If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places and things

Back home from Malaya, where she spent 27 months in the Peace Corps is Mrs. Flavia Rutkisky.

She is the former Flavia Williams, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Randolph and George Williams of 424 Main St., Turner Station.

A 1960 graduate of Sollers Point and a 1964 graduate of Bennett College, Mrs. Rutkisky leaves shortly for Pittsburgh to meet her new in-laws.

She and her husband, Mark, were married over there. They met in the Peace Corps.

He is a graduate of the University of Dayton and of Dartmouth. He'll enroll in the U. of Pittsburgh Law School.

It's a first boy for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson (Shirley).

'Chuckie' was born Jan. 3rd at Sinai Hospital, tipped the scales at eight pounds plus.

Dad is the Municipal Court clerk. Mommie is the former policewoman.

The Richardson girls, Donna, 9; and Carl, 2½ are delighted, of course.

Cuff note: January is a busy month for the Richardson family. Look at this: Daddy Richardson had a birthday on Jan. 13. Donna's is Jan. 23.

And, get this: Mr. and Mrs. Richardson observed their eleventh wedding anniversary on Jan. 29. Remember Mr. Richardson had an appendectomy on his wedding day?

Down Memory Lane: The 1000 block of Myrtle Ave., now the site of the George Murphy Homes, was where the five of us grew up. . .

We lived at 1051 — a house which sat back in the yard and deprived us of white steps to wash like our neighbors.

Next door (1053), lived Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Birche and their children.

Son, William Meredith Birche, was my classmate. We played together as children and attended the same schools.

Today, he is a music teacher in the public schools and founder and president of the Baltimore Boys' Choir.

His sister, Estellena, now Mrs. Richard Showes of Cleveland, is a talented dancer and a teacher in the Cleveland schools.

The Birche children were exposed to culture early — his mother saw that they had a piano, proper lessons and instruction by the best teachers of the day.

When Meredith played the piano, and scaled the keys, we could hear him next door.

Mother often chided us to get to our own lessons so we 'could play like Meredith.'

Mrs. Birche and my mother were friends.

I remember her as a warm individual, concerned about the welfare of her children and her neighbors.

Mr. Birche's tragic death in 1941 compelled her to seek a job to keep the family going — she worked for 19 years in the schools' maintenance department. (Remember Mr. Birche worked with Dietrick Brothers Iron and Steel).

Many remember when the family moved to 1107 W. Lanvale, where they stayed for 25 years.

Others may recall Mrs. Birche's devotion to Providence Baptist Church, of which she was a charter member.

Still others may remember her soprano voice on the senior choir which she served as president.

These were the memories revived on Wednesday evening at the church where friends and relatives gathered to view remains of Mrs. Birche. She died on Saturday at the age of 71.

There was prayer by the Rev. Mrs. Agnes Alston of Gillis Memorial — a fitting and moving kiss for their mother by Mr. Birche and his sister.

Beautiful: The floral piece from the Baltimore Boys' Choir, designed by George Taylor, the florist and former member of the choir.

Herbert Nutter, the mortician, was there to oversee arrangements.

Others seen, included classmates and family friends. Speed—Miss Almyra Miller, Eddie Watson, Wilbur Dyson, Granville Hilber, Irvin Bryan, Harvey Denmark, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goldman, Mrs. Jeanette Leath, Mrs. Franklin Pollitte. Also, Norman Ross, Miss Gladys Brown, Mrs. Maggie Little, Miss Mildred Dennis, Joseph E. Betz, Mrs. Marie H. Redmond, Hentsville, Va., Mr. Sadie Keene, Reidsville, Va., Daphel H. Benns, H. E. Waterson.

The Rev. C. E. Johnson, Shirley E. Hayes, Mrs. Mary E. Smith, Charles Hilter, Samuel Beasley, Mrs. Corrine Woodland, Mrs. Julie Booker, Mr. and Mrs. William Pinderhughes, Mrs. Viola S. Clark, Marion Tilghman.

Cuff note: Providence Baptist Church's new look is elegant. The Rev. Marcus D. Wood is proud of the new closed circuit television.

It permits older members who can not climb steps to the main church auditorium to see and hear the services in the first floor auditorium.

Dick Gregory swings here

They do say the swinging-est party this town has seen in many a day was the impromptu one at the Sphinx Club Sunday evening.

Baltimore's (and New York's) Biddy Wood arranged it. After his Civic Center appearance, Dick Gregory went to the Avenoo club for dinner.

