A Message from the Lower house by M<sup>r</sup> King and four Others

By the Lower house of Assembly 28 May 1737

May it Please Your Honours

As We cannot recede from Our former Opinion that the Sum of fifty pounds is a Sufficient Compliment to the Chief Justice of the Provincial Court; We find you will not Agree to, as being too Small; this Disagreem<sup>t</sup> Between the Two houses, makes it necessary in Our Opinion that the said Sum of fifty pounds to the Chief Justice should be struck out of the Journal of Accounts, and We having accordingly Struck out the Same do send back the Journall for Your Honours Concurrence
