[Council to the Purchasing Commissaries]

Sir So much depends on your Success in procuring an immediate Supply of Provision for the Army that we Suffer the greatest Anxiety in finding you are under any Difficulties in executing the Business entrusted to you; in order to facilitate it all in our Power we have enclosed        Pounds of Tobacco, which we request you to dispose of on the best Terms you can, not under        and to apply it towards the Purchase of Provision. We are sensible this will go but a very little way, yet it may be of some Assistance, distributed among those whose wants are most pressing until we can send you a further Supply which we shall attend to when in our Power. From the Difficulty of procuring the necessary Materials, we are afraid it will be at least three weeks before the Treasury will be supplied with the new Money to be emitted under the Act to enable the Treasurer of the Western shore to draw and sell Bills of Exchange and for an Emission of Bills of Credit if necessary. When that is done you will receive a share of it and it will be proper to make your
