

Liber
P. C. R.

12th Aug. 1661

Humphrey Attwicks aged forty yeares or thereabouts Sworne and examined vpon his oathe Sayth That aboute foure or five yeares agoe this depon^t being desired to demand a bill of M^{rs} Cager by this depon^{ts} Sister in Lawe Anne Hungerford Widd she the said M^{rs} Cager replied to this depon^t that there was some Recconing betweene the said Vincent Atchison and her husband And this depon^t further sayth that being . . . with M^{rs} Cager he did looke in a bagg and could not finde itt and this depon^t retourned back to the said . . . that was Thomas Bushells . . . M^{rs} Cager could not finde the bill but the said Vincent demanded of this depon^t whether M^{rs} Cager looked for this Bill in a long bagg or not And this depon^t answered Vincent yea she did but beleiued that she did not knowe the bill, but Vincent replied a Pox on her for she counted her bills over oftner then she sayd her prayers And further this depon^t sayth that Vincent went away in a Rayge to the howse of M^r Cager and swore he would fetch the bill or fyre the howse and did Retourne and bring the bill And further Sayth not

p. 482

This Deposicōn was taken before me Will^m D Marshall his marke

The p^t Sueth for tenn pounds Sterling according to a Bill produced, which vpon Readeing the Obligacōn was Confest: But the def^t in discharge thereof pleades that the said Vincent vndertooke to pay one thousand weight of tobacco for a Servant bought by William Hungerforde of the def^t for which the def^t had William Hungerfords bill; The p^t Replies that he has satisfiied the said bill and that the said bill was deliuered him by the def^t which was alsoe acknowledged by the def^t The Judgement of the Board is that the def^t pay vnto the p^t the said tenn pounds Sterling with Costs of Suite

Public
Accounts

It is ordered that all persons that can demand any thing from the Publique that they bring in their Accompts to morrow before the Courte rises

The Courte Adjournes whilst to morrow morning tenn of the Clock.

Oct. 9
Attorney
General v.
Jenkins

Wednesday the ninth of October Present all

John Jenkins and William Fuller come forth and appeare to answeere vnto such thinges as shall be objected ag^t yo^u on the behalfe of the Lord Proprietor or else yo^u will be out-Lawed Being five tymes called they neither of [them] appeared The Judgem^t . . .