BUT HE'D LISTEN:

Banks not seeking Terp coaching job

"I am not now an applicant for the job, nor have I ever sought it."

That was the reaction of Earl Banks, highly-successful coach at Morgan State College, when asked to comment on the recommendation that he be considered for the vacant post of head football coach at the University of Maryland.

BANKS' NAME was thrown into the pot of likely prospects for the job on Wednesday, when Buddy Young told local newsmen that Terrapin officials apparently "can't see the forest for the trees."

Young, assistant to National Football League commissioner Pete Rozelle, asserted that Maryland University's search for a coach to replace resigned Lou Saban might be ended immediately if Terp authorities were interested in finding a capable man.

"He's right here in Maryland," Young is quoted as saying. He went on to point out that Banks is an expert at recruiting and a fine developer of talent. Buddy's contention that Banks qualifies in every respect was supported by the record of three and two runner-up finishes in the last five years at Morgan.

BANKS TOLD the AFRO Thursday that he is flattered by Young's recommendation of him and by the esteem in which he appears to be held in the NFL office.

"However, I have not applied for the job. Of course, I feel that I could handle it and, if there came a time when I was approached in connection with it, I'd certainly have to listen.

"THE FACT remains, though," Banks continued, "that we may not have enough friends among the Maryland University alumni to wield the necessary influence for such an offer.

"I repeat that, while I'm very pleased that my qualifications are thought well of, I'm not an applicant for the job, nor have I ever been an applicant.

"I reapt also, that I would be interested if the offer were made to me" . . . SAM LACY.

Fight in D.C.

to reach Washington by plane from New York shortly after six.

Weather conditions, however, forced the champion and his entourage to travel by train.

HE WAS questioned about a telecast that had been shown in the Ahearn house while waiting newsmen were gathered for the meeting. On the TV clip, Clay and Ernie Terrell threatened to trade blows when Cashus rifed the WBA champ by referring to him as an "Uncle Tom."

"Aw that," scoffed Cassius, "that wasn't a dead one He's too much like (Floyd) Patterson to make any money. I gotta try to make him make some. He needs it, I don't."

ASKED HOW he can promise to "defend" the "title" in June in D. C. Stadium, when he still has Terrell to meet in Houston, Clay replied:

"Sure, I got to get past Terrell. But I'm the greatest. He may be a little trouble for four or five rounds, but by that time he'll be ripe for my new 'All Shuffle,' and he'll go like all the rest.

"THE MAIN question is whom I'm gonna fight here?

"It could be Sonny Liston — he's about the toughest I've met — or Patterson — he wants some more — or Thad Spencer or maybe Zora Folley.

"Really, it doesn't make much difference. The result is gonna be the same.

"Say, come to think of it," Clay went on, turning to Ahearn, "why not let me fight three of 'em in the same night? I'd like that, and it would be a good show for the people here.

"They deserve it — and me."

Veteran writer describes Clay-Terrell 'act' as real

By MILTON RICHMAN

NEW YORK (UPI) — The first normal impulse is to hold your nose and say bah, humbug!

Only if you weren't there. If you happened to be among those present in that crowded room Wednesday when Cassius Clay and Ernie Terrell angrily went at each other, however, there was something about this unwholesome little affair that somehow did not smack of a publicity stunt.

"THE MAN is an idiot," Terrell said feelingly when the ruckus was all over, referring to Clay, of course. "If he wants to promote the fight that's one thing, but if he starts talking like this, that's another thing."

Clay is not an idiot, but he is an agitator and he was at his Sunday best when he succeeded in getting under Terrell's skin over such a schoolboy issue as what's in a name.

THE TROUBLE started when Terrell inadvertently referred to the heavyweight champion as Cassius Clay instead of Muhammad Ali as he prefers and occasionally insists on being called. It all depends on who's calling him Cassius Clay as to how angry he becomes.

This time he got real hot at Terrell.

"It takes an 'Uncle Tom' like you to call me that, like the man's name like Cassius Clay," he snarled. "You know my name is Muhammad Ali. Why don't you call me that like everyone else does? The reason, you don't is because you're an 'Uncle Tom.' nothing but an 'Uncle Tom.' "

"DON'T CALL me 'Uncle Tom,' " said Terrell in measured tones.

Now he was becoming angry. His eyes narrowed menacingly and he started toward Clay, only a few feet away.

