In Council Annapolis 17th Feb^y 1779

Sir.

We request that you'll furnish the Galley Conqueror with any Number that may be thought necessary of the Matross Company in Baltimore not exceeding a Lieutenant, a Sergeant, a Corporal and sixteen Privates. We expect this service will be agreeable to the Officers and Men.

[Council to Purviance.]

Sir.

We hoped to have got the Conqueror off, on Monday, she went off, however yesterday Morning and expect she got up last night; we expect the Chester will be ready before the Conqueror can get down. We have recommended the Conqueror to Cap^t Nicholson's Care, as also the Dolphin to have her Masts fitted. It is very agreeable to us that Capt. Nicholson should command the Conqueror, the Moderation he has shewed is highly praiseworthy in him and pleasing to us; we had no Idea of either of our Captains commanding Cap^t Nicholson. the Commodore goes in the Chester and from his Disposition we expect the greatest Harmony: we have no Objection
