REV. NATHANIEL HIGGS

A Tribute To Mother

A Mother builded a Temple,
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plans,
For the Temple the Mother builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.
Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust,
Low lies each stately pillar
Food for consuming rust.
But the Temple the Mother builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.
