CONFRONTATION — Donald Noren (left), president of the PTA of the Fallstaff Elementary School, which figured in controversial series of stories by the News American Newspaper, on busing students explains his position on controversy to a last week citizens group meeting called by Dr. Furman L. Templeton, executive director, Baltimore Urban League. Mr. Noren said statements attibuted to him in the series were "distorted." Among others attending were (from Mr. Noren's left) George T. James, Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations; Dr. Leon Sachs, Jewish Council; William Hankins, Federation of Civil Rights Organizations; Dr. Templeton, Mrs. Velma Rector, Youth Incentives; Salanda Whitfield, PTA president, Edgecome Circle Elementary; The Rev. Marion C. Bascom, International Ministerial Alliance; Dr. M. Berry, Department of Education, and the Rev. Frank L. Williams, also of the Ministers Alliance.

Gunman gets $6,400 at Advance

A lone gunman held up the Advance Federal Savings and Loan Association in the 1600 block W. North Ave., at 9:30 a.m. today (Friday), and escaped with an estimated $6,400.

Daniel Spaulding, manager, who was not at the office at the time of the holdup, said the gunman entered, brandishing a pearl-handled pistol.

Misses Viola Dixon and Claudia Dennis, both tellers, and Mrs. Shirley Boyd, bookkeeper, were on duty at the time of the robbery.

The employees were busy giving FBI agents an account of the robbery, and were unable to talk to the AFRO reporter.

At presstime, FBI agents were combing the office in search of details and interviewing eyewittnesses.

At the time of the robbery, the office had been open a half hour. Mr. Spaulding said no customers were there at that moment.

The gunman was described as a brownskinned man, approximately six feet, two inches tall, with a heavy mustache and bareheaded.

He entered the bank's front door, escaped through the main office and fled west on North Ave.

Dr. W. O. Bryson, president of Advance, told the AFRO this was the first time the bank had been robbed in its ten-year history.

He said extra security measures will be taken in addition to those already employed.

Quettes give $1,000 on hospital pledge

The Quettes, auxiliary to Pi Omega Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, recently presented a $1,000 payment to Earl Hagan, representing the Provident Hospital Development Fund.

At their February meeting it was announced that the group's first pledge of $1,500 had been completed and that this payment was on a $5,000 second pledge.

Funds for this payment were received in December, 1966, when friends of the Quettes danced on New Year's Day at the Mondawmin holiday ball.

Chairman Constance Ward announced final plans for the group's luncheon-fashion show to be given on Saturday, March 18 at One West. Hats by Mrs. Ida Williams and furs by Mitchell's will be shown.

Hostesses for the February meeting were Mesdames Helen Smith, Elnora Barber, Margeree Green, Rosetta Dorsey and Mary Buster.

Attending the card party business meeting were president Margaret Jackson and these members:

Mesdames Hazel Parker, Kathyrn Grant, Mary Ervin, Juanita Gates, Willie Cardwell, Fannie Perry, Mildred Alston, Elizabeth Custis, Evelena Henderson, Shirley Strother, Joyce Blanchard, Mabel Grant, Phoebe Triplett, Marian McIntosh, Effiretee Payne, Ponjola Priest and Beatrice Holley.

OIC program begins; Enon rally Saturday

A mass rally will be sponsored Saturday by the Baltimore Opportunities Industrialization Center (OIC) at Enon Baptist Church, Schroeder St. and Edmondson Ave.

The public meeting, set for 11 a.m., is part of the effort to raise funds and encourage community participation in the self-help program.

Free adult education classes and feeder courses began Monday night in temporary quarters at the Maryland Baptist Center, McCulloh and Mosher Sts.

Robert Bagley, director of the program, said vocational training is expected to begin within a few weeks.

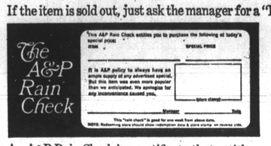
we care A&P

we never "run out" on a sale!

We never advertise a special sale item unless we have an ample supply. Once in a great while, the special is more popular than we imagined. So occasionally, we do run out of the item.

But we never "run out" on a sale.

If the item is sold out, just ask the manager for a "RAIN CHECK".



An A&P Rain Check is a certificate that entitles you to buy the item at the same special price, the following week.

We think that's the fair thing to do. We think that shows "WE CARE".

Not every store can care that much. A&P can... and does.

Shouldn't A&P be your store?
