Gaines faces speedy field in All-Eastern

Bills Gaines, the sensational New Jersey school-boy, will defend his 60-yard sprint title February 25, in the All - Eastern Invitational Indoor games at the Baltimore Civic Center where eh got his start a year ago.

Gaines was an unknown 17 - year - old Mullica Hill (N.J.) high school sophomore when he appeared here last year. He was a provisional starter in the 60 and only earned his berth when other, more established runners dropped out.

The 5 - 6, 145 - pounder got through his trial heat and then startled onlookers with a blazing final in six seconds flat, an All-Eastern record. The race projected Gaines into the limelight and it is the reason he is passing up the Jersey indoor high school championships in order to defend here.

GAINES HAS won twice during the current indoor campaign, the Mass. K of C 50 in 5.2 and the U.S. Track and Field Federation 60 - yard championship in 6.1. H ealso finished second behind Charlie Greene in the Millrose 60 and third behind Jim Hines and George Anderson in Albuquerque where all three were timed in 6.0

Among Gaines' opponents here will be Mel Pender, of Fort Samn Houston, the winner of the NAIA Open 60 and Boston AA 50; Jim Stewart, of the Quantico Marines; Johnny Moon, Linden, N. J. and Morgan State's Fred Hunter.

YOU'RE NEXT—Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay shakes hands with Zora Folley and labels him as "next" following signing of contracts for heavyweight title fight at Madison Square Garden, March 22. It will be the champion's seventh defense in a little more than a year, Folley's first chance at the crown.

Clay vs. Folley in NYC March 22

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cassius Clay will defend his heavyweight title for the seventh time in little more than a year against wily, veteran Zora Folley, March 22, at Madison Square Garden.

Folley, a 34 - year - old father of eight, knocked around as a professional pugilist for 14 years without getting a chance at the coveted crown. Since 1956, he has been ranked among the top 10 of his division most of the time, and Clay promised him a title shot "because he's never had one."

ALTHOUGH Folley is the oldest contender to face Clay, he has a vast reservoir of boxing knowledge or, which to draw and is considered one of the craftiest heavyweights around.

However, the loquacious Clay will carry most of the advantages into the ring with a nine - year difference in age, three inches in height at 6 - foot - 3 and a great deal more speed.

During the past year, Folley has rested on his laurels, meeting only mediocre opponents while Clay waded through most of the other prominent challengers. Folley has a record of 71 victories against seven losses and four draws.

AGAINST mutual opponents, the undefeated Clay, with a record of 28 consecutive victories, has fared much better than Folley. Three of the five fighters that knocked out the contender from Chandler, Ariz., have been defeated by Clay.

But Folley also has an impressive array of victories over the likes of Nino Valdes, Eddie Machen, Henry Cooper, Doug Jones, Wayne Bethea, George Chuvalo, Billy Daniels, Alex Miteff and Willi Besmanoff.

It will be the first heavyweight title fight in the Garden since Ezzard Charles knocked out Lee Oma in the 10th round Jan. 12, 1951, and the first in New York City since Floyd Patterson regained his title from Ingemar Johansson June 20, 1960.

Clay appears free for year

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cassius Clay will have at least a year to pursue his ring career before he has to worry about being drafted, the heavyweight champion's lawyer said Thursday.

"We're not looking for time, we're looking for justice," Hayden Covington said. "If the courts finally have to decide, it will take at least a year."

After having two appeals rejected by his hometown Louisville draft board, Clay started a new series of legal maneuvers before the Houston board claiming that he was under its jurisdiction because the city is now his principal place of employment.

THE HOUSTON board said Wednesday that it had come to a decision on Clay's appeal that he is a conscientious objector because of his Black Muslim religious beliefs.

The champion's next resort is the courts, where Covington predicts a long battle. At any rate, Clay probably will not have any problems as far as the draft board is concerned in fulfilling his promise to defend his title five more times this year, including a defense on March 22 against Zora Folley.

AAU blasted for stars' ban

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Walter Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), Wednesday blasted the rival Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) and said it was entrapping itself in its own deceitful devices.

Byers told reporters at a news conference that foreign-born student-athletes who were declared ineligible by the AAU are eligible for all track and field competition of NCAA colleges.

* * *

BYERS CHARGED the foreign - born athletes were "deliberately attacked by the AAU merely as a device to circumvent the authority of the U.S. Senate track and field moratorium."

Old Taylor Presents: Ingenious Americans

#6 in a series

Matthew Alexander Henson (1866-1955)

The first man to set foot on the top of the world.

The signs of a true adventurer showed up early in the life of Matthew Henson. At the ripe old age of thirteen, Henson shipped out as cabin boy on a schooner bound for China.

