Clay favored in 'showdown' match with Ernie Terrell

By SAM LACY

The long-awaited showdown fight between Cassius Clay (Muhammad Ali) Clay and Ernie Terrell, to decide the undisputed world heavyweight boxing championship will be held Monday night at Houston's (Texas) Astrodome.

Closed circuit television reproduction of the affair is scheduled for the Washington - Baltimore area. In Washington, the showing will be at the Sheraton Park Hotel and at D.C. Armory. In Baltimore, the site will be the Civic Center.

CLAY WILL enter the bout a heavy favorite to whip the World Boxing Association titleholder. He is unbeaten in 27 fights, with 22 of his victories achieved via kayos. At 24, he is 3 years younger than his rival.

Terrell's record shows 43 fights, with 39 victories and 4 losses. He has knocked out 18 of his victims.

The two principals have five common opponents in their backgrounds. For whatever purpose it serves, here is a rundown of their performances against these men:

TUNNEY HUNSAKER - Terrell, in his 16th fight, decisioned Hunsaker in 8 rounds. Ali, in his pro debut decisioned Hunsaker over the 6 round distance.

* * *

HERB SILER - Terrell, in his 27th fight, decisioned Siler in 10 rounds and in his 34th bout kayoed Siler in 3 rounds. Clay, in his second pro start, knocked out Siler in 4 rounds.

* * *

CLEVE WILLIAMS - Terrell, in his 28th fight, was stopped by Williams in the 7th round, then in his 35th battle he captured a hard fought, 10 round decision from Williams. Williams, of course, was at the peak of his career. Clay, in his 27th fight, kayoed Williams in three rounds but most feel this was a far cry from the Williams who met Terrell on those two occasions.

* * *

DOUG JONES - Terrell, in his 43rd fight, had no difficulty at all as he easily decisioned Jones in 15 rounds. Clay had all kinds of trouble with Jones in his 18th pro fight. Many thought Jones the victor, but Clay had his hand lofted after 10 exciting rounds.

* * *

GEORGE CHUVALO - Terrell, in his 42nd fight, hammered out a convincing 15 round victory over the Canadian. Clay outdueled the durable Canuck in 15 rounds in his 22nd pro outing. Mind you, those fights were less than five months apart with the Terrell-Chuvalo battle taking place first.

John Thomas, Mays entered in Baltimore indoor meet

Two 1966 champions, the twin brother of one and a fourth familiar figure in the local winter's circle have joined the field for the 21st All-Eastern Indoor Games at the Civic Center February 25.

Sending in their entry blanks were John Thomas, for whom the seven-foot high jump is commonplace; Herb Germann, last year's 880 winner and his brother George, and Charlie Mays, who had a large hand in making Maryland State the small college track power it is today.

THOMAS, competing for the Boston A.A., made his first trip to Baltimore in 1964, far outclassing the field with a jump of 7 - 2¾ and just missing an attempt to crack the indoor record of 7-3. Then, last year he returned and could conquer only 6-10 in beating Russia's Sergey Mospanov.

In a slump last season, Thomas appears to have regained much of his old form. He has triumphed three times at 7 feet during this young indoor campaign, and in the Millrose Games got the nod over Otis Burrell on fewer misses at 7-1. His only loss was to Burrell in the Saskatoon (Can.) Jubilee, 7-1 to 7-0.

Mays opened his campaign last week, beating defender Nick Lee, of Baltimore, in the Millrose 500 and then winning the Boston AA 440 in 49.1.

Terrell's answer decides his fate, says Clay

HOUSTON (UPI) — Cassius Clay is keeping his usual pre-fight prediction a secret until he asks Ernie Terrell a three-word question at the weigh-in Monday for their heavyweight title bout that night.

"If he answers it wrong or doesn't answer it, I'm going to give him the full treatment," Clay said.

"I'm gonna annihilate him. If he answers it right, I won't beat him so bad."

* * *

TERRELL, the World Boxing Association champion, said later he knew what the three little words were, and they were not "I love you."

Terrell implied Clay's question would be "What's my name?"

"Let him ask it and the answer will be Cassius Clay, Terrell said. Clay refers to himself by his Muslim name, Muhammad Ali.

SOME BOXING experts thought Clay, a 4 to 1 favorite, would win in 12 rounds.

"I don't know if it'll be that long," Clay said. "I don't think it will. It might be."

The title fight will be shown on closed-circuit TV at Baltimore's Civic Center and in Washington at D. C. Armory and the Sheraton-Park Hotel.

We started with a simple plan.

It all began with the notion that a wagon should hold a lot, and no notion about how it should look.

So when we sat down to design the VW Station Wagon we started by drawing a big box with 170 cubic feet of space.

(Roughly two times the room of an ordinary station wagon.)

This gave us room to seat 9 people comfortably and 13 pieces of luggage. (13 bags more than you could ever fit into most wagons that hold 9 people.)

Once we got the people in we couldn't just let them sit there in a dark box.

So we cut 21 windows to let the light in, a big hole in back to put the luggage in, and 4 doors to let the people out.

To make the thing go we put the air-cooled Volkswagen engine in back.

And what we ended up with is what you see in the picture.

A sensible wagon that holds a lot, parks easily, and doesn't drink much gas.

What could be simpler than that?

Unbeaten Mathis on title bout card

HOUSTON (UPI)— Buster Mathis, a young heavyweight, will fight Waban Thomas, a ten-year veteran from Charlotte, N. C., in a ten-round preliminary to the Ernie Terrell-Cassius Clay heavyweight championship fight Feb. 6.

Mathis, 22, was a 300-pound plodder two years ago, but has slimmed down to 235 and is considered a promising newcomer. He is managed by Cus D'Amato, who steered Floyd Patterson to the heavyweight title.

D'Amato has predicted Mathis will be ready for a heavyweight championship fight by next fall. Mathis has won all 16 pro fights, 12 by knockouts.

OLYMPIAN DEAD — Eddie Tolan, hero of American track and field hopes in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, died Tuesday in Detroit. AFRO photo shows him as stumpy schoolboy who shocked the world with back-to-back victories in 100 and 200 meters to become first colored "world's fastest human." At time of death of a liver ailment, Tolan was elementary school teacher in Detroit. Previously, he had worked for Ford Motor Company as front office aide.

Eagles flying for 8th straight

American University's Eagles are still on the march and will be seeking their eighth victory in a row when they face Gettysburg in Pa. tomorrow (Saturday) at 8 p.m.

The Eagles have won 11 of their last 12 starts and are now boasting an 11-4 record after a dismal start which saw them lose their first three games of the season.

On Monday the AU men went over 100 points as they downed Old Dominion at Norfolk, 106-94, in their second meeting of the season which saw the Eagles win both games.
