MISS LINDA D. RODGER

Linda Rodgers, eighth grader, publishes poem

The National High School Poetry Press has announced that a poem by 15-year-old Miss Linda D. Rodgers has been accepted for publication in the annual Anthology of High School poetry.

Miss Rodgers, of 520 Lyndhurst St., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rodgers. She is an eighth grade student at the Francis M. Wood Junior High School, Carrollton and Schroeder Sts.

Linda is a member of the Greater Olivet Baptist Church.

Because of the encouragement of Mrs. Ruth Thornton and Mrs. Haskins, her teachers, Linda entered her poem, "Columbus."

Mrs. Rodgers announced that Linda is the first student of the Francis M. Wood School to receive this honor.

Dennis Hartman, editor of the National Poetry Press, awarded to Linda a "certificate of merit" for her contribution.

MRS. LYDIA MESSENDER

Nutrition course

Mrs. Lydia W. Mussenden has been promoted to chief nutritionist at the Maternity Center, 211 W. Lombard St.

Mrs. Mussenden, who has been with the center since its inception over two years ago, received her M.S. in nutrition frtm Cornell University and her B.S. from Howard University.

Mrs. Mussenden, a native of Washington, moved to Baltimtre in 1940 and was married to the late Dr. Glenford F. Mussenden, well known Baltimore physician who practiced in the city for 25 years.

ConCon topic of Morgan's 3rd institute

The Institute for Policitcal Education at Morgan State College will sponsor its third annual one-day conference for high school teachers of history, civics and social studies 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Satruday, April 15.

The subject will be "Constitutional Reform in Maryland."

Three sessions and a luncheon are planned. H. Vernon Eney, chairman of the State Constitutional Convention Commission, will be the luncheon speaker.

Other persons participating in the conference as panelists are members of the Constitutional Convention Commission and Academicians who have served as consultants to the Commission and to the Legislature on the question of constitutional reform.

TEACHERS OF history, civics and social studies, together with any others interested in attending, may obtain registration forms at their schools. Because of space limitations, only the first 250 reservations can be accepted.

For further information, write or call: The Institute for Politician Education, Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md. 21212 — Phone: Clifton 4-6870 — Ext. 293.

Augustus A. Adair is director of the Institure.

APRIL 16

As its fourth presentation in the current series of concerts, the Bach Society of Baltimore will present Joseph Stephens, harpsichordist in a recital at the Goucher College Lecture Hall at 8 p.m. Dr. Stephens will perform 12 preludes and fugues from Book of the Well-Tempered Clavier by J. S. Bach.

Air Force calls for more nurses

The U.S. Air Force has a number of vacancies for registered nurses, according, to Air Force Recruiter T/Sgt. Johnnie M. Vines.

Starting salaries range from a minimum of $5,243.76 to $9,167.76 per year.

Male and female nurses will be accepted. Contact the Air Force Recruiting Office, Room 305 Calvert Building, Fayette and St. Paul Sts.; or call 727-4245.

Benefit recital given Sunday

Requiem Mass was said Thursday at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church for Marine Lance Cpl. Eugene J. Payne III, 3819 Pall Mall Rd., who died in Vietnam March 28.

Military rites were held at the graveside in Baltimore National Cemetery.

Lance Cpl. Payne was 21. He died from the explosion of a land mine that killed 13 Marines during a demonstration at the Da Nang Air Base.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Payne of the Pall Mall Rd. address.

A MEMBER of the 1963 Douglass High School class, he enlisted in the Marine Corps after graduation and was serving his second tour of duty in Vietnam.

According to his mother, he volunteered for a second year to take the place of some other serviceman with a family.

Surviving are the parents; two sisters, Joanne and Gail; two brothers, Anthony and Ricky; a half brother, Donald Powell.

CPHA luncheon

"Let's Get Acquainted" is the theme of the luncheon meeting to be held 12:15 p.m. Tuesday by the Citizens Planning and Housing Association at it downtown headquarters, 330 North Charles St.

According to Harry J. Casey, Jr., CPHA president, the luncheon will offer new and prospective members the opportunity to meet with CPHA's officers and professional staff and discuss the activities in which the voluntary organization is currently engaged to promote better living conditions in the Baltimore area.

Committee chairmen will be on hand to describe their committe efunctions so that the newcomers can choose a commitee on which they can serve.

The 23 study committees in the city and County range in subject matter from A to Z—air pollution to zoning — and include education, housing law enforcement, neighborhood improvement, neighborhood sanitation, liquor outlets study, parks and recreation, planning, residential renewal and conservation, and transportation.

CPHA has recently celebrate its 25th anniversary, achieving a membership of nearly 3,000 members including 300 business firm and 150 improvement association.
