Joe Frazier camp rejects 'elimination tournament'

NEW YORK (UPI) — The syndicate that manages Joe Frazier, the unbeaten and second-ranked heavyweight contender, decided Wednesday not to permit him to fight in the elimination tournament for the vacant title.

On the advice of trainer Yancey Durham, who has been careful in picking all 16 of Frazier's pro opponents, Cloverlay, Inc., voted against entering the 1964 Olympic heavyweight gold medalist in any tournament.

The syndicate said it wouldn't enter Frazier because it didn't want him "tied up for two years by the ancillaries" and "the money wasn't enough."

• • •

THE PROPOSAL by the tournament organizers called for the eventual winner to fight two years under Sports Action, Inc., the firm that will handle the ancillary rights for the eliminations.

"We won't fight in a tournament," said a spokesman for Cloverlay, "but we'll fight anyone, anytime." He added that the group felt Frazier could make more money in individual bouts.

• • •

MIKE MALITZ, president of Sports Action, said, "It's unfortunate if Frazier won't fight in the tournament, but I don't agree that the reason is financial. They have never tried to discuss the proposals. If he's no. 2, I don't see why he'd object to meeting anyone in the top 10. He can't keep fighting scrapiron Johnsons."

Malitz added that he still hoped to come to terms with Frazier, Manuel Ramos of Mexico, is likely to replace Frazier in the eight-man field if he pulls out. The others in the field are Floyd Patterson, Karl Mildenberger, Oscar Bonavena, Ernie Terrell, James Ellis, Thad Spencer and George Chuvalo.

• • •

HOWEVER, plans for the tournament might have hit another snag on Wednesday. Bonavena, a crude Argentine slugger, said in Buenos Aires that he wants more money than he has been offered.

Bonavena has caused trouble for promoters before by raising his demands after negotiations already have been supposedly concluded.

When he fought George Chuvalo in Madison Square Garden last year, Bonavena balked on the day of the fight and said he would not go through with the bout unless his purse was raised. The Garden complied with his demands.

• • •

NONE OF the fighters have been signed, but most of them have shown they would be willing to enter the tournament. The tentative pairings had Frazier, or possibly Ramos, against Chuvalo on Sept. 2; Patterson vs. Bonavena on July 15 at Houston's Astrodome; Terrell vs. Ellis, Aug. 4 with the site yet undecided; and Mildenberger vs. Spencer, Sept. 16 at Frankfurt, Germany.

The semifinals and finals would be held in the Astrodome, which also has an interest in Sports Action.

Bears cop CIAA golf

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — Morgan State College captured the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) golf championship here early this week.

The Bears combined to card a team score of 677, which provided a 20-stroke margin over the rest of the field. Virginia Union was runner-up with a 697 total score.

• • •

THE MORGAN victory broke an 8-year domination of the sport by Winston-Salem State (NC) College. Since its inauguration as a varsity competition, the CIAA golf meet had always been won by the Rams, tutored by ex-Morganite Tom Conrad.

The Morgan contingent turned in the following cards: Rodney Watts 86-82, for 168; Allen Wilson 83-86 for 169; Richard Brown 83-86 for 169, and John Bullock 83-88 for 171.

• • •

VIRGINIA UNION'S James Howard was the tournament medalist with 82-76 and a 36-hole card of 158. Second for individual medalist honors was John Latham of Winston-Salem, 88-78 and 166.

The win wrapped up an undefeated season for the Bears who were 6-0 during the regular campaign.

Md. State tops CIAA baseball

PRINCESS ANNE Md. — Wins over A and T College and Shaw University have pushed the Maryland State College baseball team into first place in the CIAA standings.

The Hawks have won 23 of 24 games over a two-year span, including 15 consecutive victories last year. The conference record now stands at 6-1 with two games remaining with Howard and Delaware State.

• • •

THE JOHNSON brothers—Elroy and Gorman — of Hanover, Md., hurled these two victories, Elroy twirling a four-hit, 7-5 win over A and T and Gorman a five-hit, 9-6 win over Shaw.

Second baseman John Harvin went three-for-four at the plate and Marshall Cropper and Tick Hebron added two hits apeice against A and T.

Against Shaw, Charlie Stukes and Tick Hebron paced the attack with three hits apeice including a homer by Hebron.

• • •

THE JOHNSON boys have accounted for six of the eight Hawk victories with Gorman showing 4-1 record and a 1.61 ERA and Elroy a 2-0 record with an ERA of 1.31.

