If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

I remember Mama

"A mother is a mother still, the holiest thing alive."
—Samuel Coleridge Taylor

Sunday, May 14th is Mother's Day. Remember your mom or a friend's mother. The following is reprinted from this column of May 18, 1963, three years after my mother's death:—

My mother was a gentle, gracious lady. She had a medious, cultured voice and spread sunshine wherever she went.

She talked in a charming, precise manner, thanks to the school teacher experience she had before she met dad in his German class at Howard University.

My mother felt very strongly about certain things. She detested strong drink like the plague, and was vehemently vocal when there was talk of 'buying a fifth.'

She adhorred smut, foul language, gossip and disparaging talk.

• • •

IN FACT, it was my mother who inspired me to write this newspaper column.

She never got used to what she termed 'idle gossip' columns, such as appear in many daily and weekly newspapers.

(Cheap talk is the way she described them.)

'Write the good'

And, so one day 20 years ago, she said to me, "Newspapers have to print the news, but you, Bettye, write a column which will tell the good things about people, the nice things which people do.

"Don't repeat sly remarks. Don't be a gossiper. Remember," she urged, "there are always two sides to a gossip's story" (her favorite expression was, "the dog who brings the bone will carry it.')

• • •

THROUGH THE years, this column is glad to report, it has stuck to what mom called 'good things,'—people's birthdays, orchids to deserving neighbors, chitchat about people who look good and do 'nice' things.

And, never, mom, thanks to you, has there been gossip, and there never will be.

The letters which cross this writer's desk indicate our readers like mom's idea — good things.

People, places, things

Good news: Dr. and Mrs. Furman Templeton are happy and you would be too.

Their son, Roye, 23, has been appointed assistant regimental commandant at the Newport, R.I. Naval Station.

He was selected out of his class of 1,000. Pretty good,eh!

Roye has more reason to be proud himself. He graduates on June 9, and in July, his wife, Lillian, expects their first baby.

People being kind to other people: Ebenezer Baptist Church -marked the eighth anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. Maxwell Johnson, with a banquet at the Sheraton on Thursday evening.

• • •

Cuff Note: John Herculeson, who was the Tuesday speaker at the Frontiers Club meeting, is a one time Morgan instructor. He is now a chemist with the Md. Racing Commission.

• • •

Church Note: Miss Lisa Sergio, who speaks 10 a.m. Sunday at Union Memorial Methodist Church, (Harlem and Warwick), is a well known lecturer.

Presently, she is with the promotion department of the Episcopal Diocese of D.C.

• • •

Cuff Note: The handsome men's dormitory on Morgan State College campus which is named Pezavia O' Connell, Hall honors a distinguished former faculty member.

Dr. O'Connell headed the college's history department until his death in 1932.

Remember him? He was tall, tan and a handsome six footer. He was among first of our educators to earn a doctorate back in the early 1900's (at the University of Pennsylvania).

Others may recall he was the first person to build a house in Morgan Park community. It still stands at the corner of Montebello Terr. and Overland Ave.

Sold Out: the annual luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the St. James Episcopal Church Women's Guild. It is Sunday at 1 p.m. at Holiday Inn and features Pauline Brooks models.

• • •

Date Note: Ring your calendar now for the Arena Players second annual awards dinner and celebrity show.

It is Sunday, May 28th, 6 p.m., at Eastwind.

Honoree this year will be Mrs. Morris A. Mechanic, for her role with her husband in making the downtown Morris Mechanic Theatre a possibility.

Arena Board president is Mrs. Camilla M. Sherrard.

The sudden death of William Kirkwood was a shock to his former associates here at the AFRO, where he was maintenance supervisor for a number of years.

'Kirk' was a kindly fellow...Like all of us he had his foibles, but no one will deny that his devotion to the AFRO and to its board chairman was the kind of rare admiration you rarely find.

Sympathy to his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Kirkwood, 2912 Violet Ave.

A prayer for the week

This column is indebted to the Rev. Howard Cornish for the words for this week's prayer.

He is the director of Morgan

He is the director of the Morgan Christian Center who has a wealth of inspiring readings and delivers them so magnificently.

He did so on Saturday evening at the Philomathian Club annual dinner meeting.

• • •

Here it is. It is entitled, 'Awareness 'Awareness,' and is by Miriam Teichner:—

God—Let me be aware.
Let me not stumble blindly
down the ways,
Just getting somehow safely
though the days.
Not even groping for another hand.
Not even wondering why it
all was planned.
Eyes to the ground unseeking
for the light.
Soul never aching for a wild-winged flight.

• • •

Please, keep me eager just to
do my share.
God—Let me be aware.
God—let me be aware.
Stab my soul fiercely with other's pain,
Let me walk seeing horror
and stain.
Let my hands, groping, find other hands.

• • •

Give me the heart that divines, understands,
Give me the courage, wounded, to fight.
Flood me with knowledge, drench me with light.
Please, keep me eager just to
do my share.
God—let me be aware.

WAC BIRTHDAY—Specialist 4 Carol A. Westley of Brooklyn, and Specialist 4 Sherie A. Lawson of Compton are shown comparing administrative notes at Edgewood Arsenals WAC Detachment. There are approximately 50 women in the Arsenal's WAC Detachment, filling jobs that would otherwise have to be done by GIs. The women's Army Corps will observe its 25th anniversary this Sunday, Mothers Day. Rep. Edith Noures Rogers, of Massachusetts, introduced a bill in Congress in 1941 to establish this branch of service, and President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the measure on May 14, 1942. The training of more than 700 women began in mid - July at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

Old Taylor Presents: Ingenious Americans

8 of 10 in series

Charles Richard Drew (1905-1950)

He found a way to save lives by saving blood.

