CUTEST BRIDE-TO-BE of the nonce is lovely LaVerne Lockwood, whose wedding to Roland Brooks, will take place Saturday. She was as gay as a daffodil, last Saturday, when her godmother, Mrs. Royal Weaver, gave a shower for her in the Weavers' attractive Callaway Ave. home.

All of the Brooks ladies and those of her own family, as well as other friends came to ply her with beautiful lingerie.

The group admired the gifts, sipped champagne punch as well as the pink champagne, with the other party menu.

About were Miss Deanna Brooks, Mrs. Betty Brooks, Miss Shirley Branch, Miss Brenda Evans.

Miss Jill Brown, Miss Deborah Lockwood, Mrs. Thelma Mitchell, Mrs. Alfreda Queen, Mrs. Lula Mackay, Mrs. Elaine Brown, Mrs. Eva Brown, grandmother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Vernell Lockwood, her mother; and Mrs. David Wright, who designed the beautiful table setting and bridal decor.

Behind the scenes were Dr. Vernell Lockwood, who recorded the affair via camera, and Mr. Weaver, who kept the champagne corks a-popping.

rians are in Washington, where they were guests of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House in the early afternoon ... and of Dr. Jesse Colson at her Washington apartment, later.

ALPHA WIVES have gone to New York for their annual weekend on that town. This is the affair where they take a few invited friends, leaving their husbands, house-cared and children behind, and have fun just for themselves.

Fun began when they boarded their chartered bus this morning and pulled out of Mondawmin ... took on momentum at the party Vivian Sydnor, president of the chapter, held in her suite at the Taft Hotel. They have stopped there for the past eight years. Tomorrow (Saturday) they will shop, visit relatives, see shows and, I understand, hit a few night spots during the stay. Arnetta Hargrove is chairman of the New York trip.

When Alpha Wives work they work ... when they play, they play. The recently completed payment of a $5,000 pledge to the New Provident Hospital Development Plan, Tuesday evening they had an enthusiastic meeting hosted by Dot Harris. Blanche Hughes, Mildred Young and Frances Pennington.

Also attending were Vivian Sydnor, Ellen Johns, Mary Pitts, Arnetta Hargrove, Helen Fitzpatrick, Senora DeCosta, Sarah Elias, Otyce Froe, Shirley Swafford, Audrey Davis, Delores Sykes, Doris Reese, Rubye Walker and Catherine Adams.

The Big Sisters' Fancy Pants Luncheon at Forest Manor was hosted Saturday by Vivian Burnett, Mamie Greene, Madora James, Ida Nicholas, Bernice Watson, and Iris Wheadon.

The Big Sisters decided to share with the guest the talent and hobby of several of the members; hence Mary Robinson held every ear with a vocal selection of "Climb Every Mountain", while Bernice Watson slipped her creations on Gwendolyn, Connie and Madora.

Madora was oh so charming in the long white collar less, double - breated, imported wool evening coat over a sleeveless slim skirted apricot velveteen evening gown. Bernice modeled an eye catching emerald green peau de soie three-piece gown. The gown was side draped with slim pants that showed through as she walked. The gown could also be worn with a skirt to make another outfit.

Connie Johnson, who modeled a white brocade jump skirt with a zippered back and bellbottom pants, charmed them all with her lovely voice as she sang "Indian Love Song." Gwendolyn Conaway wore a floral jump suit and Shirley Gordon provided music.

After lunch, the guests were asked to model their fancy pants; and then play cards.

Fancy pants prizes went to — Doreva Stanley, Miriam Cook, and Connie Johnson.

Card prizes went to Glodine Adams, Cardrienne Griffin, and Lou Lockerman.

Other Big Sisters present were:

Glodine Adams, Imogene Douglas, Norma Felder, Bernita Fuller, Sarah Giles, Roberta Keets, Cathryn Parker, Gladys Parker, Ernestine Press, Mary Robinson, Phyllis Shamwell, Lilyan Salter, Grace Walker, Credella White, and Doris Wiggins.

Their guests were:

Mary Pitts, Miriam Cook, Pinchie Denkins, Joyce Blyther, Mildred Johnson, Beulah Plumrer, Clementine Hawkins, Gwendolyn Conway, Connie Johnson, Adrienne Watson, Shirley Gordon and Helen Gattis.

PAPER, PAINTS, and clay took new and interesting form when the five-to-six-year-olds of Jack and Jill of America met on Saturday, for an arts and crafts hour.

Ronald Watts of the Fathers' Auxiliary provided the leadership by showing the young artists how to make paper shakers, party favors, clay animals, and paper masks. Even the moms tried a few tricks and the finished products were hung along the walls of hostess Marie Mallory's recreation room.

Joining the group was Kim Leftwich whose mom, the former Jacqueline Robinson, and dad have returned from Tuskegee after a five-year stay to live in Baltimore again.

Tots present were Rochel and Clark Mallory, Cecelia Johnson, Allyson Hagan, Muriel Gates, Virginia Love, Barry Watson, Wendy Ghant, Eric Allor, Eugene and David Owens, David Watts, and Frederick Peck, Jr.

Mothers of the group anticipated an out-of-town trip for the deserving tots who gave instructional materials to the Head Start Program at Knox Presbyterian Church recently as a community action efforts.

THE SPOCKETTE Child Study Association had an interesting discussion meeting, with Dr. Ernest Brown as speaker. He talked on "Preparing Your Child for Hospitalization and Surgery."

Hostessing were Norma Griner, Cardrienne Griffin and Bettye Fitzgerald, at the home of the latter. TheSpockettes have recently welcomed four new members into the fold. They are Marie Bessicks, Peggy Brown, Juanita Morton and Shirley Robinson.

The new Spockettes added five little Spockettes to the group with ages ranging from 16 months to 10 years.

Many of the Spockettes children saw the play, "Thumberlina," at the Y West.

THE J.O.G.'s really turned it on, Friday, when they entertained their wives at cocktails, dinner and dancing in Forest Manor.

They had originally planned to take their wives out to dinner, but then decided that that was not enough for such "Good Gals," expanded the plans until they had a full scale party: Lionel Jiggetts and his orchestra, food par excellence, plentiful sippables and lovely people.
