Dubois Circle takes up 'Youth in Government'

"Youth in Government" describes both the topic and the speakers for the February dinner meeting of the Dubois Circle, held Tuesday at the Madison YWCA.

The topic was explored by two youthful State legislators, Sen. Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd, and Del. Nancy B. Burkheimer, Cecil County Democrat.

Mrs. Burkheimer, reelected for a second term in the House, had the distinction of being the youngest elected state legislator in the nation. She was 22 when she was elected to her first term in 1962.

Both lawmakers are included in the number of so-called "shiny brights" of the newly-apportioned Maryland General Assembly.

Likewise, both expressed to members of the DuBois Circle, their regrets over the defeat of a bill which would have given voting rights to 18-year-olds.

"Maybe when the Constitution is re-written. . .," Del. Burkheimer said.

"The 18-year-olds carry their weight, pay taxes, go to war, do their share. Never before have youths that age been so well educated and so intelligent."

SHE SPOKE of a "tremendous change in the Legislature. . .for the better."

Mrs. Burkheimer told the group, 'Metro areas now have quantity (in the assembly). Please send us quality. Then I know we small counties will get a fair shake."

Sen. Mitchell told the members and guests: "Opportunity for young people to serve in government is now better than ever before.

"PEOPLE say 18-year-olds are not responsible. I say they are.

"Why, I remember—at the age of 14—knocking on doors to get votes for our first State senator.

"We can't expect to think as in the horse-and-buggy days and exist in the space age".

Mitchell said more young people are interested and involved in government because of the inspiration of a young President, John F. Kennedy.

"We must see that our young people do become involved," the senator added.

Mrs. Emma Bright, chairman of the DuBois Program Committee, told their guests:

"Our group is sixty-one years old and we are constantly thinking in terms of youth."

PRESIDENT of the Circle is Mrs. Kelly Jackson. Other officers include Mrs. Carl Murphy, vice president; Miss Edna Brown, recording secretary; Miss Elizabeth Carr, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Myers, treasurer; and Mrs. Abdella Campbell, historian.

The youth theme will be continued at the Circle's March 21 meeting.

Then, a student panel will discuss the "Philosophical Observations of Youth," moderated by Dr. Richard McKinney, of Morgan State College.

Surprise birthday party on Puget St.

By WALTER W. E. HILL SR.

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Gladys Gantt by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Blocker of 2407 Puget St. The settings were pink and white with a pink rose handywork of Mrs. Blocker, read "Happy Birthday Gladys" as it rotated on a brass plate.

Attending were Miss Lucy Hammond, Mrs. Beatrice Sidney, Frank Bryant and Raymond Sidney. A very fabulous affair to behold.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of the late Walter Riddick of 723 Ramsey St.

Our get-well wishes are extended to Mrs. Willie Mae Jones, 2406 Huron St., assistant treasurer of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group.

FRANK BRYANT was presented in recital Sunday at Ebenezer AME Church. Mrs. Mildred Butcher, organist and chairman of Woman's Day, was sponsor.

Sympathy is extended to George R. Smith in the death of his wife Lewessie, a former resident of this area.

The Rev. Stewart Turner, choir and congregation of First Baptist Church, presented a program for Mrs. Mable Fletcher, chairman of Woman's Day, at Star of Bethlehem AME Church on Sunday.

Attending were the guests at each setting.

Each couple attending received a present, the ladies—a potted plant, and the men—an Irish linen handkerchief.

The birthday cake, with the bud vase at each setting.

Lauretta Young wins

By ADAH K. JENKINS

Lauretta Dorsey Young, Baltimore soprano, came through with top honors in the regional Metropolitan Opera auditions held last week at the National Art Gallery in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Young, accompanied by Maurice Adams, sang Handel's "Care Selve" and an aria from Puccini's "La Rondine."

Second and third places in the regional test were captured by Joseph Iardo, a student of Top Duncan and Paulette Schmidt.

Lauretta, who is an alumnus of St. Frances Academy, Forrest and Chase Sts., after completing her studies in the Peabody Preparatory Department, graduated from the Conservatory in 1963 with a bachelor degree in music education and voice. She was under the vocal tutelage of Mme. Alice Duschak, also teacher of Miss Schmidt, who is a Peabody senior.

Mr. Adams is a Peabody alumnus and, like Miss Dorsey, is teaching in the Washington public schools.

HAVING WON the first prize of $300, Miss Dorsey will compete in the semi-finals in New York later this season. The winners will then be given six months instruction by the Met to prepare for the finals.

Three other Peabody students with Mme. Duschak at the Peabody, reached the regional semi-finals in Washington were Tebbie Stewart, Carol Cannon and Phyllis Harris.

A&P

Guess Who The Boss Is At Your A&P

It's you!
Think about it. It makes sense.
All of us from the President on down work for you.
Frankly, where would we be without you and the many people like you?
We know. We'd still be in that little store on Vesey Street where we started more than 100 years ago.
That's why you're important. That's why we care so much about how we serve you . . . about being fair, honest and dependable.
Is this kind of attitude a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.
