

Order amongst all his Majestys Subjects under their Govern- Lib. C. B. ment inhabiting the said Borders—do stand in force and be observed.

2^d That there being no Riots that appear to have been committed within the Three Lower Counties of Newcastle Kent and Sussex upon Delaware It is therefore not thought necessary to continue the latter Part of the said Order in Council as to the said three Lower Counties but that the same former Order in Council so far as relates to the said three Lower Counties be discharged without Prejudice to Either of the Proprietors as if the same had never been made 3^d That all other Lands in Contest between the said Pro- p. 7 prietors now possessed by or under Either of them shall remain in the Possession as they now are (although beyond the temporary limits hereafter mentioned) And also the Jurisdiction of the respective Proprietors shall continue over such Lands until the Boundaries shall be finally settled. And that the Tenants of Either side shall not attorn to the Other, nor shall Either of the Proprietors or their Officers receive or accept of Attornments from the Tenants of the Other Proprietor.

4th That as to all vacant Lands in Contest between the Proprietors not lying within Either of the three Lower Counties and not now possessed by or under either of them on the East Side of the River Susquehannah down so far South as Fifteen Miles and One Quarter of a Mile South of the Latitude of the most Southern Part of the City of Philadelphia And on the West Side of the said River Susquehannah down so far South as fourteen Miles and three Quarters of a Mile South of the Latitude of the most Southern Part of the City of Philadelphia The temporary Iurisdiction over the same is agreed to be exercised by the Proprietors of Pensilvania and their Governor Courts and Officers. And as to all such vacant Lands in Contest between the Proprietors and not now possessed by or under Either of them on both sides of the said River Susquehannah South of the respective Southern Limits in this Paragraph before mentioned the Temporary Iurisdiction over the same is agreed to be exercised by the Proprietor of Maryland and his Governor without Prejudice to Either Proprietor and until the Boundaries shall be finally settled 5th That the respective Proprietors shall be at free Liberty to grant out on the common and usual Terms all or any Vacant Lands within the said Provinces of Pensilvania and Maryland in Contest between the said Proprietors (that is to say within their own respective Sides of the said several Limits p. 8 mentioned in the last foregoing Paragraph) For the which Lands and the Profits of the same also Each Proprietor shall account to the other who may be adjudged to be the Proprietor
