[Council to Capt. Wm. Middleton]

Sir The Fly, a Vessel belonging to M^r Maccubbin, is loaded with a Supply of Cloathing for the Troops of the Maryland Line. She is entirely defenceless and, to proceed to Petersburg without a Convoy, at this Time, with a Cargo so extremely valuable would be hazardous. We therefore request you will accompany her to the Mouth of James River, or until she shall be out of the Reach of the Enemy
