MSA PROFILES

Perhaps one of Edmondson High School's most popular athletes Wayne Jackson, is not only an improving basketball player but a potentially fine gridiron performer.

"If he ever realizes his potential," says coach Warren Schwartz, "Wayne can be a two-sport star in college. He is a very good football player right now, but he can be better.

• • •

"AS FAR as basketball goes, he simply needs experience. He hasn't been exposed to basketball. Inexperience lacks the moves and confidence that come with experience.

"Jackson is an average student, well liked by just about everyone. His teachers report his behavior good in the classroom and elsewhere. And the coaches agree he is among our more cooperative boys," Schwartz concluded.

• • •

WAYNE IS the son of Jackson. His father works for the Koppers Company.

He has one brother, Charles, and a sister, Barbara, neither of whom appears athletically inclined. Wayne enjoys raising pigeons as a hobby.

The family attends the Central Baptist Church.

• • •

"I'D LIKE very much to attend college after graduation from Edmondson," Jackson declares. "Morgan or Baltimore Junior College would be my preference, depending on the result of my college exams.

"All going well," he adds, "I'd like to teach physical education as a life work"... SAM LACY.

Indoor tennis tourney gets U.S. Davis Cuppers

SALISBURY, Md. — Bill Riordan, general chairman of the United States Indoor tennis championships to be played February 12-19, has announced that Charlie Pasarell of Puerto Rico, will defend his title.

Pasarell cabled Riordan that he plans to arrive in the East just prior to the championships, and will compete in a warmup tournament in Philadelphia the weekend of February 10-12.

• • •

RIORDAN also disclosed that the other member of the United States Davis cup Team, Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Texas, has entered.

The entries of Pasarell and Richey give Salisbury the entire Davis cup team as Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Virginia, currently America's No. 1 player, submitted his entry two weeks ago.

The entry of Richey gives Salisbury four of the current top ten players in the world. These are Cliff Drysdale, South Africa; Ashe, Istvan, Hungary; and Richey.

• • •

PASARELL'S record for 1966 included many outstanding wins. He defeated Ashe at the finals of the Philadelphia Indoors, and again at the semi - finals of the Pacific Coast International. He beat Ralston at Dallas where he also beat Newcombe.

His major victory was in last year's National Indoor meet where he beat Ulrich, Lutz, Koch and Holmberg.

Carver Rec Center lists cage tourney

The Bureau of Recreation has announced the second annual mid-winter basketball tournament for the Carver Center, Bentalou and Pressman Streets, Feb. 1-2.

Eight teams will try to unseat defending champion Easterwood Bears.

They are Hanlon Park Hawks, the 202 Raiders, Cahill Center, Franklin Playground, Wilken's Sportsmen, Irvington Center, McAbee Stars and Hilton Center.

Golf classes set at Druid Hill Y

The Druid Hill Branch YMCA inaugurated its 1967 golf program on Wednesday, with Walter (Chink) Stewart, pro at the Carroll Park Course, in charge.

Classes are being held each Wednesday and Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., for members of the Y and non-members. Nominal fees are charged, with membership cards providing discounts.

George Taliaferro, former pro football star and himself an accomplished golfer, serves as coordinator. Leroy Hilliard, assistant physi- director at the Y, is also on the instructional staff.

Baltimore Junior College to hold baseball clinic

Four former major leaguers, including a big league manager, and a baseball All-American will assemble in Baltimore Junior College's Red Devil Fieldhouse tomorrow (Saturday) for the first annual BJC Baseball Clinic.

Orighnally conceived and organized by Red Devil baseball coach Earl Smith, himself, a former major league catcher with the Philadelphia Phillies, the clinic is open to area high school players and their coaches and is free of charge.

• • •

THE SESSION will commence at 9 a.m. with a showing of the 1966 All-Star game film, followed at 9:30 by a half-hour seminar on pre-season drills and training, conducted by coach Smith.

Tim Thompson, former catcher with the Brooklyn Dodgers and now an area scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, will lecture on catching techniques.

