Carver students paid visit by beauticians

Sorors of Zeta Chapter, Theta Nu Sigma Sorority, a national beauticians' organization, were welcomed to the Carver Vocational High School on Monday.

They were met by Reuben Jones, principal of the school, and Mrs. Josephine Brown, a cosmotology teacher.

The basileus, Mrs. Lydia M. Starks, and seven sorors, spoke to the graduating class.

Mrs. Brown and her assistant were each presented with a necklace bearing the emblem of the National Institute of Cosmotology.

Arena Players

The Arena Players announce their third production for the 14th season, "The Heiress" by Ruth and Augustus Goetz.

It runs six nights, Feb. 17, 18, 19, 24, 25 and 26. The first three nights are patrons' nights. Other tickets are on sale at the door. Curtain is 8:30 p.m.

Cardy Party 28Pt.

The M. J. Naylor Chapter of the Morgan State College Alumni Association is sponsoring its 8th annual benefit card party.

This affair will be held on Saturday, April 1, 1967, at the Sheraton-Baltimore Inn, Broadway and Orleans St., at 8 p.m.

Proceeds will be used for the chapter's undergraduate Scholarship Fund.

'Heart' party at Rek Center

"We won, we won," shouted the group which had just won the Heart Relay.

Other games played Tuesday afternoon in the McCulloh Homes Recreation Center included: Heart Hunt, Pass the Heart, Heart Puzzle and Hit the Heart.

The activities ("fun, refreshments and games," a poster said) were part of the Bureau of Recreation's "Valentine Party" for about 50 youngsters in the McCulloh Homes Area.

Sharon Felming, 11, 468 Watty Ct., had just led her team of 5 to 13-year-olds to first place in the Heart Relay, a traverse course around paper hearts spread on the floor.

She said she liked the party "fine."

Not so happy with his showing in the games, but having a good time, was Derrick Crawford, six, who said he lives "over there."

Derrick said they played a game called "try-to-find-the-hearts. Only I didn't find any. I was way in the back somewhere."

THE GAMES' prizes, which went quickly, were valentine candy.

The races were speedy, but the action really started when the records were put on and the youngsters started a dance called "freeze."

A little six-year-old, who gave her name only as Paula, said she was waiting "for the refreshments."

They included cookies, valentine candy and an appropriately red grape punch.

Miss Audrey Pollard, recreatiln director at the center, supervised the two-hour party with her Neighborhood Youth Corps assistants, Paulette Gregory, 16, and Lorraine Cooper, 17.

Lou Donaldson here Sunday

Sunday, February 19, will mark the first 1967 appearance of Alto Saxophonist Lou Donaldson and his trio in the Baltimore area.

This Sunday's concert from 4 to 8 p.m., is another in the current series of weekly presentations and will be held at the Famous Ballroom on N. Charles St.

Known affectionately as "Possum Head" Lou has now been a solid influence on the National Jazz scene for fifteen years. Although excelling in mainstream Blues (often strongly Gospel-flavored) his readings of beautiful ballads are incomparable.

Long-time sideman Bill Hardman will be featured on trumpet.

Unique display on exhibition at School 97

There is a unique display in the second grade wing of the Collington Square Elementary School No. 97.

An exhibit of African handwork, utensils, tools and musical instruments and a selection of wood carvings are being displayed in connection with the school's study of Africa.

The collection was loaned to the school by a group of Baltimore parents.

Miss Pat Davis, one of the teachers at the school, said the exhibit is part of an effort to help colored children understand their heritage.

A team of five teachers and classes will work on the unit, each developing a different phase of background which they will share with the group.

Insurance course

William H. Proctor, 3502 Denison Rd., local representative for Mutual of Omaha and United of Omaha, has recently completed the comprehensive insurance course offered at the National Sales Training School session in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Proctor is associated with the Kenneth N. Brown Agency, Suit 314, Tower Bldg. 6 Martin Feb. 16 L.C. 9 pt.

Gadabouting

For those of you who haven't seen this show, you'll love the costumes, the unique revolving changes of scenes. . .and again the costumes of the men in the latest English Mod styles. Of course. . .the costumes of the actresses were designed with such flair. . .you could see little bells ringing in the audience as they planned to adopt these English fashions to down—home Maryland.

After the theatre the group was entertained at dinner and cards at the Charles Browns' with hubby Charles and Warren Weaver lending a hand on the sippables.

Club members about were Eula Watkins, Lillian Bell, Iris Mapp, Florence Ringgold, Irma Dancy, Milburn Brown, Helen Cothorn, Evelyn West, Ida Smith, Frances Ashby and Bea Nixon.

Special guest was Betty Edwards of D.C. sister of Dot, who is with the State Department and recently completed a tour of duty in Belgrade, with other duties in Ethiopia. She was sporting a leopard coat with matching hat.

