Philly 'iron man' faces 2nd foe in week tonite

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Gypsy Joe Harris says his 10-round decision over Ted Wright Monday night left him in fine shape to complete his ironman stunt of two fights in a week.

Harris will meet Rudolph Bent tonight (Friday) in the semi-windup to the Curtis Cokes-Francois Pavilla fight for the world welterweight title at Dallas, Tex.

Harris has signed to meet the winner of the title cout in Dallas, on July 21.

THE PHILADELPHIA fighter showed only a slight cut on the lip as evidence of his victory over the Detroit veteran before 5,000 fight fans at the Arena Monday.

Harris was disappointed that he was unable to knock out Wright. He said Wright's 14 years experience in the ring enabled him to "slow me down a little and keep me from landing the knockout punch."