Hitting and bunting will be demonstrated by Frankie Staff, manager of the 1966 Detroit Tigers.

Campy misses Hall of Fame by 15 votes

NEW YORK — Roy Campanella, one - time catching star of all-time great Dodgers baseball teams, appears doomed as far as early entry into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., is concerned.

Campy missed by 15 votes getting the required number of points to qualify for enshrinement, in Wednesday's tally of ballots cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association.

• • •

HE NEEDED 219 votes, as did each of the candidates for the honor. He drew 204.

Missing also were Ducky Medwick, ex-St. Louis Cardinals outfielder, and Red Ruffing former Yankees pitching great.

• • •

A SECOND vote will now be held in the hope of qualifying one or more players for election. Considered in this second balloting will be only the top 30 finishers in Wednesday's tally.

Aside from Campy's third place, colored aspirants were 27th and 30th in the listing. They were Don Newcombe with 18 votes and Larry Doby with 10.

Yacht America model to be in boat show

A 36-inch model of the original schooner yacht America will be on display at the Chesapeake Bay Boat Show in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Feb. 4-12.

The America model can be seen in The F. and M. Schaefer Brewing Company booths (39 and 40).

18 pro athletes join rights fight

NEW YORK—A total of 18 active professional athletes and three former sports stars went on record here last Monday as being solidly in the battle for civil rights.

These men are in addition to three who had previously accepted invitations to serve as co-chairmen of the newly-formed National Sports Committee. The committee, the first of its kind in history, is support to the NAACP's designed to offer financial Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

• • •

FOLLOWING ARE the first big league athletes to fall into line behind the plan:

BASEBALL — Vada Pinson, Reds; Maury Wills, Pirates; Willie Horton, Tigers; Hank Aaron, Braves, and Ernie Banks, Cubs;

FOOTBALL — Herb Adderley, Willie Wood and Willie Davis of the world champion Green Bay Packers; Bob Brown, Philadelphia Eagles; Mike Garrett, Kansas City Chiefs; Rommie Loudd, Houston Antwine and Jim Hunt, Boston Patriots;

Matt Snell, Verlon Biggs, New York Jets; Charlie Frazier, Houston Oilers; Butch Byrd, Buffalo Bills, Jim Warren, Miami Dolphins.

• • •

ALSO PLEDGED to committee support are Baseball Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, ex-New York Giants World Series hero Monte Irvin, and all - time National Football League halfback Buddy Young, who now is an administrative assistant in the NFL executive offices here.

Serving as co - chairmen are Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics basketball team, Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears football organization, and Bill White, first baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies.

• • •

TWO OF the stars in attendance at Monday's meeting at Gallegher's Steakhouse, made moving statements in support of the understanding.

Said Sayers:

"My professional football career with the Chicago Bears has allowed me opportunities which most people can only dream about." He added that "professional athletes are in a unique position to influence the attitudes of the public, particularly the young."

Wills, holder of the all-time base - stealing record, asserted:

"Baseball has been good to me in terms of providing financial security, a degree of personal recognition, and the opportunity to meet people and do things which otherwise I would surely have been denied in life. It occurred to me that perhaps I had some obligation to in order to assist others—SAM LACY.

Hank Aaron may join 100G league

ATLANTA (UPI) — Atlanta Braves star outfielder Hank Aaron is expected to sign a two - year contract for $100,000 a year as soon as tax details can be worked out.

The Braves say they have come to terms with Aaron, the National League home run (44) and runs batted in (127) champion of 1966, and that the contract signing "is merely a formality."

"We have had pleasant talks with Aaron," the spokesman said. "The contract will be signed as soon as certain tax problems are ironed out."

AN ATLANTA Newspaper reported Monday it has learned that Aaron will get $100,000 a year, the first Brave ever to move into the six - figure bracket, but that half will be held in reserve until after his retirement.

Aaron, 32, has a 13 - year major league batting average of .317. This is three points lower than at the start of 1966 season because his .279 average last year was the lowest of his career. But his home run and runs batted in totals made it a productive year for the all-star right fielder.