Other guests were Amy Weaver, Mabel Denkins, Dot Wood, Hermione Weaver, Ruth Jennifer.

MARGARET HYTHE entertained the We Wives as the group took a breather after their recent dance. Prexy Joe Brown started the group on preparing for the Maryland League Luncheon with Verniece Reynolds as delegate.

Being Valentine's Day, Margaret served up a special chicken casserole with heart shaped ice-cream.

DATE DATA: Tonight (Friday) you will probably go dancing with Alpha Phi Alpha at Blue Crest, North, or Mardi Gras-ing with Omega Psi Phi at East Wind. It is the evening the A-Phi-A's pay special court to their wives and sweethearts.

And the Omegas, quoting Don Quixote "The bow cannot always stand bent, nor can human frailty subsist without lawful recreation", let their hair down at an evening of music, gay costumes, dancing and delectable food and drink with friends.

Or you just may be having a ball with the Ashburton Family Group which will be having a "Go-Go" party at the Park Terrace.

The group was entertained by their new member, Gloria King of Ellamont Road, last Thursday evening.

At the session were Shirley Hargrove, Norma Maiden, Ardelle Jeudy, Robbie Chissell, Miriam Brown, Millie Hall, Joan Scott; Ada Woodland, Carolyn Chissell, and Lillian Jones.

The Women's City-Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention has scheduled their 23rd annual Blue Ribbon Tea for March 5th. The tea will be in Dunbar High School auditorium and will have Dr. Furman Templeton as speaker.

The Maryland State Beauty Shop Owners Association will bring out those crazy as a Mad Hatters Luncheon at East Wind on March 27th.

And the Baltimore chapter of Epicureans are currently involved in plans for the national conclave which will be held here in May.

Theme for the conclave will be "Space Ship for Progress," and they are arranging a worthwhile program around that . . . but too, they are planning what the president, Gwendolyn Parker, terms a "blast of parties."

In the mail, too, has come the bid to the wedding of La Verne France Lockwood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William V. Lockwood, and Roland Douglass Brooks. The ceremony will take place at two in the afternoon in the Douglas Memorial Community Church.

Apex Alumni name officers

Miss Doris Johnson has been elected president of the newly reactivated Apex Beauty and Barber College Alumni.

Other officers named were:

Miss Savannah Di Rivera, vice president; Etta Johnson secretary; Baldwin Sutton, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Woodland, secretary; Wenzell Carter, business manager; and Mrs. Bertha Wright, chaplain.

MEMBERS of the group also include:

League offers study on China

A 50-page booklet entitled "The China Puzzle" has just been published by the U.S. League of Women Voters.

It is available at the League's city office, Sutton Pl., 1111 Park Ave., for 75 cents.

The study begins with a presentation of Mainland China's geography, its 700 plus million people, her ancient heritage, her contacts with the West beginning with the 16th century and her Nationalist and Communist Revolutions.

Concluding chapters deal with the evolution of U.S. relations with both Mainland China and Nationalist China on Taiwan.

Finally, there is an analysis of the policy-choices facing the U.S. with regard to

DHS class of '38 pays $500 pledge

The Douglas High School February class of 1938, Douglass High School paid off a $500 pledge to the Provident Hospital Development Fund last week.

The initial payment was made on February 21, 1965, when a check was presented to Messrs. John Ward and Charles G. Tildon (of the Development Fund), at the Holiday Inn, following a swank fashion show and luncheon meeting.

Class officers are: Mrs. Valerie P. White, chairman; Philip Holly, vice chairman; Mrs. Serena G. Mann, secretary; and Mrs. Lillian Lewis, treasurer.

Short wash for plastics

Washable plastic sheeting used for curtains, equipment and furniture covers, bags for storage of sweaters, shoes and such will benefit from a short wash in the washer say USDA's electrification specialists.

Some of the printed designs may not be color fast. Test for fading on an inconspicuous area. Use full-strength liquid detergent on a white cloth wrung out of hot water. If any color comes off on the cloth wiped over the printed film it is best not to wash but just dust and sponge it clean.

FOR FADE resistant, washable plastics a short wash in warm water with a small amount of detergent is suggested by the experts. Place small items in a mesh bag to make them easy to remove from the tub and to keep them from getting sucked into the pump or drain pipe which presents problems.

Use slow agitation for 2 to 3 minutes and slow spin speed if your washer has these short automatic cycles, otherwise advance the control dial to shorten the wash, rinse and spin cycles to a minute or two.

we care A&P

Caring about you is just plain good business

Without you, we don't have any business.

So, if we want to continue to be successful, as we have been for more than 100 years, we better CARE ABOUT YOU.

We better care about how we serve you, about what we serve you, about being fair, honest, and dependable.

When you get right down to it, you're the boss at A&P. And it's always good business to be good to the boss.

Not every store feels this way. A&P does!

Shouldn't A&P be your store.
