

U. H. J. well being of a Country ; but also Our own thankful Sense of that Tenderness felt by your self on Occasion of the last Prorogation: We have had sufficient Reasons to be perswaded, you would not make Use of your Authority for any other than such good Purposes as might prevent the Continuance of a Misunderstanding between the Two houses, and contribute to the Prosperity of this Province; And we should leave Ourselves without Excuse, if we did not, at the same Time we own this your Generous Care, assure your Excellency, of persevering in our known Unwillingness to put your Excellency again under the like Necessity

Your Excellency has so plainly pointed out to us the Consequences, as well of a good Agreement, as of unnecessary Disputes, that we hope, by promoting the first, and avoiding the latter, we shall shew Ourselves really desirous of truly serving the Country; and of supporting your Excellencys candid Opinion of Our Intentions to ease the People, as much as may be, by all just and reasonable Means