When he returned to Washington, D.C., he met the man who helped make him famous. The then Lt. Robert E. Peary discovered Matt Henson working in a Washington hat shop. Peary was immediately impressed by Henson, and he invited the young man to join a canal-surveying expedition to Nicaragua. Henson accepted.

Under Peary's tutelage, Matt Henson became an able navigator, adept at calculating distances and plotting charts. A short time later, Peary began his renowned arctic expeditions to locate the North Pole, and Henson accompanied the admiral on all seven trips.

On the final trip, Peary lay drained from exhaustion and crippled by frostbite. Someone had to make the last dash to the Pole, and fast, since a number of nations were vying for the claim.

Matt Henson was the man. Trudging the last painful miles, recording observations and calculating a true course, Matthew Alexander Henson became the first man to locate and stand on the North Pole. Peary arrived forty-five minutes later, and, together, the men planted the American flag.

No longer was Matt Henson an obscure adventurer. He was given a Congressional Medal, life membership in the Explorers' Club, a commendation from the President, a Master of Science degree by Morgan State College, and numerous medals and plaques from civic organizations.

April 6, 1959, the 50th anniversary of the discovery of the North Pole, was proclaimed by the governor of Maryland as Matthew Alexander Henson Day. Fitting tribute to the first man ever to stand on the top of the world.

Argentine champ to train in D.C.

WASHINGTON

Andres Selpa, South American light heavyweight and former middleweight champion, is coming in here directly from Buenas Aires, Argentina, to oppose Bob Foster, respected local boy, in a battle of ranking 175-pounders.

The bout will headline promoter Paul Woodard's next boxing show at the Washington Coliseum, Feb. 27.

Matchmaker Angelo Pucci, frustrated in his efforts to sign an outstanding contender willing to box Foster in this country, landed Selpa after weeks of negotiation to oppose Bob over a scheduled 10-round distance.

* * *

SELPA, WHO has been boxing professionally since 1951 and is a fighting 35-year old, is to report to Washington Sunday, and will inaugurate a series of workouts locally at a gymnasium site to be announced. Workouts begin Monday.

Foster, meanwhile is in condition at Summit, N.J. where he likes the training facilities and sparring partners.

Both Selpa and Foster were numbered among Ring magazines's leading light-heavyweight contenders in 1966 when, the Argentina was conceded No. 6 and Foster No. 8.

* * *

THEY ALSO are highly regarded in the March issue of Ring. Group No. 1 in the ring's rating of 175-pounders lists Dick Tiger, the Jose Torres, Roger Rouse and Eddie Cotton in that order.

However, Selpa is ranked third and Foster fifth in Group 2, and both are roundly respected as punchers and well rounded fighters.

Selpa has participated in a total of 183 bouts as a pro and had won 113 of these, 68 via knockout, while boxing 25 draws. He has had one "no decision" and another "no contest" fight, and has lost 43 times.

* * *

HE CONTINUED to qualify as a fighting man in 1966 when he won five of six fights, and made a successful 12-round defense of his South American light-heavyweight title.

Foster does not approach Selpa in experience but is a powerful two fisted puncher, who has knocked out 18 of the 23 opponents he has defeated in 27 professional engagements.

Pucci said that he opened, and finally closed, negotiations for Selpa after top contenders of Foster's weight had refused to negotiate to box him here.

"I am going out and bring in top opposition for Bob, and if I have to go out of the country to get it, I will do it," Angelo says.

7 selected on 10-man NBA All-America squad

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lew Alcindor, the nation's best pivotman, and Jimmy Walker, labeled the best all-around college player in the country, have been named as unanimous selections to the National Basketball Association coaches All-America team.

Westley Unseld of Louisville, and Houston's Elvin Hayes were named on seven out of 10 ballots and Rutgers' Bobby Lloyd beat out Duke's Bob Verga for the other guard spot.

Colored players swept seven of the ten selections.

* * *

ALCINDOR IS the only sophomore on the team but there is no question about the credentials of the 7 - foot - 1 phenom from UCLA.

Walker, the playmaker from Providence, was called "the best all - around player in the country" by one NBA coach. "He's a miniature Oscar Robertson. He does everything well. Visualize an Oscar, only two inches shorter, and you have got this boy tabbed."

Unseld and Hayes are both junior pivotmen but were named as forwards because Alcindor has the pivot position nailed down.

Lloyd set a record of making 60 straight free throws this season while winning the other guard spot alongside Walker.

The second team has Verga and Butch Beard of Louisville at the guards, Mel Daniels of New Mexico at center and Clem Haskins and Sonny Dove of St. John's at the forwards.

June rematch with Clay in Floyd's comeback plan

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson knocked out an obviously awed Willie Johnson midway through the third round of a 10-round event here Monday night.

