Mrs. O. Freeman

Mrs. Olive K Freeman, 77, of 1715 Druid Hill Ave. died Wednesday at home after a brief illness.

She was one of the oldest residents of the block and a native Baltimorean.

An active member of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, Mrs. Freeman was a member of the Sodality and Ladies of Charity Club.

She was the wife of the late Charles Freeman and is survived by two children, William Van Lear and Miss Cleota Kelly; and two grandchildren.

Arrangements had not been completed at press time.

Mrs. E. Taylor

Funeral services for Mrs. Elmira Taylor, 79, 1601 Bakeoury Ct., were held today (Friday) at John Wesley Church.

Mrs. Taylor died Monday. She was the wife of the late Eugene Taylor and is also survived by a son Otis Slinney; two brothers, Rayfield and Linwood Wright; and five grandchildren all of Baltimore.

Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Miss Rose Backus vies for 'Miss Baltimore'

Miss Rose Mary Backus, first runner-up for the title of "Miss Baltimore 1966", will compete again for this title this Saturday.

The Baltimore Pageant will be held in the Landsdowne Auditorium of the University of Baltimore and will begin at 8 p.m.

The 22-year-old Baltimorean, of 2304 Popular Grove St., is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Backus. A 1963 graduate of Western High School, Miss Backus attended Morgan State College from 1963-1965. She then attended Coppin State College for a year and returned to Morgan in 1966.

Presently, Miss Backus is substitute teacher at School No. 452. She is an elementary education major, and will attend Coppin in September to obtain her degree.

Miss Backus is a member of the Morning Star Baptist Church. She is also a Diann Kane Model and will be appearing in a Yachting Fashion Show for the Neptune Yacht Club's dinner at the One West.

Miss Backus' mother, Mrs. Mary Backus said, "officers of the Baltimore Junior Association of Commerce, who will sponsor the Miss Baltimore Pageant, urged Rose Mary to contend again this year for the title of Miss Baltimore. Of course, I am hoping for her success."

Protect furniture finish by dusting with the grain of the wood. Wiping across the grain can cause scratches, since dust contains grit.

Use a few drops of quality furniture polish on the dust-cloth so that dush clings to it instead of merely being pushed around on the surface.

AME conference to call for early peace in Viet

The Baltimore Annual Conference of the AME Church is expected to issue a statement Sunday urging the United States to seek a swift end to the war in Vietnam.

Bishop George Wilbur Baber said that a position on the war in Asia would be one of the issues on which the church will take a stand when it announces its annual manifesto this Sunday at the Big Bethel AME Church on Druid Hill Avenue.

More than 1,000 members of the AME Church from Baltimore and surrounding areas are in the city to take part in a six-day annual conference which opened Wednesday at St. John AME Church.

Churches throughout the area are making their annual reports at the conference.

* * *

THE MANIFESTO, Bishop Baber said, will also address itself to the problems of open housing and the war on poverty.

Asked how strong a stance the AME Church would take on the war, Bishop Baber replied, "We are going to urge the Administration to end the war as soon as possible. We are anxious for peace but we won't repudiate the government.

"We won't say anything that will give aid to the enemy."

Presiding elders at the conference include Elders John M. Cox, William E. Moseley and A. L. Murray.

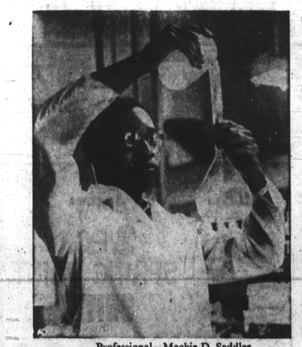
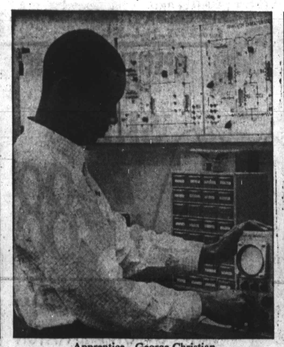
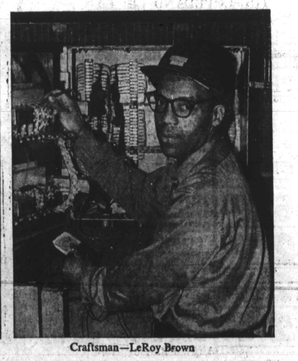
WE NEED MORE QUALIFIED PEOPLE FOR JOBS LIKE THESE



Professional—Mackie D. Saddler



Apprentice—George Christian



Craftsman—LeRoy Brown

Bethlehem Steel is a dynamic, growing organization. As it grows, its need for people grows. Qualified people of many skills. People who desire to apply their skills to the best of their ability, and make a good living doing it.

Bethlehem has long recognized that this kind of talent and enthusiasm does not come in packages determined by color of skin, religious belief or racial background.

A large proportion of the work force at our Sparrows Point plant—about 31%—is Negro.

Right now there are openings at Sparrows Point plant for qualified persons in the following jobs:

- Craftsmen
- Craft Helpers
- Truck Drivers
- Firemen
- Clerical
- Professional

If you are experienced in any of the above types of work, and would like to put them to work in a career at Bethlehem Steel, stop in at the Sparrows Point Plant Employment Office for an interview. Hours are from 8:00 to 12:00, and from 1:00 to 5:00, Monday through Friday.