• • •

LAST YEAR marked the seventh time that Aaron has driven in 120 or more runs in a season and the fifth time he has hit 40 or more home runs. He has a career total of 442 home runs — 10th on the all - time list — and 1,432 RBIs.

Most valuable player in the National League in 1957, Aaron led the league in batting in 1956 with a .328 average and in 1959 with a .355 mark.

HANK AARON

Frank again, this time NY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Robinson, Walter Alston, Lefty O'Doul and Yogi Berra will be among those honored by the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America at its 44th annual dinner Sunday night.

Robinson, who won the triple crown last season while helping the Baltimore Orioles to the American League pennant and a World Series sweep, will be presented the Babe Ruth World Series Award as well as the player of the year citation.

Alston, manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, will receive the chapter's "Good Guy" Award. O'Doul will be presented the Retroactive Award and Berra will be honored for "long and meritorious service to baseball."

Clay gives $10,000 to aid colleges

NEW YORK — Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay, the world's heavyweight champion, has contributed $10,000 to the United Negro College Fund.

The 25 - year - old fighter's gift will be used to help support 33 predominantly colored colleges and universities affiliated with the Fund.

In presenting the contribution, this week, the champ expressed the view that education is a cornerstone in the struggle for freedom, justice and equality.

"ALTHOUGH I myself never had the opportunity to go to college," he said, "I give this $10,000 out of my love, admiration and respect for the Fund's 24,000 dedicated students to help in some small way so that the seeds of immortality hidden within each one of them may be nourished and developed to their fullest capacity. To me, they are all the "greatest."

Clay was educated in Louisville, Ky., and graduated from high school in 1960. As long as he remains world heavyweight champion, he says he will continue to do everything possible to aid the Fund and its member institutions.

DURING THE past two decades, the United Negro College Fund has raised more than $95 million to assist its 33 member institutions.

Contributions to the organization's annual appeal — conducted in 250 communities — are used by the schools to expand educational programs, bolster scholarship and other financial aid to nearly 19,000 students, strengthen faculties and build library holdings.

Griffith thrashes Archer, eyes Tiger

NEW YORK (UPI)—After disposing of Joey Archer as a contender for his crown, middleweight champion Emile Griffith immediately began beating the drums for future bouts with Italian Nino Benvenuti and light-heavy champ Dick Tiger.

Griffith left little doubt about who was the better fighter Monday night as he bullied his way to a unanimous 15-round decision over Archer in a fight that lost much of its suspense when the bell rang for the first round.

• • •

THE CHAMPION from the Virgin Islands now living in New York, stalked the popular Bronx Irishman around the ring for the entire fight. Although he was unable to deck Archer, who has never been knocked off his feet while winning 46 of his 50 pro bouts, the 28-year-old Griffith left little doubt who was boss.

• • •

"THE FIRST time I fight him was much better," said Emile, who ran his record to 52 victories against seven losses. "It was closer the first time. This time, I had to try to get Joey to come to me, but after I cut his eye in the second round, he began running."

• • •

THE GARDEN hopes to match Benvenuti, the European middleweight champ, against Griffith on March 22, boxing director Harry Markson said.

"I'd like to fight him," said Griffith. "I don't duck anyone, and he's a good champion in Europe."

HOWEVER, Griffith, who reigned as welterweight champion before moving up to the middle throne last year with a victory over Tiger, also is eager to add the light-heavy title to his collection. Tiger went on to win the light - heavy crown from Jose Torres after losing the middleweight title.

"That's a natural," Griffith said. "I know I can beat him again, and I want that third mile even though—I wouldn't keep it if I won it. I'd give it up and keep the middleweight title."

4 more foreign stars enter indoor tennis

SALISBURY, Md.—Four more entries to the United States Indoors tennis tournament have been announced by Bill Riordan, general chairman.

Premjit Lall, recent winner of the Indian Championships and top Indian Davis Cup star; Torben Ulrich, Denmark's No. 1 player; Graham Stilwell of the British Davis Cup team; Jerry Cromwell, ranked number 21 in the United States, have filed for play.
