Dr. Louis Harmon cited at luncheon

"This is both a sad and happy occasion for me. Please accept Marguerite's and my sincere thanks for this luncheon."

Dr. Louis E. Harmon was speaking at a luncheon in his honor on Saturday at Holiday Inn.

The event marked his retirement —after 30 years— as senior clinic physician, Division of Veneral Disease, with the Baltimore City Health Department.

* * *

SHARING THE platform with him were his wife, Marguerite, the well - known clubwoman and Democratic worker;

Dr. Robert Farber, Commissioner of Health and Mrs. Farber; Dr. E. Walter Shervington, clinical director for the venereal disease division; and Mrs. Shervington.

* * *

IN HIS acknowledgement, Dr. Harmon noted progress in the treatment of venereal disease in the city, but he suggested there is still need for an extensive and intensive education program' for a large segment of the community, whom 'I don't think we have reached.'

He also envisioned offering sex education in all schools as early as the kindergarten.

Dr. Farber offered "heartfelt thanks to Dr. Harmon whose service to the Health Department is greatly appreciated."

DR. SHERVINGTON recalled he and Dr. Harmon, fresh out of Howard University Medical School came to Baltimore at the height of the Depression.

Then, house calls were $2; office visits were $1 and, 'sometimes you got 50 cents.'

He said it was necessary for doctors to implement their income so 'we went down (to the Health Department), and volunteered to help.'

He called Dr. Harmon 'a man of his word who has taken an interest in the new men and been a great help to me as clinical director.'

* * *

A. P. MOSS, associate general secretary of Baltimore YMCA and former director of the V's Camp Mohawk hailed him for his 'unselfish service' to youth.

He took particular notice of his work as chairman of the Mohawk Campership Fund which annually raises money to send deserving boys and girls to the summer camp.

Mrs. Ella Hughes and Dr. Walter Shervington Jr., arranged the luncheon. Dr. Shervington presented the honoree with a golf cart.

Others at the luncheon were:

Dr. Earl Clay, Dr. and Mrs. W. Atwell Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moss, Mrs. Anita Henson, Dr. Paul Berman, David Collie, Arthur Brown, Dr. and Mrs. George Pendleton, Mrs. Virginia Struve, Mrs. Dorothy Wiggins, Miss Minnie Cornish.

Mrs. Florence Coates, Mrs. Eva Hughes, Mrs. Dorothy Steele, Mrs. Cornelia Cropp, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. Olga Chambers, Dr. Clarence Martin, Dr. M. L. Barksdale.

And, Mrs. Eloise Brown, Mrs. Mamie Greene, Mrs. Mildred W. Jones, Dr. Sylvan Goodman, Mrs. Evelyn Ward, Mrs. Mayaref Dunlap, Mrs. Pearl J. Winston, Mrs. A. L. Lafferett, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Shepherd, Mrs. Louise Lockerman, Osborne Dixon and Larry Posey.

Hints for Homemakers

INEZ KAISER

Starting the New Year with an affirmative attitude toward meal planning has to mean better "breakfast" days ahead. This will be good news for your family, especially if you plan to include plenty of MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S, the syrup with the rich, mapley taste.

So last year maybe you weren't voted the world's greatest cook. At least now you can be assured of a rise in popularity with your family the first time they notice the "change" in the breakfast menu.

The first morning, try making special pancakes served with lots of special syrup ... MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S. Next, experiment with serving it on French toast, waffles and hot cereals. The acceptance will be so overwhelming that your confidence will gain swiftly in momentum. Soon you will be using MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S in all of your favorite recipes that call for syrup.

Enough of this chatter ... you had better get started for the store. Get MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S in the new 16-oz. reusable pitcher. It costs a little more, but it makes a very handy permanent dispenser for continued family use.

Remember, a good start always leads to a good ending especially if you start with MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S, the best-tasting syrup ever.

Super Stripe

Your New Year's resolutions were not complete if they did not include a promise from you to make 1967 an easier year for yourself. As homemakers, we always strive to take advantage of products on the market designed to make our tasks a little easier.

One significant stride toward this end has been made by LEVER BROTHERS with new ADVANCED "all" ... the non-ionic active detergent that cuts through greasy dirt and oil in a way no other cleaning detergent has done before. This surely is welcome news for every homemaker faced with the problem of stubborn grease stains. Another excellent feature of the product is its fresh-air fragrance.

Now washdays need not be dreaded. Just use the new power-cleaning detergent ... new ADVANCED "all". It comes conveniently packaged in sizes ranging from the 24-oz. regular size, to the economical 40-lb. drum.

Resolve that you will be good to yourself — get new ADVANCED "all" ... the detergent that outcleans the leading blue detergent, yes, even that new speckled detergent ... "all" outcleans them all.

Now that the holiday season is over, things are just beginning to settle down at our house. Well, at least I thought they were.

My neighbor called me on the phone to ask if I could recommend a good dentist for her ten-year-old daughter. It seems that an "overdose" of sweets had taken its toll on Cindy's teeth. I was very happy to give her the name of our dentist as well as a little neighborly advice and tell her about LEVER BROTHERS new toothpaste.

She was reminded that kids enjoy brushing their teeth with it and love the refreshing mint flavor of new SUPER STRIPE. It is unsurpassed in its effectiveness in reducing cavities.

The fluoride in this toothpaste acts as an anti-cavity agent to protect children's teeth. In closing our little chat, I encouraged her to be sure to see the dentist and make it a point to purchase a tube of new SUPER STRIPE, with the familiar red on white stripes.

During the holiday season or any other season you will not be plagued with cavity problems if you get how SUPER STRIPE for your children and encourage them to brush regularly.

Cindy's mother did, and now she uses it, too.

Are you prepared for the cold days ahead? Old Man Winter always brings with him blustery winds and biting cold ... conditions which usually create many problems. The one problem encountered most by ladies is rough, chapped skin.

A very excellent combatant for your complexion problems is LUX Beauty Bar. It does not require a knowledge of math ... all you must be able to do is count to ten. You see, LUX Beauty Bar contains a softening lotion that leaves your skin soft. Counting to ten gives the lotion time to reach in and soften.

New lotion LUX also makes an attractive addition to any bathroom. Uniquely fluted bars come in snow-white or delightful pastels of pink, blue, yellow or green.

LEVER BROTHERS has achieved another breakthrough in helping us women to protect our complexions from the winter weather, so take advantage of it and go to your nearest grocer's and pick up several convenient handy packs of new lotion LUX ... three bars regular size or two bars bath size.

Get ready for the winter days ahead. Remember, if you can count to ten, you can have softer skin. Get LUX today ... you can count on it.
