ousted at least temporarily from Congress—would have a "fantastic" announcement. There was speculation that willingness to settle a $164,000 liberal judgment against him.

C. Sumner Stone, Powell's top aide, indicated that Powell would discuss the question of his House seat and the investigation by a special committee of his fitness to serve.

OUTSIDE OF his immediate reaction after the house voted to bar him from his seat, Powell has had little to say about the inquiry, headed by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D.-N.Y.

At the news conference, Powell was expected to have something to say about his plan to pay off the libel judgment by raising money through sale of a long-playing record, "Keep The Faith, Baby."

It is a collection of his speeches, sermons and statements. Sources said he might play the record publicly for the first time.

The judgement was awarded Mrs. Esther James of Harlem after Powell called her a "fine woman" — collector of graft for policemen — in a televised speech.

"WHITE AMERICANS do not value colored lives as they value white lives — and if this country believes that murder is not the way to solve problems, then it has a terrific obligation to prove it."

She said many people in North Vietnam asked her why colored American troops were fighting in Vietnam. They drew "parallels of exploitation" between colored Americans and North Vietnamese, she said.

Mrs. Bevel went to North Vietnam with three other American women. But she decided to have her press conference only for colored reporters employed by colored owned publications.

1-way changes for 2 streets

Commissioner of Transit and Traffic James L. Foley Jr. said today that the contraction forces of the Department of Transit and Traffic are preparing to place into effect a new one-way system on Hanover Street and Hopkins Place in the downtown area.

Hanover from Lombard to Hill Street will become a one-way street in a southerly direction.

At the same time Hopkins Pl. from Camden to Lombard will become a one-way street in a northerly direction. This changes the present traffic direction of Hopkins Place in this area.

Changes in Baltimore Transit Company bus routing made necessary by this switch in street patterns have received the approval of the Metropolitan Transit Authority and will go into effect at the same time.

Mr. Foley said that crews of the Department of Transit and Traffic will begin work to effect the change at 12:01 a.m. Saturday Jan. 28.

Planned Parenthood ready for fund drive

The Planned Parenthood Association of Maryland will launch its 1967 fund drive on Feb. 1, it was announced today by Sewell Watts III, this year's campaign chairman.

The drive is part of a nationwide Planned Parenthood - World Population campaign which seeks to raise 21 million dollars in voluntary contributions in order to meet rising demands throughout the world for birth control services, public education, professional training and research.

Planned Parenthood of Maryland's goal has been set at $200,600, Mr. Watts said. This represents a substantial increase over last year's figure.

In operation since 1927, the Maryland headquarters at 517 N. Charles St., offers low - cost birth control information and services to all women who want and request it.

Mr. Watts indicated that no patient is ever refused because of inability to pay.