Owner Charlie Tilghman and Biddy had set up a bounteous table, encircled by wall - to - wall people who had the house nearly bursting at the seams.

After a hefty glass of orange juice and a sampling of "Prince's" technique with choice sirloin, Dick let his ever - present cigarette lean against the band stand and immediately converted the club into a symphony of uproarious laughter.

One of Gregory's jokes which really broke up the audience had to do with his 1963 visit to Cambridge during unrest there.

"When I got there all these people were lined up on both sides of the street . . . white on one side and colored on the other.

"They all had dogs. The white people had their little, pedigreed poddles who were yapping all over the place. The soul brothers and sisters had their half - starved wolf-hounds.

"I figured it wasn't too cool to stand on either side of the street but I was scared to join the soul brothers."

Gregory also pinned one of his jokes on his hometown of Chicago:

"During the disturbance last summer, I decided to confuse things.

"While we were marching in a white neighborhood, some of those who don't dig us got carried away and the cops had to lean on them.

"The next day I protested police brutality on whites. They dug this and marched with City Hall chanting 'Hill Billy Power!' "

Serving Dick's party was the effervescent William "Rusty" Smothers. Other stars making the nation happy included William (Tillie) Tilghman, William (Washington, manager; Will Jones, greeter; William (Curly) Richardson, T. J. Ovesby, Mrs. Betty Tucstall, Mrs. Anna Bailey and Alfred Brown.

Among others rocking to the sensational piano playing of Bo Pleasant, who accompanied Art Prysock for the spontaneous show: Eldee Young of the Young - Holt Trio, and Red Holt, were:

Carlton (Yummy) Dotson and his pert wife, Beta (the Sphinx No. 1 daytime pourer), McKinley Claybourne, Ike White, Bus Brown, Charles Burman, Phillis Hendrix (songbird), Rita Doreyse, Samuel Armstrong, Marie Johnson, Linwood Johnson, Dave McCleary, James Stevenson, Ernest Hargrove, Clayton James, Herb Brown, John Wood, and Toni Brown.

A bit about this and that

Hellos to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilder, (Elizabeth) 2545 W. Baltimore St. They were married ten years on Jan. 17.

Many know the Wilders as active members of Mt. Calvary Pentecostal Church, where he is a deacon and she is a young minister.

The wilders have three children, Samuel, 9; Rhonda, 8; and Lawrence, 18 months.

Secretary of the Day honors on Thursday went to Mrs. Alice Thomas Carroll, secretary to AFRO Comptroller Lloyd H. Murphy.

WCBM and Allied Florists, sponsor the daily promotion.

Mrs. Carroll received a lovely purple orchid. Two tickets for dinner at the Sheraton's Fallstaff Room and two tickets for the Town Theatre, plus a souvenir letter opener.

Mrs. Carroll, a 22 - year AFRO employee, is well known as a Masonic leader —she is past grand matron, Order of Eastern Star.

Yock Bryant, the Philly bachelor, stopped here on Sunday. He's en route to Spain for a holiday.

He was among those who gathered at Charles and Gwen Hilsons to watch the championship grid game.

Cuff note: The beautiful organ of flowers which was among floral pieces at the William Reid funeral was designed by Carl Norwood of Summers - Norwood florists. It was made of dozen of yellow and white mums.

More people and things

Plenty of sunshine, please, to Joe (Buddy) Lee, the retired YMCA executive. He entered University Hospital (11th floor), for a two-week checkup.

Joe says: Ask everybody to pray that I will come out of here with my toes on the ground, not with them up. . .

Please do. Joe is a grand guy.

Prayers, please, for Mrs. Anna Clark, who is in critical condition at East Orange, N.J. Hospital where she was rushed on Wednesday. Many know her as the mother of Daniel (Pinky) Clark, district supervisor in the recreation department here in Baltimore.

Thinking - of - you cards to Dr. and Mrs. William Garner (Wilhelmina).

Her father, the Rev. Dr. M. C. Allen former pastor of Leadenhall Baptist Church here and onetime president of Va. Seminary in Lynchburg, is seriously ill here.

His mother, Mrs. Leanna R. Garner has been in a coma at Greater Baltimore Hospital for the past eight weeks.

Dr. Louis E. Harmon, the physician and civic worker, has been ordered to bed by his doctor. He's at home.

Get well cards to Hopkins Hospital (Marburg 227), for Mrs. Daisy Anderson, pioneer resident of Brooklyn, Md.

