MR. AND MRS. CALVIN BROOKS were married in Baltimore, Saturday. Mrs. Brooks is the former Miss Patricia Wilson.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Three churches in wedding ritual

With Lula Jones Garrett

Three denominations bestowed their blessings on Miss Patricia Wilson and Calvin H. Brooks, when they exchanged vows and had a wedding reception, here, Saturday.

Fr. Robert Reed and Fr. Joseph M. Connolly of Saint Gregory the Great Catholic Church, where the ceremoney took place, officiated at the double-ring ritual. They were assisted by the Rev. Octavius Graham, minister of Knox Presbyterian Church, where the bride worships. And the reception was held at Wayland Baptist Church, pastored by the Rev. William W. Payne, and of which Mrs. William Wilson, mother of the bride, is a member.

Andy Steward was at the console at St. Gregory The Great.

Miss Williams, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace, the neckline and chapel train bordered with seed pearls and crystals. Her veil, also of lace, was attached to a tiara of crystals, and she carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Andrea Forrester was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Barbara Brown and Misses Phyllis Woods, Darnella Brooks, Marlene Gaylord and Sondra Parrish.

The maid of honor wore a gown of blue brocade. Her lace veil was attached to a bow at top. The other attendants, alternately, were gowned in yellow and green brocade gowns, with head pieces that matched the gowns. All carried bouquets of carnations glowered with ribbons that matched the gowns.

Best man was Edward Wilson, and ushers included

BEST BUYS:

Brighten February menus with oranges

Brighten February festive menu plans with oranges in the fruitbowl and in special preparations.

Make sure to include them, as well, in the usual daily fare for their important vitamin C contribution and refreshing flavor appeal. There's nothing quite like a juicy fresh orange for all - purpose fruit uses.

* * *

YOU CAN'T go wrong now with this good citrus as far as the family food budget is concerned, because oranges are among the best buys at the fruit stands. The reason for this is the record breaking orange crop produced this season.

Florida's orange crop is now expected to come to 142.4 million boxes, the largest of record for that State. While California's 34 million box crop is below last season's, it's 23 percent above average.

* * *

MEANWHILE, too, the Florida tangerine crop is 28 percent larger than last season —4.6 million boxes; and the tangelo harvest is up 50 percent — 1.8 million boxes.

By all means use this cornucopia of abundance in new and familiar ways for every possible occasion. Valentine's Day, Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays and the days in between are all appropriate for orange preparations. Remember, oranges go well in beverages, main dishes, appetizers, salads and desserts both festive and plain for round - the - clock meals and snacks.

* * *

FOR THE specially refreshing dessert, serve peeled whole oranges rolled in cinnamon and sugar for eating with knife and fork. Combine oranges and coconut for an ambrosia. Or dice oranges and bananas, sugar lightly and serve for an appetizer.

Broiled orange halves make elegant main dish garnishes. And valentine - shaped molds containing fresh orange and grapefruit segments in a bright red fruit - flavored gelatin will add to the gaiety of a party buffet.

* * *

HERE'S another good item for a party buffet or an informal family meal, SALMON FRUIT SALAD, which teams plentiful oranges with plentiful canned salmon:

Use one can (1 lb.) salmon, one avocado, peeled and sliced, one tblsp. lemon juice, two cups orange sections, one and one - half cups sliced celery, one - half cup toasted blanched slivered almonds, one - third cup mayonnaise or salad dressing and salad greens.

Drain salmon and break into large pieces. Sprinkle avocado with lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Reserve six avocado and six orange sections for garnish. Cut remaining avocado and orange into one - inch pieces.

Combine all ingredients except salad greens; chill. For serving, shape salmon-fruit mixture into a mound on salad greens and garnish with a slice of avocado and orange.

Makes six servings.
