gether having fun, activity and fellowship.

After ice-skating at the stadium, they gathered at Mark Carter's home to play games and discuss their plans for the year.

Those attending including Renee Taliaferro, Randolph Redd, Elizabeth Julian, Lynn Carpenter, Norma Jean Parker, Gayle Brown, Benjamin Phillips, Frederick Gilkes, Warren Joyner, Valdemar Washington, John Stokes, Osarew Gee, and Mark Carter.

KAPPA CHAPTER of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, met at the home of Soror Mary Tucker on Barrington Road, closing meeting for 1966. Sorors Mary Tucker, Margaret Robinson, Emma Brown, and Marion Ransom were hostesses for the evening.

Highlight of the businness meeting was the election of the following officers for 1967:

Soror Gladys Ball, president; Mildred Noel, first vice president; Thelma Jiggetts, second vice president; Mary Ames, recording secretary; Gladys McCoy, financial secretary; Mary Erbin, corresponding secretary; Mary Tucker, treasurer; Isabel McConnell, journalist; Fannie Poulson, dean of pledgees; and Blanche Pettiford, Assistant Dean of pledgees.

Guest of the evening was the Eastern regional director, Soror Evelyn Taylor of Norfolk, Va. Soror Taylor addressed the Sorors briefly, giving them up-to-date news on the activities of the other Chapters in the Region. She stated that Kappa Chapter is one of the leading chapters in the Region and complimented the chapter on the work it is doing especially in the field of scholarships for young women in the business field and in community and civic work.

The Sorors made a contribution to the AFRO's "Mrs. Santa" fund to help the needy, and deprived. Contributions of food were also brought in by the sorors for distrubition at Christmas.

Prospect Ave Baltimore pledgees joined them after the business meeting (Annapolis prospective pledgees came in after the November meeting in Annapolis) for the gift exchange and a social hour.

Sorors present were:

Mary B. Ames, Gladys L. Ball, Mary E. Crump, Ethel T. Douglass, Mary B. Ervin, Claudine Harden, Hazel Hyman, Isabel H. McConnell, Mildred G. Noel, Gladys McCoy, Marian Phelps, Fannie B. Poulson;

Marion A. Ransom, Margaret Robinson, Eloise Taylor, Mary Tucker, Mable Waters, Helen Weatherford, Evelyne D. Wilkey, Anna W. Wilson, and Vivian W. Young.

POT-POURRI: The Baltimore Medical and Chirurgical Society's auxiliary has sent 150 pounds of vitamins to Mrs. Clinton E. Knox, whose husband is Ambassador to Dahomey, Africa.

The vitamins are to be used in her work with the children of that country. The gift was initiated by Mrs. Douglas Shepperd. Dr. and Mrs. Knox (she is the former Clementine Murphy) are formerly of this city.

For the first time, the Druid Hill branch of the YMCA has feminine board members. Elected, along with 32 men, were Mrs. Martha W. Jones, Mrs. Wilhelmenia Mayden and Mrs. Madie E. Mitchell.

Back from Lynchburg, Va. is Mrs. Talmadge Hill, who had been there since September 9th to her father, Fred N. Berry, who was ill. Mr. Berry returned with his daughter and is with the Hills at their Morgan Park home.

THE SNOW of last week deferred the festivities planned by Baltimore Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta in the initiation of nine young women into their chapter.

The Tuesday meeting had been scheduled for Morgan College's Christian Center. The rescheduled meeting took place at the Madison Avenue YWCA where the following neophytes were formally initiated into the Baltimore Chapter:

Miss Elise Jude, Mrs. Sara Bragg Gray, Miss Quanta Smith, Miss Sharon Murphy, Mrs. Helen Whitaker, Mrs. Audrey Williams, Mrs. Jewel Stanley Duggens, Mrs. Florence Nutter McDonald and Mrs. Doris Robinson Pegram.

Assisting in the preparation of the probates were Mrs. Juliette Bragg, Membership Chairman; Mrs. Chapelle Armstead, Dean of Pledges; Mrs. Frances Gaines, Mrs. Thelma Cox, Mrs. Olivia Dixon, Mrs. Frances Pennington, Mrs. Cornelia Smith, Miss Myrtle Jackson and Mrs. Martha Bradford.

A reception was held following the ceremony, where the neophytes were welcomed.

Plans are now underway for Founder's Day which will be held at Baltimore Sheraton Inn on Sunday, January 22 at 5:00 p.m.

A DEMONSTRATION on "Gift Wrapping" by Charles Rice, husband of member Madgeline Rice, was the highlight of Mondawmin Child Study Group's December meeting held on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Joyce Neal. Mr. Rice demonstrated the various materials and styles that can be used in the wrapping of gifts. Then the excitement of opening gifts given by secret pals within the group held attention as many pretties were displayed, including lingerie, sweaters, colognes, bedroom slippers and blouses.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Ruby Couch, Mrs. Anna Curry and Mrs. Joyce Neal.

Iotas hostesses at scholarship dance

Kappa Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority held its annual cabaret party a Friday ago at the Catonsville National Guard Armory with scholarship aid to young business education and administration women students as the end result.

The Sorors, composed of business and professional women, and dedicated to higher education in the fields, and their guests danced to the syncopated rhythms of Sherman Lewis and His Pyramids, and dined from a festive smorgasbord. . .all for the benefit of the 1967 scholarship fund. The chapter has four young women on scholarship this school year.

SIGNIFYING A successful year, the Sorors built their decorating theme around the Cornucopia (horn of plenty) heaped with fruits and vegetables and with fall flowers spilling out, the warm colors of the mums, pyracanthas, and dahlias on each table added to the festive air. The Sorority's green and white-lighted sign placed at the front of the dance floor created just the right mood for a delightful evening.

During the intermission, Soror Gladys Ball, President of the Chapter, welcomed the guests and introduced them to something of Iota's program. Three lucky persons, all men, won the door prizes. The Sorors formed a circle and sang their hymn after which the guests were invited to the smorgasbord.

THE TRADITIONAL Iota grand march led by Soror Isabel McConell and husband, Roland; and Soror Mary Ervin and spouse, Ken, got the guests back on the dance floor after the intermission activities. The guests, most of whom have attended the Sorority's other cabaret parties, have become quite expert at the Grand March, fell in like veterans to create some truly beautiful figures —twos, fours, sixes, eights, and even sixteens. Mr. Lewis and his Pyramids, furnished beautiful music for the Sorors and their guests and promised to be on hand for next year.

Hostesses were:

Sorors Mary Ames, Gladys Ball, Mary Ervin, Bertha Green, Claudine Hardin, Graldine Hooper, Isabel McConnell, Gladys McCoy, Hazel Hyman, Mildred Noel, Yvonne Jacobs, Elvira Taylor, Thelma Jiggetts, Marion Ransom, Mary Tucker, Helen Weatherford, Evelyne Wilkey, and Anna Wilson.