Many know her as the mother of Alethia Griner, Mildred Young, Ella Harris, Virgie Williams, Louis Scott, Daisy Brooks and Martin Anderson.

People remembering: Among flowers on St. James P. E. Church altar on Sunday were those sent by Mrs. Edna Beaver McCormick of Los Angeles in memory of her mother, Mrs. Cora Deaver.

Cuff note: The Provident Hospital Development Committee will unveil plans for the proposed 273 - bed facility on Saturday at 1:30 on WMAR-TV.

New faces about: Dr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Lamb Jr. (Norma), a cute couple. Spied them at the Bon Coeurs party at Forest Manor on Satdee.

Dr. Lamb is a Psychiatrist on the staff of University Hospital and Spring Grove Hospital.

She is an art specialist in the schools.

Speaking of psychiatrists —another youngster (to this writer who remembers him as a child), Dr. Walter Sharrington Jr.

He is on the Sheppard-Pratt staff. Doesn't time fly!

Date data: Sunday Jan. 22, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority marks Pounder's Day at Sheraton Inn, at 5 p.m.

Same day (Jan. 22), the YWCA of Baltimore meets at Baltimore Life Building.

Birthday Tributes

FRAZIER — A birthday tribute in memory of our husband, CHARLES CLIFFORD, on his birthday January 19, who passed away September 18, 1964.
If I could have my fondest wish, The most wonderful in the world today,
I would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
I'll whisper soft and low:
"Praise God, let me have my loved one Back, because I miss him so."
Devoted Wife,
ANNA JONES FRAZIER

In Memoriams

DUPPINS — In loving memory of our dear father, RICHARD LEMUEL, who departed this life twenty - six years ago, January 18, 1941:
Our loss cannot tell how we miss him,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how we miss him,
In a home that is lonesome to-day.
Only God knows the loneliness, And how long has been the years
How we try to hide the sadness And check the lonely tears
In moments of our greatest grief, Silence comforts us.
Be at peace — cheer — and do not weep
Someday with him we'll meet.
By His Devoted Daughter
MATTIE and PAUL R. DUPPINS

GRANT — To loving memory of our dear father and loved one; bishop and pastor of The Greater Faith Church of God, RUBEN C. GRANT, who passed away January 17, 1965:
Broken is the family circle,
Our dear one has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day;
But we must all cease to lamentate
O'er the grave of him we love,
It was to part with one so dear
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
Devoted Family
CODDIE S. HACKETT,
ALFRED HACKETT
LOLLIE HACKADAY,
AMY H. WEAVER

LESTER — In loving memory of my mother, HENRIETTA LESTER, who passed away January 17, 1958:
You're not forgotten, mother dear,
Nor ever will be;
As long as life and memory last, I shall remember thee.
Daughter, FANNIE EWELL

MOODY — In loving memory of my wife, Eva OSCELA MOODY, departed this life January 8, 1966:
EVA, you went first:
We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy,
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our joy continued in the sky—
For all eternity.
Husband
BENJAMIN B. MOODY

SILVER — In loving memory of my husband and our father and grandfather, McCOY, who passed away January 20, 1963:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance, dear of you.
Wife, ETHEL REAVIS
Children, GLO C. CLINTON
And SANDRA
And GRANDCHILDREN

TILMAN — In loving memory of my dear sister, ESTELLE, who died six years ago, January 22, 1961:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how we miss you, ESTELLE dear,
None but God in Heaven can see;
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
For six long years has passed, And our hearts still ache for you.
Loving Sister, CLARA
And FAMILY, COLONIA

WEAVER — A tribute in memory of J. EDWARD WEAVER JR., who passed away for years ago, January 21, 1963:
You did so much from year to year
For all of us whom you held dear,
You've loved so much, you still seem near,
Oh, how we wish we had you here.
DEVOTED FAMILY

WILSON — In loving memory of my mother, SYLVIA J., who passed away January 21, 1955:
Although God has you in His keeping,
I still have you in my heart.
Devoted Daughter,
MAGGIE W. PATTON

Career Appointments for Engineers, Physical Scientists
APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
The Johns Hopkins University
The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, operates under contract with the Department of Navy. Research, development, engineering, and analysis in the fleet guided missiles, the development and fabrication of satellites for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.
At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting assignments available for physicists, mathematicians, and engineers interested in career opportunities. Specific openings include computer programming, thermal engineering, analog and digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system test and analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering studies and analysis.
The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington), and Howard County, midway between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptionally complete facilities contain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries and cafeterias.
