

but his dissent was not communicated to the Assembly until October, 1725. A bill of similar import, passed at the session of 1719, failed to receive the signature of Governor Hart.

An omission in the text of Volume XXIV of the Archives, noted below, was recently observed. Slips to be inserted in that volume for the correction of that error are sent out with this volume.

CORRIGENDUM.

ARCHIVES OF MARYLAND, VOLUME XXIV.

Page 421, tenth line from the foot: After the word "Tobacco" insert "per pole in which they shall pay to such Vestry or incumbent five pounds of Tobacco"