Birthday Tributes

VALENTINE — In loving memory of my husband, HARRY, whose birthday was April 7th.
For twenty-five years of happy days.
Nothing could ever erase your winning ways
A dedicated man to a cause from early youth
Until God made you pause.
All who knew, you respected your word.
Because of your integrity your values were heard
Your laughter was hearty, your step serene
Nothing but right could ever come
You set a goal
And stayed straight on the line.
Those with whom
You met were inspired by your mind
God must have needed you more than us here
On this land. You chose me as your loving mate.
May we who are left to mourn our lost, learn a
Lesson and try to emulate.
By Devoted Wife,
LORETTA
