Leadership training conference

The Harlem Park Neighborhood Council will hold its third leadership training conference on Saturday, April 29, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Harlem Park Junior High School and Recreation Center, Calhoun Street and Harlem Avenue.

This year's conference is entitled, "The Role of the Individual in the Life of the Community."

The workshops will be de-voted to key areas of concern to the Harlem Park Neighborhood Council and other community groups throughout the country.

Discussion topics will be centered around home and neighborhood conservation, human relations in an urban neighborhood, neighborhood organizations and their relation to the total community, in one of the workshops.

and the role of the youth and young adults in the community.

In addition, there will be an officer's seminar conducted

DURING THE luncheon period, a panel discussion will be held which will be devoted to all of the areas in each workshop. Panelists include Mrs. Ruth W. Rosenthal of Citizens' Planning and Housing Association, Johnnie Jowers of the Red Shield Boy's Club and the Rev. Marion Bascom of Douglas Memorial Community Church.

Representatives from civic and neighborhood groups, as well as the general public are cordially invited to participate in the conference. A registration fee of $3 will cover the cost of the luncheon and all other materials to be used during the day.

Reservations may be made in advance by contacting Mrs. Rose Jones at NOrth 9-4020 or Center 3-5226 or Mrs. Carrie Bryan at LAfa-

we care

A&P

Caring about you is just plain good business

Without you, we don't have any business.

So, if we want to continue to be successful,
as we have been for more than 100 years,
we better CARE ABOUT YOU.

We better care about how we serve you,
about what we serve you,
about being fair, honest, and dependable.

When you get right down to it, you're the boss at A&P
And it's always good business to be good to the boss.

Not every store feels this way.
A&P does!

Shouldn't A&P be your store?

CALVERT COUNTY NEWS

Taylor, Carroll exchange their wedding vows

By MELVINA EDWARDS

Miss Joan Elizabeth Taylor of Washington, D.C., and Stanley Leon Carroll of Huntingtown were married April 22 at St. Edmonds Methodist Church.

The marriage, which was attended by more than 200 guests, was performed by the Rev. William Edwards, pastor of St. Edmonds.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Taylor of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Frank Carroll of Huntington.

A reception was held at the armory in Prince Frederick. The couple, who received many gifts will live in Washington.

BIRTHDAY greetings are extended this week to Mrs. Hazel Mullen.

Rev. and Mrs. William Edwards were dinner guests at the home of the Freeland family. Other guests included Mrs. Dorothy Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Slepney and Isaac Wills.

* * *

WEDDING bells will ring Saturday for Miss Loretta Selena Johnson and Lawrence H. Davis Jr. The ceremony will be performed at the Christ Congregational Church in Silver Spring.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Johnson. Mr. Davis is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Davis Sr., a former pastor of a Huntington Church.

A reception will follow the wedding.

MRS. ROSIE SMITH is a patient at Calvert County Hospital. Mrs. Letha Chase of Chesapeake is also confined to the county hospital.

The condition of Gross Jones of Sunderland, remains the same. He is confined to a wheel chair unable to work.

Daniel Whittington is in Calvert County Hospital with a broken back and other serious injuries.

Leroy Jones is home from the hospital much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray of Sunderland had a baby this week.

JAMES TITUS will leave Sunday for Bethlehem, Pa., after visiting as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar James in Sunedriand.

Miss Doris Parron, a senior at Morgan State College, who was in Calvert County Hospital, is out and has returned to school.

Miss Willie Matthews, a teacher, is confined to Calvert County Hospital.

Mrs. Nettie Giles is also a patein in Calvert County. Also on the sick list this week is Mrs. Joethal Jones of Huntington.

While in the Calvert County Hospital area please don't forget to drop in and cheer up the young MaKall, a teenager who is recuperating there after being injured in a bike accident last week.

Also on the mend at Calvert is Mrs. Nettie Giles, the wife of Oscar Giles.

* * *

THIS WEEK'S sick and shut in list includes George Rice, Mrs. Letha Chase, William Jones, Mrs. Amaza Booze and Leroy Jones. Hope to see them all up and around very soon.

The old stork brought a bundle of joy to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray of Sunderland. Proud paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Major Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Alnutt Chase will celebrate their 17th anniversary this week. The happy couple are the parents of six children.

Mrs. Evelyn Booze Smith is resting at home after a brief visit to the hospital. The nurse is a former Calvert Countian.

Babies baptized at St. Edmonds this week include, Myra Gross, Derrick and Xavier Gross, children of Mr. and Mrs. William Gross.

James Titus of Bethlehem, Pa., is visiting relatives in Calvert County. He is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar James.

ONE MORE on the sick list over at Calvert County Hospital is Miss Doris Parren, a recent graduate of Morgan State College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar James.

That's it for this week Calvert Countians. I'll see you all here on the AFRO pages next week. Bye for now.

COMMITTEE PLANNING the Schaefer Show of Stars, a fashion show-tea, to benefit Provident Hospital, are, from left: Mesdames Muriel Cousins, Pinnie Ross, Maggie Watkins, Vivian Scott and Lorraine King. The affair will be held in the Civic Center on May 7th at 4 p.m.

WBAL-TV to air Ghana musical

Four young ladies from Ghana, dressed in colorful native costumes will be joined by Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Africa for a presentation of sacred and popular African music on "The Good News" this Sunday at 10 a.m. on WBAL-TV 11.

The program will include a Ghanaian version of the prayer "Lord Have Mercy" and "The Nicene Creed." and on the lighter side the "Peanuts" song, all accompanied solely by drums.
