THE ALPHA WIVES seem compelled, ever so often, to demonstrate their social self-sufficiency, by having a grand party without the men. (I think they have a complex, what with being a bunch of gals, each with distinction of her own, being a mere auxiliary to the powerful men's fraternity).

At any rate, their parties certainly get the message over. Sometimes they go off to New York, take a batch of suites in a hotel where they party, see shows and go shopping, among other things.

Last week they stayed home, dressed to the nines, gathered at the Morgan Park home of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams and had themselves a time sipping egnog (and accompaniments) listening to and singing carols and playing games.

At the party on Wednesday evening were:

Mesdames Ruby Walker, Mary Pitts, Dorothy Harris, Audrey Davis, Ellen Johns, Marguerite Brown, Arnetta Hargrove, Vivian Sydnor, Otice Froe, Hortense Winder.

Mesdames Ada Veney, Doris Reese, Mildred Young, Natalie Woodson, Blanche McRae, Maxine Higginbotham, Patricia Page, Daisy Spencer, Sarah Elias, Jeri Gates.

Mesdames Loretta Winfrey, Josephine Kimbers, Elaine Hardy, Ruby Smith, Thelma Lawrence, Dorothy George, Shirley Swofford, Estelle Pinkett and, of course, Mrs. Adams.

Vivian Sydnor, who is president, pinned a corsage on each Wife as she arrived. Later bestowed gifts on Dorothy Harris, for that special job she did with the group's benefit this fall; and on Thelma Lawrence, just because they love her so!

The adults present were Mesdames Ardelle Jeudy, Joan Scott, Carolyn Chissell, and Norma Maiden.
