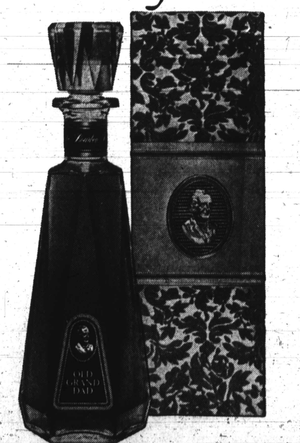
Grand-Dad always gets carried away at holiday time.



Carry away Grand-Dad yourself. 100 proof available in classic, crystal decanter with elegant gold-and-aqua gift wrap. The perfect gift. Regular bottles in gift-wrap, too. Of course, Grand-Dad costs more to give. But it gives so much more in return. Kentucky straight Bourbon whiskeys. 86 Proof & 100 Proof bottled in bond. Old Grand-Dad Distillery Co., Frankfort, Ky.

H. McKenna Distillery, Fairfield, Kentucky. Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey. 86 Proof. Six Years Old.

Mister, here's your bourbon.

It's made by hand. With meticulous care. The hopelessly antiquated, deliciously old-fashioned way. Made by men who know good corn and won't take less. Who stop making whiskey when their limestone pond drops below the "perfect bourbon water" level. If you've never tasted hand made Kentucky whiskey, try Henry McKenna. It's bourbon, Mister. Could be your bourbon.

Two of the coolest

After a couple of hours of jazz, Satchmo is good for a couple of beers. Maybe more. And that's when Schaefer goes great. The flavor never fades after one or two glasses. Schaefer comes across with all the pleasure of the first beer, every beer through. Right down to the last cold glass. That's why Schaefer is the one beer to have when you're having more than one.
