Gent From the Representation of some of the Officers of the Maryland Line, we are inclined to think that the peculiar Situation of that Division renders a further and an immediate Appointment of Officers necessary, and therefore we wish, if it can be done with Propriety, that you will commission William Sim, Adam Jaimison, Joshua Rutledge and John Clarke, Ensigns in the fourth Regiment, strongly recommended by Col<sup>o</sup> Hall; Edward Hamilton and John Brevit Ensigns, the former recommended by General Smallwood and the latter by General Gist and other Gentlemen.—Rigby,—Edmiston and Ezekiel Harrey, for Ensigncies in the sixth Regiment by Col<sup>o</sup> Williams. We submit to your Consideration, whether at this critical Iuncture, the Advantages arising to the Army from filling these Vacancies will not over balance any Inconveniencies which were apprehended from further appointments, In Consequence of our Letter of the 26th Ian<sup>y</sup> last, a Commission of Ensigncy issued to John Smith in stead of Edward Miles Smith; we beg you will correct the Error and believe us to be with Sentim<sup>ts</sup> of Respect &ca p. 109
