Me-De-Sos aim to project culture and responsibility

By LULA MACKAY

The Me-De-So Club, in presenting young women at their annual cotillions, do so with the hope of passing on the baton of culture, education and dedication to future generations, the President told guests, Friday evening.

Dr. John Braxton, who heads the organization of physicians and dentists, pointing to the continuing expansion of women's world said that they must not only arm themselves with charm, intelligence and poise, but also with the tools and skills required to cope with the increased tempo, complexity and demands of modern living.

"Without these you face the danger of being sucked into the quicksand of complacency and inertia, and slipping out of contact with the tide," the speaker told the young women.

The Friday evening event was the 21st cotillion held by the Me-De-Sos. Dr. Albert Laforest, who initiated the presentations, and who served as master of ceremonies, pin-pointed the requirements, including each prospective debutante being a college student. The club, he said, has presented 400 young women during the 21 years, and less than two percent have failed to complete their college training.

In addition to Dr. Braxton, officers of the club are:

Dr. Lionel Desbordes, vice president; Dr. George Woodland, recording secretary; Dr. Bernard H. Christmas, financial secretary, and Dr. Gilbert Banfield, treasurer.

Members include:

Drs. Bernard N. Christmas, Thomas Harris, J. Baisel Weaver, Henry Welcome, William Watts, John Campege, Ivan Higgins, John Holmes, Charles Watts, Albert Laforest.

Drs. Frank Reckling, Frank Saunders, M. L. Barksdale, William Beaman, Charles R. Campbell, Bruce Alleyne, Eugene Owens, Richard Hunt, Percival Smith, W. Atwell Jones and Earl Clay.

This year's debutantes included:

Misses Leah Davis, Deleanor Harris, Bonnie Randolph, Parona Deerey, Betty Matthews, Alicia Wallace, Angela Gibson, Patricia Hayes, Ann Lansey, Joanne Williams and Carol Sheffey.

Apple-Corned Beef Platter

The emphasis is on flavor rather than frills in this tasteful pairing of favorite family foods.

Hearty and homey, the Fresh Apples and Corned Beef Platter, features tart and tangy all-purpose Washington Winesap apples as the perfect taste complement to savory corned beef with cabbage wedges. The addition of caraway seeds adds a piquant touch to this easy-does-it-dinner.

FRESH APPLE-CORNED Beef Platter is made with four lbs. corned beef, one stalk celery and leaves, one carrot, thinly sliced, tbsp. caraway seeds, four Washington Winesap apples, cut in three-fourth inch rounds; and one medium cabbage, cut in wedges.

Cover corned beef with cold water, add celery stalk and leaves, finely sliced carrot, quartered onion and parsley sprigs. Bring to boil, reduce heat, cover and simmer until one meat is tender (about four or five hours.

About fifteen minutes before serving time increase heat, add caraway seeds, apple rounds and cabbage wedges (secured with picks.) Bring to boil, cook five minutes, reduce heat to simmer and continue cooking about five minutes more or until apples and cabbage are tender.

Place corned beef on a platter and surround with cabbage wedges and apple slices. Serves six.

Benefit recital

A recital, "Words and Music," will be presented on Sunday, April 9, at the First Baptist Church, at 3:30 p.m.

Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, the recital is being given for the benefit of the Baltimore Rescue Mission that gives to needy men seeking employment, food, lodging, clothing, bath, shave and haircut without charge.

She adds, "Over a hundred men pass through their doors daily. This mission, under the dedicated leadership of Raleigh Holt, receives no regular funds from any group. Help is needed to keep their doors open."

The program will include music by Alexander Gaskins and poetry reading by Mrs. Smith. There will be no admission charge. A public offering will be accepted after the recital.

we care

A&P It isn't easy to buy bean coffee!

Nowadays, very few stores offer you bean coffee.

Why does A&P still offer coffees in the bean?

Basically, because "We Care."

Specifically, because we know these facts:

The coffee bean is nature's seal that holds the flavor.

Once that seal is broken by grinding, flavor fades...

NO MATTER HOW IT'S PACKAGED.

The shorter the time between grinding the beans and brewing your coffee, the greater the flavor.

So if you want the finest cup of "The Think Drink" you've ever tasted, buy and brew one of A&P's three Bean Coffee blends... Eight O'Clock, Red Circle or Bokar.

Not every store can offer you custom-ground bean coffee. A&P can and does.

Shouldn't A&P be your store?
