Maryland State Beauticians entertain for Mrs. Mitchell

The Maryland State Beauticians' Association entertained at a bon voyage party for Mrs. Margaret C. Mitchell, recently.

Mrs. Mitchell, who heads the local group and is recording secretary for the National Beauty Culturists' League, attended the board meeting of the latter in Kingston, Jamaica.

Also attending were Mrs. Mary Stevens, Mrs. Marion Wade, Mrs. Betty Brown and Mrs. Lillian Spears.

* * *

AT A MEETING, this week the Maryland group named the following committee chairmen:

Mrs. Florence Knox, education; Mrs. Janie Sanders and Miss Mayme Tilghman, Memorial project; Mrs. Rose Salisbury, building fund;

Mrs. Elma Stewart, convention fund; Mrs. Mary Brooks, legislative; Miss Sarah Sterling, cultural.

Mrs. Lydia Starks will be the Maryland State contestant for the national "Miss Institute" contest, to be held in Atlanta, Ga. on August 5.

* * *

IN ADDITION to Mrs. Mitchell, officers of the Association are:

Mesdames Florence Knox, Addie Clash of Cambridge, Janie Sanders, Doris Johnson and Adell Walker of Annapolis, first, second, third, fourth and fifth vice presidents, respectively;

Mesdames Joan Johnson, recording secretary; Evelyn Jones, of Salisbury, corresponding secretary; Rosetta Tilghman, financial secretary; Edythe Myers, treasurer;

Mesdames Virgie Waters, business manager; Ethel Felder, chaplain; Dorothy Tross, sargeant-at-arms; Lucille Warren of Chestertown, historian; and Sarah Sterling, reporter.

COMING EVENTS

March 2

Hospital executives from all parts of the nation will come to Baltimore for the annual meeting of the Hospital Bureau at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIE GIBSON, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown were among guests who attended the Provident Hospital Auxiliary's dance at East Wind on Friday.

Provident family, town folk spark season's gayest party

The Provident Hospital family had a great get - together on Friday evening at Eastwind . . . and they were all there, administrators, physicians, nurses, secretaries, technicians, alumnae, as well as hundreds of guests.

The occasion, a formal cabaret dance, is one of their major affairs given by the Auxiliary of Provident Hospital, to support their program for the institution.

Others are a tea and a fashion show. The latter is scheduled for May 7th, at the Civic Center.

* * *

THE GROUP danced to Earl Ross' (of Philadelphia) 10-piece orchestra . . . and the evening was sparked by a soaring spirit of fashion.

Pink was the color chosen by practically all the members of the dance committee, what with cherry and white being auxiliary colors.

* * *

PINNIE ROSS, chairman, wore a doll dress of pale pink French satin, with bands of iridescents and rhinestones at the hem. Beatrice Avery, president of the auxiliary, chose a demi-fitted crepe with reworked lace bodice.

Edna E. Simmons, co-chairman, was in a lean shaft of pink, its distinction being in detailed seaming. Lorraine King was demure in an empire-waisted peau de soie with lattice worked jeweled bodice.

* * *

WILLIA BLAND'S strapless crepe gown was tented with yards of wispy azalea chiffon. The tender texture of crepe and chiffon worn by Lucille Banton featured a closely fitted dress with wings of chiffon floating dreamily behind her. Eleanor Bracey's chiffon gown was worn under a tent coat of the same chiffon.

* * *

ROSA JOHNSON'S back-wrapped caftan tunic over back-vented skirt was a salute to simplicity. Cecelia Shaw, an exception to the wearers of pink, chose a pyramid of open worked green and blue sequins over an emerald green peau de soir.

Spotted among the guests: Jackie Smelkinson in black chiffon over crepe with a deep V-line at back and a gentle V-line at front; Ardell Judy, who seems to get prettier each day, was also in black, her short formal featuring a deep round decolete at back, a shallow neckline at front and long sleeves . . . the whole in black lace over nude;

Also in black was Margaret Singletary, whose dazzling back and white sequin overjacket would have been a show stopper anywhere.

Ruth Tibbs was in a crisply tailored antiqued gold-green brocade suit; Gertrude Smith of Catonsville in chic pink skimmer; Emma Dixon wore a hand made dress of heather sequins over wool knit.

