Bartz estate

The residue of the estate of Mrs. Hazel C. Bartz has been distributed among her children, according to the administration account filed in Orphans Court, this week.

Mrs. Bartz was survived by Floyd Bartz, Mrs. Helen Johnson, Mrs. Geneva France, and Mrs. Pauline Brooks.

Mrs. Brooks administered the estate, which amounted to $3,671.68.

Each of the above children received $417.95 from the balance after expenses and costs of administration were paid.

Easter meaning

A special program that will explore the dramatic encounter between a Jewish sign painter and a Roman soldier after the Crucifixion of Christ will be presented on What Is Easter? on Easter Sunday, March 26, at 10:30 a.m., on WBAL-TV 11.

CORE backs poverty unit

CORE Target City Project announced this week support of the Rescuers from Poverty fight for better welfare.

Walter S. Brooks, project director, said, "The state of Maryland and particularly Governor Spiro T. Agnew can no longer sit by and allow the poverty which most welfare recipients find themselves in to continue."

"CORE not only supported the immediate action of the march in Annapolis on Wednesday, March 22, but will support and assist the Rescuers from Poverty in any action deemed necessary to improve and increase the welfare budget."

Navy nurses

Across the country, nurses are demanding pay and benefit increases. In the United States navy, nurses have been enjoying equal pay and privileges for years.

Navy nurses men and women, are guaranteed such benefits as a 30-day paid vacation every year, complete medical and dental coverage, pay for all travel in the line of duty, food and quarters, all the recreation, facilities and activities provided by the navy exchange.

$32,211 estate to four sisters of Mrs. Sampson

The $32,211.72 estate of Mrs. Sarah Sampson will go to her four sisters under a will the long-time city school teacher had drawn up shortly before her death on Jan. 31, this year.

The estate is all cash with the exception of her home, 2454 Woodbrook Ave., which is inventoried at $4,500.

THE INVENTORY also lists $6,214.43 in Provident Savings Bank; $17,243.75 in the Baltimore City Retirement System and $4,253.54 in the Credit Union of Baltimore.

Beneficiaries are Mesdames Bessie L. Hicks, Agnes Thomas, Estelle C. Hawkins and Alice L. Pullett.

MRS. HICKS will receive the Woodbrook Ave. property, and the balance of the estate will be divided equally among her and her three sisters.

W. Emerson Brown, attorney, was named by Mrs. Sampson as executor of her estate.

Benefit office closed Friday

All offices of the Department of Employment Security will be closed on March 24 (Good Friday), an official state holiday.

Claimants for unemployment insurance benefits who regularly report on Fridays, have been notified of an alternate reporting date.

Granger rites set Saturday

Funeral services for Hurie Granger, a native of Blakely, Ga., will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Leadenhall Baptist Church.

Mr. Granger, who made his home in Baltimore since 1926, died Tuesday.

Mr. Granger, 84, lived at 2405 Baker St., and was a retired employee of the Olin Matheison Chemical Co.

Survivors include his wife, Livie and five daughters, Mrs. Madeline Nelson, Mrs. Mary Watson, Mrs. Chessie Brailey, Mrs. Katie Parker, and Mrs. Donnie Johnson.

He pressed was father-in-law of Del. Troy Brailey (D. 4th Balto).

The family will receive friends Friday evening from 8 to 9 p.m. at the Leadenhall Baptist Church.

Burrell presents concert here

Kenny Burrell and his Jazz group played a recent engagement at Baltimore's Famous Ballroom.

The affair was sponsored by The Left Bank Jazz Society.

Other members of the Burrell group included Richard Wyands on piano, Martin Revera on bass and Bill English on drums.

Selections played by the group included blues, standards, and a number of modern arrangements.

Broken is the family circle,
Our dear one has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day;
But we must all follow in language
O'er the grave of him we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet him
In the better world above.
