$10,000 Pledge paid; 34 bow ct Girl Friends' Cotillion

The Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends, at its sixth annual cotillion, last Thursday evening, presented 34 young women, completed its pledge of $10,000 to Provident Hospital Development Fund and made contributions to the Mental Health Association and the College Fund.

The cotillion took place in the Baltimore Civic Center to the Bobby Felton Orchestra, King Oliver Music, Inc., following the greetings by Mrs. Georgeanna Chester, president of the chapter, Mrs. Agnes Patterson, Gwendolyn Roper, the presentation and the debutants were presented by Mrs. Thelma Jones.

WEARING THE traditional white gowns, the debutantes carried nosegays of white feather plumes, backed by white tulle and deep green silk ruffling.

Stylebeds' ensembles were melon skimmers banded at the neck and sleeve with gold, and worn with gold slippers. They danced a quadrille following the formal introductions of the debutantes and after the latter had waltzed with their fathers. Following the Quadrille the debutantes waltzed with their escorts and assembled with their parents, escorts and subdebs. After this promenade guests danced and sipped punch.

The cotillion was attended by a large number of out-of-town guests including the national president, Mrs. Alice Moore of Roanoke, Va. After the ball chapter members had a party for special guests in Holiday Inn.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. John (Annie) Banks, 307 E. 24th Street, was observed at a family celebration Sunday. Couple married in Baltimore, December 29, 1916.

'Never woke up angry'

Mr. and Mrs. Banks married 50 years

A surprise New Year's Day celebration dinner honored Mr. and Mrs. John (Annie) Banks, 307 E. 24th St., on their golden wedding anniversary.

Their children and family planned the affair at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorsey, 304 E. 25th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks, married in Baltimore on Dec. 29, 1916.

* * *

"THIS WAS really a surprise," Mrs. Banks told the AFRO, speaking of the dinner.

"My daughter invited us to her house for dinner Sunday. When we arrived, there were all these people—about 60.

"All our children, (they have ten), our grand-children (twenty-five), great grandchildren (nine) and the six great, great grand - children were there."

ALSO THERE were Mrs. Banks' brother, Nelson Lewis, of Baltimore; and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Newton, of Long Branch, N.J.

Mrs. Banks' brother, Malvin, lives in Brooklyn, N.Y. was there with his wife, Mable.

"We got so many nice gifts too," Mrs Banks said. "A calendar watch for my husband, a water for me, a golden chest, dishes, towels —so many nice things.

"We received so many gifts for Christmas that I just didn't think we had anything else coming."

* * *

AS FOR the fifty years of married life, "It's hard to believe—doesn't seem that long."

"During that time we never separated or had a falling-out," Mrs. Banks continued. "We never woke up angry at each other.

"Our children never heard us calling each other names or saying things we ought not to say."

* * *

MR. BANKS is a retired rod carrier.

Both he and Mrs. Banks are natives of Gloucester County, Va.

They are members of St. Paul Baptist Church, where Mr. Banks is a deacon.

"My husband spends lots of time with the church since he retired four years ago," Mrs. Banks said.

"He likes to watch television and is a real baseball fan. Me, I don't care much for television."

* * *

MRS. BANKS and her husband attended schools in Gloucester County.

Mrs. Banks recalled:

"I was a member of the First Baptist Church there. At school, I remember my teacher, the. Rev. Joseph Fauntleroy.

"He used to rap our knuckles with a ruler when we did wrong. If we were not right, we knew we had to hold out our hand and get it.

"I think it was good for us — made better children of us. But they can't do that these days."

* * *

THE BANKS children are all grown. They are: Mesdames Ethel Golden, Mary Lee, Dorothy Johnson, Anna Dorsey, Mildred Lewis, Helen Broadley;

And, Miss Margie Banks, and Malvin, James and William Banks, all of Baltimore.

I do not need a special day
To bring you to my mind.

Are very hard to find.
If all this world were mine to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of my dear son
On this, his Birthday More.

His weary nights are over
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