THERE, TOO, were Connie Johnson in a Dior petal pale two-piece dress with surpliced over-jacket; Gloria Basfield in sophisticated white peau de soie skirt topped with a shimmering shell; Norma Lamb in silvered white brocade with keyhole neckline and hip sling belt;

CAROL BROWN wore champagne brocade with narrowed waistline outlined with a self belt; Ann Dyett in a Stratford original of aqua peau de soie accented with beaded bodice.

Slaytease Hull was lovely in a pink tube with lace bodice; Elizabeth Parker was in flowing white crepe sparked with a pink stole; Louise Tildon chose a gown of new green peau de soie with flattering high bateau neckline at front and a dramatic panel descending from the low back; while Janie McClellan selected an understated gown of pale gold lustre, its gentle softened fit falling an A-line pattern. Ethel Felder chose a blue - green sequin dress-knee-length.

* * *

MATTIE HARRIS' silvered metallic eyelash material flashed through the crowd; Vivian Scott's side - closed easy fitted crepe was extremely feminine. Inga Walker's soft silk had a delicate air . . . and shades of brilliance were captured in the white-pink-green abstract print of Juanita Selph's avant garde dress. Rose Clayton's creamy pink gown, which featured an expanse of spangles on its high-waisted bodice, and Thomasina Mixon's brilliant red velvet gown lent other eye-catching moments to the affair.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cooper of New York (he's the new public relations manager of the Schaefer Brewing Company) who flew in just minutes before the affair and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mallow of Trenton, N.J., and Carol Hayes who came from Reading, Pa.

CRUST IS the key to any good pie. Just four ingredients — enriched flour, shortening, salt and water — combine to produce melt-in - the - mouth pastry. It's easy.

Simply cut shortening into flour, sprinkle with only enough cold water to hold the ingredients together and mix with a light touch. Minimum handling and rolling on a lightly floured surface, assure success every time.

Fleming to talk on Israel-Africa

G. James Fleming, professor of political science at Morgan State College, will be guest speaker at the monthly luncheon meeting to be held by the America-Israel Society, Baltimore Chapter, at noon Friday, Feb. 10 at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. Alleck Resnick, luncheon chairman, announced.

Dr. Fleming's topic will be "Israel's efforts in Behalf of African Education both in Africa and in Israel." He was on leave from Morgan State College in 1965 - 66 in order to visit twelve African nations.

Luncheon reservations may be made by calling Mary C. Turner at SA. 7-4456.

Michael Mitchell among bridegrooms-to-be

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Michael Bowen Mitchell, a senior at Lincoln University and member of the noted Mitchell - Jackson NAACP family, has a date with cupid soon.

He is among the several other young men, who, as spring approaches, turn their thoughts to love.

Marriage License Bureau records show applicants dipped down in number after Christmas but are coming in ever increasing numbers now.

The "happy - ever - after crowd" is expected to flood the offices in the Court House at any time now since Feb. 14, Valentine Day, is just a few days away.

* * *

MR. MITCHELL, age 21, has chosen as his bride-to-be Miss Cherlyn Nicholas, 19, daughter of Mrs. Gwendolyn M. Nicholas, 1023 W. 43rd St.

The license was applied for on Jan. 27 and picked up Jan. 30.

Mr. Mitchell is the son of Clarence Mitchell Jr., NAACP Washington Bureau chief, and Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, local attorney.

His brother is Senator Clarence Mitchell III and his grandparents, Keiffer Jackson and Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, longtime NAACP president and nationally known leader.

A&P vision has made america great

Men of vision and dedicated people have made America the industrial, manufacturing, and retailing leader of the world.

Take our founder as an example.

More than a century ago, he envisioned a new concept of efficient, low-cost mass food distribution. This concept set the stage for the development of today's modern A&P and for today's entire food retailing industry.

Similar vision characterizes the current management of A&P:

Men who recognize the cost-saving potential of computerized warehousing and ordering.

Men who are applying practical automation to manufacturing facilities.

Men who are relocating distribution centers to take advantage of modern transportation and roads.

Men who are constantly on the lookout for better, more efficient methods of food handling.

Men who are, as always, dedicated to the basic concept of our founder: TO BRING THE MOST GOOD FOOD, TO THE MOST PEOPLE, FOR THE LEAST AMOUNT OF MONEY.
