WHEN CHARLOTTE SUZANNE BRACY (Cherie) celebrated her 12th birthday, Saturday, twas of course a Valentine motif that predominated . . . and not only because of the date, but the honoree was born one-hour after Valentine Day, and is still thought of by her family as their "Valestine Girl."

The party started at 5 p.m. and was to have been over at 9 p.m. But the children were having such a good time that their parents had a hard time dragging them away. They played games and danced.

Jo-Ann Irby took the prize as best dancer. In fact the boys who asked Jo-Ann to dance say down very quietly as she swing int her number. They just couldn't keep up with her.

The girls and boys, both, were beautifully dressed. Kim Pinkney looked quite haute couture in a green linen drew with sleeves and hemline trimmed in yellow and blue.

Norma Williams wore a pretty silk quilted two-piece powder blue outfit with low waistline and shot-sleeve over jacket.

Linda Batts chose an orange and yellow flowered dress, belted with black velvet and with the short cuffed sleeves interlaced with black velvet ribbons.

Deleda Johnson had the entire front of her green silk frock trimmed in white lace.

Janet Kelly was chic in a green suit with pink and white trim and catching pink blouse.

A navy frock with white organdy trim, spiced with a red belt was the choice of Reba Garruth. Charlotte's big sister, Jo-Ann Starks, was modeling a striking red and white maternity frock (Baby is expected in April) with the Valentine motif still in mind.

And the hostess, Cherie, chose a black and white pop art check with long sleeves and gold buttons. Jill James also chose a black and white pop art check enhanced with a high white "nun's" collar and white starched cuffs.

The children snacked on goodies while in the clubroom, then dined on a full course dinner and drank oceans of punch.

You would think they could not have eaten anymore, but when the candles were lit on one of her two cakes the children ate as if cake and ice cream were going out of style.

Jackie Robinson was around taking movies of the affair. Adults about included Godfather and Godmother Daniel and Vyna Skinner; Lester Hudgins, Sr., Jo-Ann and Rodney Starks, Freeman and Loma Robinson and of-course, Mom and Dad, Eleanor and Joe Bracy.

And her friends who were not at this party, Charlotte rounded up next day for a second party.

Her guests included:

Norma Williams, Jackie Robinson, Lester Hudgins, Kim Pinckney, Linda Batts, Delmeda Johnson, Janet Kelly, Reba Garruth, Jill James, Lefawn Jackson.

Denise Little, Rosalyn Briscoe, Jo-Ann Irby, Charles Brown, Arthur Johnson, Derek Brown, Vanessa Porterfield, Karen Weddington.

Clarence Young, Steven McCrae, Patricia Johnson, Herbert Hastie, Rene Madden, Michael Seay, Dwan Williams, Daniel Smith.

Darrell Taylor, Vincent Adams, Diane Dixon, Elaine Hill, Myra Freeland, Jeffries Tartar, Gloria Gadsen, Karla Quarles and Anthony Douglas.

LAMBDA KAPP MU, sorors are wrapping up plans for celebration of Lambda Kappa Mu Week, March 12-18. Plans include morning worship at Ebenezer Baptist Church on the 12th and a public meeting at the Madison Avenue YWCA which will include a youth symposium.

Following the business session, a belated citation went to Senator Verda F. Welcome, who spoke briefly of her appreciation and of her responsibilities as a State senator. The Senator was one of three women to whom citations were scheduled at the Founder's Day luncheon. She was unable to be present at that time.

Brotherhood Week was observed by the sorors with a program which featured Dr. Eugene D. Byrd, who discussed Bahai World Faith and its correlation with brotherly love.

Attending the meeting were:

Sorors Imogene B. Douglass, Almarie Wedley, Josephine Maxwell, Fannie Ewell, Gladys Baird, Marguerite Wilkins.

Sorors Martha E. Snowden, Louise G. Turks, Veta Grieg, Doris J. White, Geraldine L. Smith,

Harvey Polston marks his 34th

What began last week as a private birthday party for Harvey Poston Jr. at the Sphinx Club turned into a "hi neighbor" fiesta in which the Morgan State College graduate and electronic engineer was greeted by friends, neighbors, and relatives. Mr. Polston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Polston Sr., is a shipping manager with the Eastern Stainless Steel Company. A member of the Class of '65, he marked his 34th birthday.

The honoree, who lives at 1013 Augusta Ave., threw the "private" label off the party and a packed house, put in the proper frame of reference by the Fuzzy Kane Trio, had a ball.

"Our Man Prince," and T. J. Osby, who have the Midas touch with food, served the party.

Harvey's brother, Army Capt. Kenneth, and madhatter Wayne formed the greeting committee.

Other relatives include:

Warren, Michael, Kevin, brothers, Misses Michelle and Betty, sisters.

AMONG FRIENDS throwing "wishing you many more" were:

William Washington, head man at the Sphinx in the absence of No. 1 man Charles P. Tilghman; Joseph Campbell, Donald Rigsby, Walter Dubley, Madison Walker, James (Skimy) Dvemon, Linwood Johnson, William (Rusty) Smothers, Herb Chase were faces seen in the wall-to-wall crowd.

Also Mrs. Hilda Thomas, Anna M. Jones, Gwendolyn Watson, Geneva Juggins, Hattie Faulk; Misses Kitty Dean, Lucinda Wallace, Rose Bartz, Delores Mabry, Helen Lillard and Anna Grines.
