Sir I have received your Letter of the 2^d Ins^t and think I cannot, with Propriety interpose and stop the regular Course of the Law without being previously informed of the particular Circumstances of each Person's Case committed and confined in Goal and therefore must request the Favor of you to apply to the Magistrates who committed the Soldiers and obtain a State of the Proof or Testimony against each Person. If the Crimes with which they stand charged, are not atrocious, or the Evidence against any of them should be insufficient to induce an Opinion of their Delinquency, and no Inconvenience likely to result to the Public from my Interference, I shall not hesitate to free them from their Restraint, Zeal for the Common Cause and a strong Inclination to oblige you, conspire powerfully to influence me to take every Measure to restore these Men to the Army, that is not incompatible with the Laws of the State and the great Duties I owe to Society