When someone needs a couple of pints of blood for a transfusion, his doctor simply telephones the local blood bank, and the proper type and quantity will be there in minutes. We take this for granted.

But what most of us don't realize is that only twenty-five years ago this simple phone call was impossible.

It was not until 1941 that Dr. Charles Drew, then director of the British Blood Plasma Project, introduced the revolutionary idea of a central depository for blood—a blood bank.

Drew's next step was to improve the methods of preserving blood. And, as the first director of the American Red Cross Blood Bank, he supplied much needed plasma to the United States Armed Forces.

But it was not only in the banking of blood that Dr. Drew made his mark. In the 1930's, as a professor and head of surgery at Howard University Medical School, Dr. Drew trained and encouraged hundreds of young doctors. Under his strong and inspired leadership, the enrollment at Howard swelled.

Shortly after the war, Dr. Drew was named Surgical Consultant for the United States Army. Then, a year later, his career was brought to an abrupt halt by his untimely death in an automobile accident.

Dr. Charles Drew left an enduring mark in many fields. He had been an outstanding athlete and coach, a magnetic speaker, an inspiring teacher and dynamic administrator, a gifted scientist and, above all, a skilled surgeon.

Memorials and monuments are unnecessary, for that simple phone call serves as a constant reminder of the momentous contributions Dr. Charles Richard Drew made to the world.

Birthday Tributes

ADDISON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my husband and our brother, CHARLES ADDISON, on his birthday, May 12th and who passed away May 17, 1964:

We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our minds;
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear one
On this, his Birthday Morn.
WIFE and SISTERS.

LUCAS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear daughter and sister, ELIZABETH BROWN, on her birthday May 16, who passed away February 21, 1964:

If we had all the world to give
We'd give it yes and more
To hear her voice and see her smile
We'd give it yes and more
To greet her at the door,
But all we can do dear daughter,
Is go and tend your grave
And leave behind tokens of love
To the best daughter God ever made.
We would like to think when life is done
When ever Heaven may be,
That she'll be standing at the door
up there
To welcome us.
MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS, NIECES, NEPHEWS and AUNTIE.

SNOWDEN — A Birthday Tribute of love to our beloved father, WILLIAM R., on his birthday May 11, who passed away April 8, 1966:

Birthdays were gay when you were here—
A treasured gift, a kiss sincere,
Now you're gone, we miss you so,
No gift, no kiss or you to bestow.
Only a wish, a wish that is true;
Eternal peace, father, just for you,
We will always remember, as time goes by,
And in our hearts you'll never die.
MAURICE R. and RICHARD D. SNOWDEN

In Memoriams

SEVERY — In loving memory of my husband GEORGE E. who passed away May 11, 1966:

My lips cannot tell how I miss her,
My heart cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how I miss her
In a home that is lonesome today.
Wife, VIOLETTA

CLARK — In memory of our dear mother, LILLIE, who passed away July 6, 1942:

Keep her, Jesus, in Thy keeping
Till we reach that Heavenly Shore
Then, Oh Master, let us have her
To love and keep her as before.
Children: LOUISE, FRANCES and WILLIAM.

CLASH — In memory of our friend, HATTIE, who passed away May 9, 1966:

Nothing but memories as we journey on.
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone.
None knows the depths of our deep regret,
But we remember and will never forget.
Devoted Friends: LOUISE and JAMES CAMPBELL.

HAMMOND — In loving memory of my dear father, son and our brother, WILLIAM E. (Bill), who departed this life, May 13, 1964:

BILL, we have missed the sound of your footsteps,
And your voice since you have gone,
And though we no longer see you,
In our memory you live on.
And as we smile in the daytime,
But come, night, our hearts are sore,
As we think of the dear one, God took away,
To his distant and Golden Shore.
Daughter — CAROLYN
Mother—MARY E. HAMMOND
Sisters DORIS, NELSON and GRACE HAMMOND SMITH
Brothers — HOWARD and JAMES HAMMOND

HOLT — In loving memory of my dear husband, and our father, WILLIAM (BILL), who passed away May 10, 1963:

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled!
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Wife — DORIS
Children — KIM, KEENAN, KRAIG

MOTEN. — In memory of our friend, FLORENCE, who passed away April 4, 1966:

Life can give no greater treasure
Than a friendship, warm and true,
And, no words can ever measure
All the Friendship felt for you.
Devoted Friends: LOUISE CAMPBELL and FAMILY.

In Memoriam

POULSON — In loving memory of my husband and our father, THEOPHILUS A. POULSON, SR., who passed away May 14, 1965:

Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
WIFE and CHILDREN.

SEMBLY — In loving memory of my father and our loved one, JOHN H. SEMBLY, SR., who passed away May 11, 1965:

Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father and loved one rests in heavenly peace.
God grant some day we'll meet him there.

WHEATLEY — In loving memory of my beloved mother, MARY E., passed June 26, 1958, sister EDNA J. WILLIAMS passed April 20, 1945, sister ANNIE MAE SMITH, passed January 20, 1967:

We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee."

APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY

The Johns Hopkins University

The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, operates under contract with the Bureau of Naval Weapons. The development of the Navy's Terrier, Talos, and Tartar guided missiles, the development and fabrication of satellites for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.

At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting openings for electrical and mechanical engineers, physicists, and mathematicians interested in career opportunities. Specific openings include computer programming, thermal engineering, analog and digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system test and analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering (ramjet and rocket).

The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington, D. C.) and in Howard County, midway between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptionally complete facilities contain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries and cafeterias.
