MR. AND MRS.. LUCIUS CHATMAN celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a renewal of their marriage vows in Christ Methodist Church, Saturday.

Mr., Mrs. Chatman renew their vows

Before an audience of 75 close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Chatman of 1020 N. Luzerne St. renewed their marriage vows, Saturday.

The ceremony, which took place in Christ Methodist Church, and marked the couple's 25th wedding anniversary, was performed by the Rev. Kenneth P. Barnes, minister of the church.

* * *

MRS. CHATMAN is the former Miss Frances Rollins. She and Mr. Chatman are native Baltimoreans. They are parents of one son, Lucius, Jr., 16.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Chatman wore a soft beige suit with a turban in green satin. Her other accessories matched the suit. She was attended by Mrs. Edward Payne, who wore an enterprise in green with white accessories.

Both wore corsages of carnations.

Mr. Payne was attendant to Mr. Chatman.

Mrs. Boyd named library president

Miss Elizabeth B. Hage, director Prince Georges County Memorial Library, announced that the Library Board of Trustees at its regular monthly meeting last week elected Mrs. George M. Boyd, president, and Charles A. Dukes, vice-president.

Mrs. Boyd succeeds Mrs. John J. Dunn, who became president in 1964. Mrs. Boyd was elected vice-president that same year. The new officers will assume their duties Feb. 8.

Mrs. Boyd was appointed to the Library Board for seven year term in 1961. Mr. Dukes was appointed to a seven year term in 1965.

Mrs. Boyd, Cheverly is a teacher of English, Social Studies and Science (CORE) at Suitland Junior High School. She received her Master's Degree in education from New York University in 1950 and her undergraduate degree from Hampton Institute in 1944.

MRS. GEORGE M. BOYD

She and her husband, an employee of the U. S. Post Office, have a son, Everett 8.

Mrs. Boyd is a member of the prince Georges County League of Women Voters, of the Board of Directors of Prince Georges Fair Housing, and is chairman of the Public Relations Subcommittee of the Community Action Committee of the county.

MR. DUKES, Hyattsville, is an attorney and was a 1957 graduate, cum laude, of the Duke University Law School, Durham, N.C. He was employed in the Law Library and undergraduate Libraries at Duke.

He is married and the father of three children. He is a member of the American Bar Association, the State, County and District of Columbia Bar Associations, Federal Communications Bar Association and the American Judicature Society.

He has had articles published in law journals. He is a member of the Prince Georges County Cultural Commission.

PSTA to meet on budget

The Public School Teachers Association has scheduled a budget reaction meeting of its membership for Monday, Jan. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Coliseum, 2201 N. Monroe St.

According to Mrs. Rene B. Freund, president, the meeting will have two purposes:

1. To obtain from the membership "reactions and recommendations regarding Dr. Laurence G. Paquin's budget proposals for 1967-1968."

2. To discuss the PSTA's "course of action to secure a realistic budget in terms of the many unmet needs of the Baltimore schools."

The rescheduling of PSTA's budget - study session from 6 a.m. last Friday to Monday follows the School Board's decision to hold two unprecedented meetings to air the budget and hear reactions to it.

PSTA representatives will present recommendations of the membership to the School Board at its public session in Eastern High School on Jan. 31.

Bill Cosby benefit set for Morgan

Bill Cosby, comedian and star of the TV series, "I Spy," will give a benefit performance at Morgan State College, Tuesday, Feb. 21, in Murphy Auditorium.

The performance, which will be held one day after his Civic Center appearance, is for the benefit of the Morgan State College - Bill Cosby Scholarship Fund and is being sponsored by the Student Government Association of Morgan.

Mr. Cosby, a former football star at Temple University, has three records on the top 20 charts. The first was "Bill Cosby is a Very Funny Fellow . . . Right?"

Others are "I Started Out as a Child" and his latest "Why Is There Air?" which sold 80,000 during the first three weeks of sales.

COSBY, WHO gave his first comedy routine when in the fifth grade, devoted all his time to athletics in high school where he became a drop-out to join the Navy. While serving aboard a destroyer, he earned his high school diploma from correspondence courses.

He won an athletic scholarship to Temple and stayed there two years before deciding he'd rather tackle show business.

Stork brings 2 girls to Mr. and Mrs. F. Hawkins

By MELVINA EDWARDS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins (Elaine) of Huntingtown became the parents last week of twin daughters.

Little Diane Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gray and fourth grade student, was transferred this week from the Calvert County Hospital to Annapolis, where she will be treated by a specialist.

Persons who were injured in a recent auto accident and later treated and released from Calvert County Hospital included Mrs. Gladys Chew, George Ford, and Miss Malinda Coates.

Calvert County News is happy to announce that there are two new AFRO distributors in the area. They are Mrs. Ethel Purvey of Breeze Point Rd. and Mrs. Maybelle Evans of Dunkirk.

Mrs. Alice Evans, wife of Daniel Evans, is improving after undergoing medical treatment. Also listed as "improved" is Rudolph Jones, who is confined at Calvert County Hospital.

Mrs. Goldie Hall of Huntingtown is much improved following an illness.

* * *

AMONG CALVERT County residents marking birthdays last week was Miss Doris A.Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Tyler Jr. of Huntingtown. The Tylers also marked their 16th wedding anniversary.

Yours truly celebrated on Jan. 17.
