St, Marks church sets concert by Va, Union choir

The famed Virginia Union University concert choir, directed by Odell Hobbs, will appear here Thursday, March 9, in the St. Marks Institutional Baptist Church, Bentalou and Lanvale.

Hobbs, like his singers, has achieved acclaim in the music world and in May, 1965, his choir from Langston University was selected to represent Oklahoma at the Worlds Fair in New York.

Blanket appeal

One blanket per family is being solicited in Maryland in a State-wide clothing collection by Church World Service through the Maryland Council of Churches. The special Blanket Appeal is planned for Sunday, March 5, in the churches of the area.

Blankets are one of the most important items of material aid used in the overseas programs in more than 30 areas. Blankets form a cover at night, are often the bed, serve as the outer garments and in many areas, are used by refugees as the entire wardrobe.

Church members and interested persons in the community are asked to take a "Blanket and a Quarter" (25 cents to cover the cost of processing for shipment) to Church Sunday, March 5.

Sewing classes

Social Security moving second section to city

This weekend, the National Employee Index Branch of the Bureau of Data Processing and Accounts will move from the Social Security Building in Woodlawn to the sixth and seventh floors of the Paca-Pratt Building.

The Branch now occupies approximately 30,000 square feet. In the new offices, the entire sixth floor and one-half of the seventh will be occupied (approximately 3,200 square feet).

SSA's own labor force did such a fine job moving the Correspondence and typing section in early February, that they have been assigned this moving task also.

Only 297 of the 318 people in the Branch will be moving downtown. The other 19 are "hardship cases" (i.e. employees who live close to the Building and are caring for aged or disabled dependents, etc.)

Many employees want to move downtown and some from other branches have asked for transfers to NEIB so that they might make the move.

Bill would aid Morgan program

ANNAPOLIS — An extension of time will be given for the proposed construction of a wing to the Military Science Building at Morgan State College, if a bill placed before the House Wednesday is passed by this General Assembly.

The bill proposes an extension of two years from June 1 for placing the work under contract.

This is a continuation of a 1965 Assembly enabling Act which granted $150,000 for the addition to the building, to provide a rifle range.

The same HB 904, sponsored by Del. William M. Houck (D. Frederick) would also grant a two-year extension to the University of Maryland's Baltimore County campus for a new science laboratory.

Two bills move up, Welcome hits Malkus

By MAX JOHNSON

ANNAPOLIS — Following nearly a week of delaying tactics by Sen. Frederick C. Malkus Jr. (D. Dorchester-Summerset - Wicomico - Worcester), the Senate Thursday passed two interracial commission bills to a third reader, and help up another for more ammendments.

Sen. Malkus' delaying actions have so aroused Sen. Verda F. Welcome (D. 4th Balto.), she openly accused him on the Senate floor Wednesday of trying to hamper the commission's work, and then issued a statement following up her charges.

The two bills moved up to a final senate reading expected to come possibly Tuesday are:

SB 112, which would require that the Commission make disclosures on demands of its investigations to a governmental agency and/or legislative body.

SB121, which would make it unlawful for an employer to intimidate or render any act of reprisal against an employee because of a complaint to the commission of unfair labor practices.

The bill as presently written provides a fine of from $25 to $500 for each offense.

• • •

THE THIRD bill held for future ammendments is SB 122 which asked that contractors doing business with state agencies be cleared first by the interracial commission as to whether they practice discrimination in their employment.

Sen. Welcome, a sponsor of the three bills, has been enfuriated with Sen. Malkus' delaying of movement of the bills and his charges that the interracial commission as to whether they practice discrimination in their employment.

"Sen. Malkus is presently persuing the same attitudes, term nology and vindictiveness on the Senate floor as he used as former chairman of the Judicial Proceedings Committee involving all civil rights legislation.

"Senator Malkus continues to attack the state interracial commission, rather than the issue to be discussed.

2 bills seek fighter law

ANNAPOLIS—Two measures designed to curb offenses on school grounds and in school buildings and restrict loitering were among the last minute batch of bills that flooded the General Assembly last week.

The bill affecting schools and school properties would give the Baltimore Municipal Courts concurrent jurisdiction with the Juvenile Courts to try juveniles violating criminal codes on such premises

This means juveniles, under its provisions, would subject to the same penalty or penalties as an adult offender.

The second bill spells out that it would be unlawful for any one to loiter in front of public places, public buildings, places of amusement, pool halls, laundry-matics and street corners.

Fines of from $10 to $50 and / or up to a 30-day jail sentence are provided in the bill.

Both bills were introduced by Del. Calvin A. Douglass (D. 4th Balto.), a former police court magistrate