"You're an 'Uncle Tom,' that's all you are," snarled Clay, also moving toward Terrell, "I'll whup you right here and now if you don't keep quiet."

With that, Clay reached out and hit Terrell on his hand, the same way kids do when they're looking to start a fight.

That infuriated Terrell all the more. He never took a Backward step but kept coming toward Clay as onlookers, most of whom were newsmen and TV men, restrained both fighters.

"HOW COULD you ever hope to make people believe this wasn't all planned?" said one veteran newsman, who honestly believed, as did everyone else who saw it, that this was the McCoy.

Then they asked Terrell the same question. Wouldn't people think this was all rehearsed for their title fight to be held in the Houston Astrodome on Feb. 6?

"I'd never engage in something this degrading," Terrell said simply.

The way he said it there wasn't any doubt he meant it.

Carter lost, Mounts face Loyola, Jan. 5

The annual battle between Loyola and Mt. St. Mary's headlines Championship doubleheader next Thursday (January 5).

In the first gam etwo other old rivals do battle when Washington College faces Western Maryland at 7:30 p.m.

Misfortune has already struck Mountie coach Jim Pheland with the announcement that his top scorer (23.2) Fred Carter is lost until at least February with a fractured knee.

Carter was put on crtuches after leaping for a rebound in a 65-54 defeat at the hands of Catholic University a few weeks ago.

New Year's Tribute

HARRIETT — A New Year's tribute to our beloved HARRIETT V. WASHINGTON MOSS, who departed this life March 29, 1966
She would not want the ones she loved
To grieve for her today
We must not say that she is dead,
For she is just away.
Away upon a journey, to a land that's bright and fair,
And though we all do miss her here,
We know that she's happy there.
We do not say, we will not say
That she is dead — she's just away.
DEVOTED FAMILY

BELL — A New Year's Tribute in memory of my dear brother, ALBERT BELL, who passed away December 19, 1962
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Sister—

MRS. SARAH PATTERSON

A New Year's Tribute in memory of my husband, SAMUEL BALLARD, who passed away March 18, 1965 and friends MARIE CUSTIS, passed December 24, 1963 JOHN P. CUSTIS, passed June 1, 1962
Your memory to us is a keepsake
With which we never part.
Though God has you in his keeping
We still have you in our hearts.
Wife — CLARA BALLARD
Friend—RUNA REYNOLDS
Friend — MAGGIE DENNIS

HARRISON — A New Year's Tribute to our parents, ROBERT, who passed away January 16, 1954 — OPHELIA, who passed away March 6, 1964
Do you know that God above
Created you two for us to love?
He picked you two out of all the rest
Because He knew we loved you two best;
He had a heart and it was true
But now it's gone from us to you two.
Take care of it, Darlings, as we have done
To you two have ours and we love you.
Your Sons and Daughters
THEO, JESSIE, ROBERT, JEAN, BERNARD, EUNICE, JULIA and AUDREY

In Memoriams

HUTCHINS — In loving memory of my dear mother, SUSIE M. HUTCHINS, who passed away January 1, 1965
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A true loving heart that knew no guile.
God's trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffer, one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other;"
I know He said: "Well done, dear mother."
Son, EARL.

MOBLEY — In loving memory of our dear mother, INEZ MOBLEY, who passed away December 29, 1961:
No one knows how much we miss you;
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
YOUR DEVOTED CHILDREN

BRENT — In memory of our mother, LAVINIA CLASH, who departed this life January 2, 1966
A wonderful mother, woman and friend
One who was better God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true;
One in a million — that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew;
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.
BY HER CHILDREN

GRAHAM — In loving memory of my son, BERNARD FREDRICK, who passed away December 29, 1963:
Thinking of you this Christmas Season,
Thinking of the things we did together.
How can I forget — when everything I do,
Reminds me of you.
Memories we are not gonna forget
You are still in my heart.
Through the mail I can send
Our reunion in the sky.
Loving Mother

Career Appointments for Engineers, Physical Scientists
APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
The Johns Hopkins University

The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, operates under contract with the Bureau of Naval Weapons. The development of the Navy's Terrier, Talos, and Tartar guided missiles, the development and fabrication of guidance for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.

At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting openings for electrical and mechanical engineers, physicists, and mathematicians interested in career opportunities. Specific openings include computer programming, thermal analysis, mechanical design, digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering (rocket and rocket).

The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington, D. C.) and in Howard County, midway between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptionally complete facilities contain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries and cafeterias.
