ON SUNDAY, the Johnson-Jackson Legion Post opened the softball season with Finks Bar at Banneker but the Fink nine were too much for our team. The Finks won 6-3.

Mrs. Mildred Michael traveled over the weekend by bus to return her daughter, Anita, to school.

On Saturday, the Mt. Olivet men's basketball team finished the season by defeating their arch-rivals Catonsville Methodist by a score of 117-82. The Hawks are undefeated this season.

Mt. Olivet Methodist Men held their regular monthly meeting and announced that the Rev. Parham of Eastern Methodist Church will close out the two-month service now in progress.

This Saturday at Church Hall the men will hold a chicken and roast beef supper from 12 noon to 8 p.m.

Military rites scheduled for Vietnam casulty

Military rites were held at 10:30 this morning (Friday) for Marine Cpl. Ralph J. Smith, 7007 Herlem Ave., who died in Vietnam March 26.

The Rev. Sidney Daniels presided at the services at Emmanuel Christian Community Church where the 19-year-old serviceman was a former usher and member of the Santuary Choir.

Burial is in Baltimore National Cemetery.

CPL. SMITH was born April 11, 1947 in Baltimore and would have marked his 20th birthday next week.

He left the 10th grade at City College and enlisted in the Marines April 7, 1965. He finished basic training at Parris Island, S.C. and was shipped to Vietnam last November.

According to the Defense Department, Cpl. Smith was killed during bombing attacks at Quong Troi March 26.

A letter his family received this week was written March 24, two days before his death.

Saying "things are pretty bad" the young Marine told how some of his companions were killed and praised their bravery in action.

He also told of church services he had attended and enclosed a program.

The body arrived in Baltimore Monday. The Nutter Funeral Home arranged the rites.

Cpl. Smith is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mamie E. Smith of the Harlem Ave. address. Also surviving are his grandmother, Mrs. Katie L. Smith; a great aunt, Mrs. Mary Johnson;

Four aunts, Mesdames Thelma Pollard, Helen Butts, Frances Case and Miss Ellen Smith—two uncles, Albert Smith and Ralph A. Smith, cousins and other relatives all of Baltimore.

Resigned minister wished for stronger housing bill

"I have been most rewarded by the continuing warmth with which I have been received by the people of Baltimore.

"I have been most disappointed by the failure of the State Legislature to enact a strong fair housing law."

These were the observations of th eUnitarian minister who came to Baltimore six years ago to pastor the First Unitarian Church at Charles and Franklin Street as he resigned from his pulpit this week.

THE REV. IRVING R. MURRY, 1965 recipient of an Honorable Mention on the AFRO-AMERICAN Honor Roll, will rest, write and then probably pastor a new church. His citation by this newspaper was for his forthright, liberal stand on most matters affecting the colored community.

Particularly noteworthy has been the minister's leadership in activating the Maryland Branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, an organization which supports individual rights through courts and the legislature.

EARL L. CAREY Jr., executive director of the Maryland branch, ACLU, said that the minister is largely responsible for the development of the branch from a homeless organization with a mailing address only, into a broadly-supported, active agency with local offices and staff.

During the war years, the Rev. Mr. Murray was executive of the Unitarian War Service Council and Unitarian representative to the Protestant General Commission on Army and Navy Chaplains, which commissioned all Protestant chaplains in the service.

He is now a member of the denomination's Education Department Committee, of its Pamphlet Commission, and of its Board of Ministerial Review.

IN ADDITION to maintaining a four-time a week radio spot he has authored one book, broadcast, the Rev. Mr. Murray's "A Religion of Theor Own," and will produce a new book on liberal theology.

AS A civil libertarian, the Rev. Mr. Murray has been in the forefront of those urging a Fair Housing law for the Free State.

His disappointment with the weak housing statute passed by the legislature in its closing days therefore could have been predicted.

"THE PACE of progress and change is exciting in this town," he said, "and I believe it will continue until the full potential of Baltimore is achieved."

First Unitarian Church, which welcomes all worshippers, had a membership of around 150 when the Rev. Mr. Murray assumdassumed leadership. He leaves it with 700 on the rolls.

APRIL 15

"For Millions, Literally!—No Place Like Home!" will be the topic of Sunday's 11 a.m. sermon at the First Unitarian Church, Charles and Franklin Streets, by the minister, the Rev. Dr. Irving R. Murray.