John Harvin continues to lead the attack with a .448 batting average, followed by Hebron (.425) and Stukes (.424).

'I've gained peace of mind,' Clay tells Chicago students

CHICAGO (UPI) — Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay told a University of Chicago rally Wednesday night he refused to be drafted because "in war it's kill, kill, kill and kill some more."

Clay was among the speakers at an anti-Vietnam rally in Stagg Field House, called by the University of Chicago Student Body president. It was among a series of such meetings at colleges and universities throughout the nation, some of which were linked by telephone to a "teach-in" program at Harvard University. An overflow crowd of 1,600 attended the Chicago meeting.

"There's one hell of a lot of difference" between professional boxing and war, said the former heavyweight champion —whose title was lifted when he refused to be drafted in the army.

"In the ring, for one thing, we have a referee to stop the fight. Doctors and managers are nearby and thousands of people watch the fight. In the ring, my intention is to fight a clean fight," Clay said.

CLAY, WHOSE appearance brought a five-minute standing ovation from the students and faculty members, said, "as a (black) Muslim minister, my views on war and violence are well known. The No. 1 dream of my religion is, 'May peace be unto you'."

Clay, wearing a gold shirt, blue suit and blue-and-gold-striped tie, said he has "gained a lot" by refusing induction into the Army.

"I've gained peace of mind, peace of heart, and I'm in content with God, and I have gained respect from everyone here today as well as worldwide," he said.

"It has been said that I have two alternaties — go to jail or the Army. But there is another, justice. If justice prevails, I will go neither to jail nor to the Army."

Miracles heading show at Civic Center Sunday

Rockin' Robin of WEBB will reward Mothers, Sunday, May 14 with a Mothers' Day Soul Session Extravaganza at the Civic Center beginning at 8 p.m.

One of Motown's ton recording groups, the Miracles, will headline the show. The Miracles have had such hits as "Going to a Go-Go," "Love is Like a Mirage" and their present big one "Come Spy with Me."

Backing up the Miracles will be the Isley Brothers, currently riding high with "Got to Have you Back"; the Contours, the Mad Lads, singer Maxine Brown, Comedian Jimmy Pelham and direct from the Apollo Theatre in New York City, "The Magnificent Men."

U.S. loans to spur housing here

Richard L. Steiner, director of the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Authority said Thursday night, federal loans totaling $12.4 that he was confident that million would spur his agency's efforts to increase the number of low-income dwelling units in the city.

Maryland Senators Daniel B. Brewster and Joseph D. Tydings announcd the loans Thursday.

Three of them totaling $10.5 million, are earmarked for projects involving construction of 936 new housing units, including 150 units for older citizens.

The fourth loan of $1.9 million, will help finance the purchase and rehabilitation of 140 existing low-rent homes.

Steiner said the loans, which were applied for last year, have already received the approval of the Baltimore City Council.

Two of the developments will be located in the Mt. Winans area and another project would be situated north of Druid Hill Park.

The loans were approved by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

They are scheduled to be repaid from proceeds of the sale of long-term bonds to private investors.

WASHINGTON

Unnoticed in the excitement of the successful class boycott at Howard University Wednesday was the result of the secretive disciplinary hearing for the four students charged in connection with the March demonstration against Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey.

Homecoming Queen Robin Gregory requested and obtained permission to leave the hearing after learning the charge against her had been dropped.

LOME, Togo — (NPI) — Edward Kennedy "Duke" Ellington became the "first living artist" to be featured on Togolese postage stamps, when the government issued stamps recently bearing the Duke's portrait to honor him on his 68th birthday.

Duke was also chosen as one of the 20th Century's greatest artists as part of the observance of the UNESCO's 20th anniversary.

University students who boycotted classes Wednesday disproved a prior administration contention that only 50 students and 8 faculty members were radically dissatisfied with university conditions.

Many scheduled classes did not meet in the College of Liberal Arts. Others dismissed after meeting briefly.

Those that did meet were usually occupied by less than half a dozen students.

Her lawyer asked the committee to dismiss the case against her since the personal charge had been dropped and her picture did not appear in any of the photographs exhibited as evidence. The committee said Miss Gregory would be notified about whether or not the committee's charges against her would be dropped.

Hearings were conducted for the other students charged in proceedings which lasted approximately 80 minutes. They were cross-examined about their anti-draft beliefs by members of the committee. They were told they would be notified by mail of the decision of the disciplinary committee.

The thousands of Howard dropped by the person who originally brought it. "I didn't see any reason for me to stay, so I asked my attorney to ask the committee if I could leave."