Patterson, the only heavyweight ever to regain the title, now has a record of 45 victories and five defeats. For Johnson, 24, it was his 11th defeat against 12 wins.

* * *

THE FORMER champion went into the ring the heaviest of his career at a quarter - pound past the 200 mark.

Johnson was out for about a minute after the count. He said he was allright after he recovered.

Johnson, who went into the ring at 183½, was matched with Patterson after ex - champion's representative, Al Bolan, contracted for "anything."

MONDAY night's fight was Patterson's first since he knocked out Henry Cooper in four rounds last September.

Bolan said Patterson will fight at least twice more before another attempt to take the title from Cassius Clay.

According to Bolan, Clay and Patterson will meet in June in Sweden.

Douglass stamp

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A new 25-cent postage stamp was issued Tuesday honoring Frederick Douglass, who rose from bondage to become publisher of one of the north's leading abolitionist newspapers.

The stamp honoring Douglass, who published the Rochester, N.Y. North Star, was the eighth in a series honoring distinguished Americans. Douglass also served as U.S. ffminister to Haiti and a U.S. Marshal in the District of Columbia.

While records are not entirely clear, February is believed to be the month of his birth.

Fairmont battles for third place

Eliminated from the torn Prince Georges County "ABC" race, defending champion Fairmont Heights will be more interested in holding on to third place.

The Hornets are tied with Sasscer for that spot. Both squads have 8-3 records. Tied for first are Surratsville and Central, with 9-2 league showings.

Fairmont finishes its season against Laurel, Gwynn Park and Potomac. The Hornets also have a non-league scrap with Bladensburg.

About the title bout —many things stink

By BERNARD GARNETT

There was enough appalling mess coming out of last week's heavyweight championship fight, between Muhammad Ali and Ernie Terrell, to stink up the Astrodome. But not what you might have been led to believe.

First of all, the way most of the white press has reacted to the fight has been thoroughly disgusting. Some have seen All fouls that the films could not bear out.

Others have made a big joke of refusing to address the heavyweight champion by his Muslim name, simply becau s he is a staunch Muslim. Otherwise knowledgable writers have agreed with current refrunals to recognize Muhammad Ali as fighter of the year.

* * *

THE SPORTS Beat will never call Muhammad Ali the greatest prize fighter of all time. But he is the best out there today, until some one comes along who is greater.

It matters not what the champion's religion is, what his beliefs in the draft or Vietnam are or by what name he wishes to be addressed. He is the champion, no matter who likes it.

The news media have a moral obligation to print the truth to the public, no matter how appalling to the reporter.

BUT THE racists do not see it that way. They think Muhammad Ali . . . or Cassius Clay . . . or whatever one may call him . . . should get the same distorted coverage Rep. Adam Clayton Powell has been given.

One of the first lessons a journalism student learns is to be objective, whether he likes it or not. Apparently, many segregationist newsmen skipped that lesson.

And how about the World Boxing Association's refusal to pick a pug of the year, rather than honor the rightful fighter, Ali?

This is the same WBA that hid its head in the ground for all the time the current champion was recognized everywhere else. Forgive them; they know not what they do.

TERRELL'S CLAIMING he was fouled, especially after the many dirty punches he threw, is strictly from bush league. But so were the champion's taunts and hogging the mike from Howard Cossell, after the bout was over.

But none of the aforementioned things were the most disgusting about the fight. They way the local closed circuit TV fans were treated was, by far, the rottenest aspect of the whole business.

This writer witnessed deplorable treatment of paying customers at the Washington Hilton and was told of similar atrocities at the D.C. Armory.

Then, a scribe from one of the dailies revealed he saw some of the same lack of business acumen at the Sherator-Park Hotel, where he witnessed the 15-round battle.

IT IS clear that if local promoters don't learn how to treat their patrons, they will kill interest in closed circuit telecasting more effectively than a poor crop of fighters possibly can.

One more thing on the heavyweight champion. After former champion Floyd Patterson disposed of a mediocre pug in three rounds, the other night, he discussed future plans.

Davidson College (NC) frat pledges cager

DAVIDSON, N.C. (UPI) — Freshman basketball player Mike Maloy has become a pledge of Sigma Chi—the first colored student to break into Davidson College's all-white fraternity system.

Maloy, an 18-year-old 6-7 player from Queens, N.Y., pledged Sigma Chi over two other fraternities that offered him membership.

Maloy was Davidson's leading freshman scorer and rebounder until he broke his hand in a fall last week and was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

The 1,000-member student body has only one other colored freshman and he did not participate in fraternity rushing.

The Presbyterian school has a total of seven tan students.
